The Barrier Between You and Trouble

It is a wise man who can persuade himself that there are wolves abroad in the land other than the one which dire poverty usually impersonates. "No work" may be snuffing at the heels of the laboring man. "Reduction in the office force" may be snarling; even now at the salaried man. "Poor Crops" occasionally prowls around the farmers' fields, and yet a little surplus in the bank is a barrier across which the wolf of "hard luck" has never been known to come. Protect your home and yourself by opening an account with this bank.

PRETENTIOUS IN QUALITY OF MUSIC

Was the Last Meeting of the Ladies Literary Club, Held at
Mrs. Agnes Chamberlin's

The musical given at Mrs. Agnes Chamberlin's on Wednesday of last week by the Ladies' Literary club was the most pretentious one ever given by them in the quality of music tendered at least. Nearly 30 ladies, members and guests of the club, enjoyed the program.

Mrs. Verna Adams gave an interesting paper on "The History of Music and Drama in Italy." This was followed by a selection from Donizetti's Rigoletto played by Mrs. Dohany in her usual brilliant style. Miss Mary Kennedy then sang a beautiful solo. "Over the Hills to the Sunlight Land," accompanied by Mrs. M. R. Wilber.

Mrs. Horner gave a resume of Donizetti's opera Lucia DeLaurmormoor, after which she played the beautiful Sextette. As Mrs. Horner has heard this opera several times sung by the greatest of the operatic stars, notably Melba, Eames, Tetrazzina and others her part on the program was of unusual interest, aside from the delight which she gave her audience by her wonderful playing.

Mrs. Bertha Steele gave the story of Il Trovatore, after which in illustration, Mrs. Dohany again played several selections from Verdi's most timely and popular opera. A duet from the same opera, "Back to Our Mountain," sung by Mrs. Cook and Miss Lulu Grace, finished the program. We were then invited by the hostess to remain for a social hour, during which ice cream and cake were served.

The next meeting of the club, Feb. 5, will be held at Mrs. Martha Hatton's.

Stepped in a Hot Well

Chas. Pashley, who has been employed at the power house at the junction for some time, accidentally stepped into a small well of hot water Saturday night and his leg was very badly scalded. He is improving and no very serious effects are looked for.

Meetings of Milk Men

There will be a meeting of the Mutual Dairy association at Clarenceville next Tuesday at nine o'clock in the morning and on Monday evening at the Wolfe schoolhouse.

The object of these meetings is to vote on the price to be fixed for milk for the next six months and all members are urged to be present. President Paulger will attend both meetings.

A meeting of the Mutual Dairy men's association will be held at the Grace House Saturday, Feb. 1st, at 7:30 p.m. By order of committee.

Secretary Linabury of the Pontiac Commercial association is in receipt of a letter from Congressman Samuel W. Smith, expressing his interest in the endeavor of Oakland county to secure a farm expert and stating that he will use his best efforts to have one assigned to this county soon.

Dr. Eben Mumford, who is in charge of the federal work in Michigan, has also written Secretary Linabury, notifying him that Oakland's application has been placed on file and that it is possible an expert may be assigned here by the first of July. He urged the formation of a farm bureau at once so the expert will have an organization with which to work as soon as the appointment is made.

The Service Which the Minister Renders to the Community

Rev. Simpson W. Horner
I purpose to set forth in briefest sentences what I conceive to be the highest type of service which the ideal minister offer to the people of his city or town.

First let us try to get a conception of the ideal minister of Jesus Christ. Literature abounds in portraits of the model preacher.

In a McLaren says: "While the theologian has often been hated, the pastor has always been a favorite, and his beautiful duties have frequently appealed to the poetic imagination." How delicately his Goldsmith touched the simplicity and saintly poverty of the village pastor; his sympathy with all kinds of suffering, and his unbounded charity, his presence and spiritual succor at the last hour.

Let me quote the familiar lines; "Thus to relieve the wretched was his pride,
And even his failings leaned to virtues side.

But in his duty prompt at every call,

He watched and wept, and prayed for all,
And as a bird each fond endearment tries
To tempt its new fledged offspring to the skies.

He tried each art, reproved each fault delay,
Allured to brighter worlds, and led the way.

To the grace of this conception Victor Hugo gives his noblest character, the Bishop in Les Misérables, who was so beloved by his people that they called him Monseigneur
