Spring Concert Held on Friday

The Clarenceville High Vocal music department held its annual spring concert, "Panorama of Song," on Friday, May 29, in the school gym.

The first part of the program included sacred selections and folk songs from England and Latin America.

The second part was presented by the junior high girls' ensemble and the girls' barbershop quartet.

Approximately 55 girls ranging from Freshman to Senior modeled sportswear, sheath dresses, suits, and formals. All of these were made by the girls themselves.

Many of the girls showed interest by working long hours in various committees.

Miss Karen Hunley, vocal director, was in charge of the concert.

Sophomores, Parents Have Trip Club Meet

Sophomores of CHS held their fifth Parent-Student Trip Club meeting Tuesday evening, May 26.

Since the ways and means chairman was not in attendance, the meeting opened with a report on the candy sales. Approximately 1150 boxes were returned to the Morley Candy Company, and 120 boxes are left to sell.

A barbecue was the way the Hylands entertained their friend from Gross Point, Detroit, and a couple who had come to town for a long vacation. They had a great time.

RECENT WEEKEND guests of the Reddys were Mrs. Forrest Ault and her family, from Battle Creek.

Mrs. Grace Simpson, of Mayfield Ave, graciously entertained the Reddys for the subdivision clean up and picnic. The work will be concerned with the new gateways. Besides a clean up of the refuge and waste around the gateways, efforts will be made at landscaping and planting around them. Every man interested should call at the office of Farmington in Argonne, June 12 at 8:00 sharp. Saturday, June 12 a truck will be available to pick up the refuse. The picnic will be held in Rogerson's lot at 4:00 and there will be a pot luck dinner at 5:00.

BROWNIE TROOP 573 led by Helen Gillings, earlier this month enjoyed a trip to nearby Cranbrook Science Museum.

While they were interested in everything they saw, the troop especially enjoyed the exhibits of Indian culture because they have been working with an Indian theme this past year.

There were 100 girls in attendance.

Helping with the driving were Mrs. Virginia Slagle, Mrs. Leona Stidwell, Mrs. Betty Coon, Mrs. Pat Grimaldi, and Mrs. Gillings.
