The front section of the book is largely pictorial, illustrating many of the scenic and historical attractions of the area. Then comes the County Sections, offering a comprehensive description of the attractions and facilities of each county in Southeastern Michigan. Next is the Information Section, which includes a 1959 Calendar of Events, industrial plant and bus and boat schedules, golf courses and many other pertinent data helpful to the visitor. This is followed by a directory of eating, sleeping and services facilities within the area who through their membership in the Association aid in making the publication and distribution of the Vacation Guide possible. Copies of either the Vacation Guide or the Tourist and Resort Map may be had by writing or phoning the Southeastern Michigan Tourist and Publicity Association, 1407 Washington Blvd., Detroit 25, or WO 1-2780.
