

J. A. Smith, W. Schultz Wed by Father of Bride

At a wedding solemnized at Bethel Baptist Church on Friday evening, Joe Ann Smith, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Farmington, was united in marriage to Wayne Schultz of Tacoma, Washington.

The bride's father performed the ceremony. Mrs. Sheila Johnson presided at the organ and the soloist was Mrs. Eleanor Scharesburg, who sang "I Walk Beside You" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace over slipper satin and tulle, designed with a fitted bodice and scalloped neckline. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white gladiolus and baby mums.

Mrs. Irene Conover, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and the bridesmaid was Miss Donna Jean Mumford, cousin of the bride. They wore yellow silk organza over taffeta with matching headpieces and carried cascades of yellow gladiolus and aqua mums.

John Chonowski of Detroit, was best man. Ushers were Richard Smith, Harold Andrews and Paul Houghton.

Active at Girls' College in East

Recently, Miss Judith Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Becker, 29430 Middlebelt Road, arrived home from Linden Hall Junior College in Little, Pennsylvania, second oldest girls' college in America.

Miss Becker has been active this year in the Water Ballet and the Girl and Spur. On June 4, at the annual activities banquet at Linden Hall, Judith was granted an activities key awarded for outstanding contribution to the school's extracurricular program.

For the annual May Day and Horse Show held on the campus, Miss Becker was highly honored by being named home man attendant to the queen.

For the morning horse show program, Judith won first place in each class she entered and was awarded both the trophies—the Championship in Advanced Equitation and the Championship in Jumping.

Has Small Part in Playhouse "Caesar-Cleopatra" Production

Cynthia Jennifer Beerbohm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Beerbohm, 20201 Gillman, Livonia, is appearing at Northland Playhouse this summer. This consists of learning all theater jobs, from constructing and painting scenery to box-office business, and the possibility of being given a small part in some of the professional plays.

When "Caesar and Cleopatra" opened at the Northland Playhouse Monday night, July 6, with Susan Strassberg and Franchot Tone in the leading roles, the part of Charmian, a companion of Cleopatra, was given to Cynthia.

A 1958 graduate of Clarenceville High School, where she was active in speech and forensics, Cynthia just completed her freshman year at the University of Michigan. She appeared in the Speech Department production of "Volpone" in April.

A member of the Farmington Players, Cynthia has been in two of their productions—"The Boy Is Green" and "Aaron Slick from Punkin Creek."
