Wandering Thru Woodbine

Ethel Begian GR. 4-4759

A clean-up Drive, sponsored by the Woodbine Improvement Association, will be held, Saturday, June 27, from 12:00 to 5:00. The purpose of this Drive is to provide an opportunity for you to dispose of those items which will not be taken by your regular pick-up. The committee will welcome volunteers to ride with the trucks and help with the pick-up. Express your desire to make this drive a lot easier by offering your services to President Frank Reeder, GR. 4-0179. Make a note now Saturday's the day to rid your home and yard of those objects you've been wishing someone would haul away.

LESLIE FORDY's plans for a festive summer were cut short recently. He was named president. That seasonal, suburban monster, the power mower, he claimed its first, and we hope last, casualty of the season. Les was cutting grass on a hill when his foot slipped on the wet grass. The blade made a nasty cut, but fortunately no lacerations were severed. The exact number of stitches is not known. The doctor with his keen sense of humor said he stopped counting when he reached 55. Les spent five days at St. Joseph's Hospital in Pontiac.

Our sincere sympathy to the family and friends of Mrs. F. Bolle of Briar Hill, who passed away on June 10 after several months of serious illness. Burial services were held at Glen Eden Cemetery.

Jim Chelmina's family is happy to welcome him home for the summer. Jim has home completed his junior year at Houghton College of Mining and Engineering. He holds the distinction of being editor of the school paper.

JESSIE GIDDAY is at New Grace Hospital in Detroit for a short stay. A check-up is in order and we expect her to return to her home on Briar Hill within a few days.

Jeanne and Bill Frazier have just returned from a two week trip touring Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, and Illinois. They visited Bill's folks in Ottumwa, Iowa; a brother in Omaha, Nebraska; and friends in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, St. Louis, Mo., and Rock Island, Illinois. When asked what was the highlight of their trip, Jeanne said she supposed it would be the aroma that flowed from home after a mishap on a back-road in Iowa.

Seems they ruined a tire trying to avoid hitting a skunk. However, as luck would have it, he missed. Consequently, his odor lingers on.

"MIKE CHELMINA" is home after vacationing in New York City and Gettysburg, Va. with three friends from the Farmington area.

A G. M. chartered cruise on the S.S. Aquarama was the pleasure of Dorothea and Hank Paul, and Jean and Tom Kiley, with their friends, last Saturday evening.

Eli and Margaret Hilliard enjoyed a visit last weekend from Eli's sister, Mrs. Agnes Schimke and family of Rock Island, Mo. Also stopping in for a short stay was Eli's brother Arthur and his family, also of northern Michigan.

Betty and Heine Blome entertained their friends last night. "Bon Voyage" party Saturday in honor of Heine's mother who left for New York on Sunday. There she boarded the "Berlin" for a vacation in Germany.

RECENTLY the Pinocchio Club enjoyed an early dinner at Topinka's Country House, then went on to the movies, Meeting at the Club. The guests were Stella Gorgol, Elva Bunting, Dolores Zerio, Mary Gurizian, Margaret Hilliard, Margaret Halas, and Theresa Hatfield.

CHARLOTTE and Dexter VanWicklin dined and danced with their Pinocchio Club at the Rendezvous in Windsor.

The clubs seem to be ending their season by dining out. So, it figured, the Sewing Club dined at candlelight at Devon Gables and dispersed until Fall. Gathered round the table were Mary Chelmina, Barbara Fritz, Lois Hoelscher, Jean Nagel, Joyce Tamsen, Margot Thieleman, Gwen Wrigley and myself.

NOT TO BE OUTDINED by all this dining out, four young men decided they'd not only dine out but sleep out. Ray Palombini, Jimmy Elam, Bobby Donovan, and Tommy Orlikowski cooked their dinner and slept curled up on the chilly ground in the woods back at the subdivision. Understand they were indulging in hot soup at midnight.

The Cancer Pad Sewing Group held their last meeting of the season at the home of Dorothea Paul last Thursday evening. Participating in the stitching along with Dorothea were: Madeline Gibson, Margaret Fordy, Margaret Hilliard, Helen Mosey, and Gwen Wrigley.

As a desperate effort to keep our excellent reporter, Lois Hoelscher, on the job, I hesitantly extended an offer to assist her in writing the column. She accepted. Show her your appreciation and let her know just how much you enjoy her reporting by calling her with your items of interest.

Jehovah's Ban In Argentina Being Protested

The Farmington congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses learned that Jehovah's Witnesses in Argentina have been denied their constitutional rights of free assembly and worship.

A vote of protest was taken and plans discussed to petition the Argentine Republic to correct the restrictions laid on the Christian group's activities.

Mr. Ernest Szalma, the local congregation's minister, said that in spite of many liberal advances made by the present Argentine government that ousted the dictatorial Peron regime, a few non-Catholic religious groups that were declared illegal by Peron have yet to be recognized by Argentina's Frondizi.

According to Mr. Szalma, two applications for recognition were denied by the "Ministry of Worship," a department of the government formed by Peron to control the registry of all five million Catholics in the country. Furthermore, few futile appeals have been made to the present government to rescind the order denying Jehovah's Witnesses the right to register. The latest appeal was made following a new decree signed by Frondizi on February 6, 1959, giving non-Catholic religions full right to worship God as guaranteed by Article 14 of the Argentine Constitution.

Mr. Szalma said the more than 6,000 Jehovah's Witnesses in Argentina began circulation of a petition addressed to the president of the Argentine Republic requesting recognition under the new, liberal provision of his government.

The neighboring countries of Bolivia, Chile, Paraguay and Uruguay are circulating similar petitions to enlighten the people of those countries, as well as Frondizi, with the condition that exists in Argentina.

Operator's quick action saves child's life

After a dozen or more calls, Miss Wagner found a man who knew about the tablets and put him in touch with the hospital.

The doctors were now able to go ahead. Darryl made a complete recovery.

Later Mr. Todd wrote that but for Miss Wagner, the vital information might never have been found. He added that her efforts were "beyond that which any subscriber could require." For her initiative and resourcefulness, she was awarded a telephone company citation.

As always, it's people like Bernice Wagner who make phone service so dependable. Both in everyday use and in emergencies, your telephone is worth far more than it costs.

Bernice Wagner, Senior Operator

When two-year-old Darryl Campagna was admitted to the Redford Receiving Hospital, doctors knew that he was poisoned. But they didn't know the kind of poison — and they had to know this before they could give the proper antidote.

The facts were these: Darryl had chewed a deodorizing tablet from a bottle that was six years old. The maker's name was on this bottle but he was no longer in business.

The hospital manager, Howard Todd, called the telephone operator for help in the urgent search to find someone who could tell them more about the tablets. Bernice Wagner, senior operator, began systematically making phone calls.
