New State Fish Guide Is Out!

A newly-revised edition of "Fishing in Michigan" has been released by the Michigan Tourist Council.

The colorful, 32-page guide outlines year-round fishing opportunities in this vacation state. Copies are available without charge from the Council's office, Lansing 26, Michigan.

Prepared cooperatively by the Council and the Michigan Conservation Department, the popular booklet includes sections on fishing sites, baits, accommodations, camping, fish preparation, and cooking, deep water trolling, ice fishing and smelt dipping, in addition to illustrations of the state's various game fish.

Another feature of the publication is a two-page Michigan fishing map, showing general distribution of game fish species in the state.

The publication also includes other valuable information on the fishing variety offered by Michigan's 40,000 square miles of inland lakes, streams and Great Lakes water.

News Tidbits of Interest
From Orchard Meadows Subs
 Daniel Hickey GR. 6-1869

Hello there, Farmington. Let us introduce ourselves. We're Orchard Meadows, a new subdivision located one block south of Thirteen Mile Road and just off Drake Road.

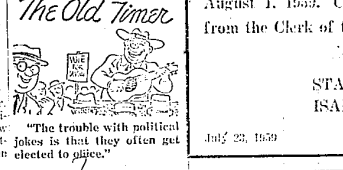

AT PRESENT we're small—just sixteen families; the Vics, Camps, Bob Grays, Bob Stevens, Dan Hiebert, Frank Shaver, Bob Meyers, Ron Walls, Sent Browns, Bill DeHanna, Jack Yates, Sam Cappers, John Combs, Gene Hills, Rod Hurts, Bob Beemers and Bill Fitzgeralds. I expect we'll grow fast, however, when they finish with us we should have around fifty-four homes.

With the help of our attorney, Dan Nelson, we've incorporated ourselves and the next move will be to join the League of Subdivisions Assn. if they will accept us.

WE'RE ANXIOUS that you know us and like us. So if you can't follow this column and I'll try to keep you posted of developments of Orchard Meadows and the very nice people living here.
