Redford

The young men of the Methodist church undertook quite a job last Tuesday night when they gave a banquet to the young ladies and essayed to the catering themselves. Of course the girls say it was just delightful and grand and so forth, but it is hinted that many a smile was hidden, while a few escaped at the awkwardness of the boys. All had a good time nevertheless.

The Redford Protective association at their meeting last Monday night made the selection of the men whom they desired to have appointed deputy sheriffs and forwarded the following names to Sheriff Oakman on Tuesday: Wm. French, Joseph Schlaff, Albert David and Albert Franklin.
