

Alta Loma Happenings

LYNN ROTH GR. 4-5481

Mary and Carl Wheaton of Alta Loma had Mary's mother visiting them since the first of August from Yale, Michigan. The last Wednesday night, Mary's mother suddenly passed away of a heart attack.

Howard and Inez Buck of Alta Loma drove to El Paso, Texas in August to visit their daughter and her family. Inez said the scenery on the trip through the Ozark Mountains, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Texas and Texas was breathtaking and with a total of over 3000 miles the Buck's saw not one accident on the highways.

THE LEE, John and Helen of Alta Loma, left their son for the first time in 24 years when he was home on leave from Hawaii for a month during July and August before returning to a new camp in California. The, too, John and Helen were honored with the arrival of their new grandchild this summer when their daughter, Lorraine, gave birth to a baby girl, Joanne Ross. Just as the baby was born, the LEEs left for their studies at Michigan State University so Helen called this her "Family Summer".

Ray and Miltie Reiterman and their son Lee of Cass Avenue took a three week trip out to California this summer. On their trip they took in the sights of Grand Canyon, Salt Lake City and visiting friends who have grown up in the Mojave Desert. Then in California they visited relatives in Alhambra, saw Disneyland, Palos Verdes Estates, Marineland, Palms Springs. The highlight of the trip was when the Reitermans saw the sights of Balboa Bay and Island. Ray and Miltie's daughter Stacy was on the trip with Miltie's niece and spent the summer working after she arrived home from her trip with the Reitermans to Texas.

DICK AND CAROL Sterling and family of Fleming Drive spent a very relaxing week's vacation at Lake Charlevoix near Boyne, Michigan. Carol's mother, Mrs. Emma Bashford, also of Fleming Drive, spent last weekend with her friends as they motored to Hillsdale, Michigan.

Visiting for a month with Gaylord and Princess Speaker of Moore Drive is Gaylord's mother from Orlando, Florida. The Pritchard family of Fleming Drive enjoyed a visit from Harry's mother when she spent two weeks here with Harry and Gladys from Mason City, Iowa. Their daughter Betty drove grandmother home and at the same time their son Pat drove to Miami Beach with his cousin to visit former friends from Farmington.

A surprise birthday party was given for a friend by Roy and Vera Mathieu of Moore Drive last Saturday night. The eight guests played cards before ice cream and birthday cake were served with the lunch at the close of the evening.

Celebrating their 32nd wedding anniversary last weekend, Raymond and Virginia Hamlin of James Court flew to Chicago to visit friends who entertained them at the Nuttall's drive to Dayton to spend a week with friends and relatives.

Greg Murland, four month old son of Frank and Audrey Murland, was born on September 27, 1959, after a seven week pregnancy but is doing fine now. Visiting the Murland family are two year old Kim and four year old Ken, children of friends living in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Roths, young truly and husband, just returned last Friday night from a week's vacation in Michigan's upper peninsula. Grandmother Lutz stayed home with the children. Then Sunday several friends, relatives and neighbors joined in an impromptu affair celebrating our 12th wedding anniversary.

During this past summer we had John and Dora Grossman move into their new home on Cass Court. Formerly of Wilmette, Illinois, the Grossmans have two married children, a son stationed with the Marine Air Force in North Carolina and a daughter who is studying at Union Seminary in New York City, New York.

Laura Ann Eisenmann, daughter of John and Rowena Eisenmann of Alta Loma, celebrated her 15th birthday with a party last Saturday afternoon. Susan Roth, Diane Karner, Darlene and Sandra Baird, Heidi, Millard, Betty Moore and Joanne Yochum all joined in the games of musical chairs, pin the tail on the donkey and cold rush. The party was a success and was enjoyed by all.

PAM REED, daughter of Noel and Dorine Reed of Alta Loma, enjoyed a trip to Europe this summer. Pam with a girl friend sailed over to visit Pam's grandmother in England and a week's side trip to Paris and Switzerland. While in England, Pam acted as bridesmaid for a friend's wedding. She and a half week later the girls returned home aboard the Queen Mary.

The Nagys' Al and Ingrid and family of Moore Drive, spent two very restful weeks vacationing at a cottage in Ocean City, Maryland, this past summer.

The Rev. and Mrs. Markham and family of Cass Avenue, returned from a trip to Pigeon, Michigan to celebrate the 70th birthday of Louise's mother.

Lois and Bill Hoelscher are slowly getting back to normal after an enjoyable weekend in Grand Rapids as guests of Norman and Larry Ann, former residents of Detroit, and longtime friends of the Hoelschers.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bowie had a swimming party for friends a week ago Sunday to open the new pool.

David Haffey celebrated his 46th birthday with a party for his friends last Saturday afternoon. Enjoying the games, movies, and refreshments were: Kathy Prescott, Debra Elaga, Debbie Nagel, Joy Hilliard, and Billy Hall. Danny Blome, Jimmy Trick, Mark Arnsen, Jimmy Innes, Jimmy Arnold, and Bill Beggs.

IF YOU'RE interested in the latest fall fashions, take to Jean and Doris Jackson, joining in the festivities were Dottie Dawkins, Frances Smith, Gladys Walkins, Betty Tings, Dolores Gorniak, Stella Gorgol and Dixie Bonner.

MAXINE PLOSKONKA was on the guest list at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hall and Mrs. Bob Dingman celebrated their anniversary, the 9th birthday of their son, respectively, by enjoying dinner at Saratoga Farms last Saturday.

Neil Denovan, Mother Vice-President of the Middlebelt PTA, extended an invitation to all parents and friends to attend the PTA meeting, Monday, October 5, at 8:00 p.m. at the school.

JOINING HER Girl Scout troop this summer, Cynthia Reinke, daughter of Jack and Pearl Reinke of Alta Loma, made a trip to St. Louis, Mo. This past weekend Cynthia was at the Girl Scout Camp at Indianwood, Michigan.

Dick and Jeanette Nielsen of Moore Drive entertained Dick's parents who came to visit in August from Dayton. The family toured all the Detroit sights and the first week of September at their country club in Dayton to spend a week with friends and relatives.

Greg Murland, four month old son of Frank and Audrey Murland, was born on September 27, 1959, after a seven week pregnancy but is doing fine now. Visiting the Murland family are two year old Kim and four year old Ken, children of friends living in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Eisenhower's bust and a missile are the latest additions to a 254 coin-bank display at an Oregon bank.

The Ford Falcon, first of America's new-size cars, represents a "breakthrough" in automotive design that may materially alter the future of the automobile industry. The Falcon Ford shown here is more than two feet shorter and three-quarters of a ton lighter than a standard 1959 Ford. Yet, the Falcon is a six-passenger car, with interior roominess approximating that of standard models.

Two Enrolled At Wheaton

Two Farmington students are enrolled at Wheaton College (Illinois) for the 1959-60 academic year.

They are Suelen Hymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene D. Hymes of 3807 Alta Loma, and David Roland Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Warner of 3260 Eleven Mile Road.

Miss Hymes is a sophomore and is interested in the study of the humanities. She formerly attended Michigan State University. Warner is a junior and majoring in history. He is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Legated in suburban Wheaton, twenty-five miles west of Chicago, Wheaton college attracts students from all over the United States. Students from 35 foreign countries lend a cosmopolitan atmosphere to the campus, where the enrollment is limited to 800 undergraduates and 100 students in the Graduate school and seminary.

Liberal arts and sciences college, Wheaton is rated Class A by the University of Illinois. It holds membership on the approved list of the Association of American Universities and of North Central Association.

Srs. B. Hannah Burial on Friday

Mrs. B. Hannah, 1429 Crescent Drive, Detroit, passed away September 35 at Pines Convalescent Home, Farmington following an illness of several weeks.

She was born in West Virginia January 22, 1907, the daughter of Louis and Minnie (Cutlip) Anderson, and was married to Andrew G. Hannah, Jr. on October 17, 1928. A former resident of Farmington, she moved to Detroit just six months ago. Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters and three sons—Mrs. Barbara Lee Dumes and Mrs. Lois Ann Corda both of Detroit; Andrew G. Hannah, Jr. of South Lyon, and Richard E. and Danny R. Hannah, both at home, and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. Friday with Rev. Carl H. Schultz of the Salem Evangelical and Reformed church, Farmington, officiating.

Interment was in Parkview Memorial Cemetery, Livonia.

James Healy Aboard Aircraft Carrier

James L. Healy, radioman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Healy of 20332 Tuck, Farmington, is serving aboard the aircraft carrier USS Hancock operating with the U. S. Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

The Alameda, California, based flatboat began her seven-month tour of duty Aug. 1.

Fastest Gun at Ford Showing

The showing of the new Ford line in Farmington is going to be a bang-up affair in more ways than one, promises Berling-McHugh.

The entire line, including the Falcons and trucks, will be ready for a pre-showing Wednesday, Oct. 7, from noon on, although the official showing is Thursday.

Another big attraction has also been arranged, especially for the "younger" car enthusiasts.

Joe Bodrie, nationally renowned gun expert, will be on hand and help introduce the new cars. He will put on an

Two Township Youths Appear In 'King and I'

Two Farmington township youngsters will put aside their normal routines, this week and next to appear in the stage production of "The King and I" now showing at the Cass Theater in Detroit.

The children are Kevin Blake, 9, and his sister Lorene, 6, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Blake live at 2325 New Circle.

Kevin and Lorene landed roles as two of the 20 oriental children in the stage play which stars Miss Betty White as Anna.

Actually, there are 60 youngsters filling the parts of oriental children in the performance.

The 60 youngsters have split their appearances, three days each, between the Cass and the Detroit Playhouse.

Originally, a public announcement in Detroit drew more than 900 youngsters to try out for the 60 vacancies. Kevin and Lorene were two of the children selected; Kevin even has a line to speak in the play.

The two local youngsters opened their appearance Wednesday evening. The production started Tuesday night and runs through Oct. 11.

The oriental children of the King of Siam in the play, Miss White of "Jack Park Show" TV fame is usually regarded as a comedienne, but presents a highly stentorous performance in this stage show.

The play centers around the King of Siam and Anna, who teaches the King's children.

Fire Ruins Part Of Club House

Fire destroyed the front of a two-story club house at Bob O-Link Golf Club, located on Grand River at Beck road in Novi, early Tuesday morning, Sept. 22. Losses were estimated at close to $20,000.

State police detectives last week were investigating the cause of the fire.

The blaze was discovered about 2:30 a.m. and in less than an hour fire fighting units from Novi, Walled Lake, Northville and South Lyon had brought the flames under control.

The fire threatened to destroy all of the club house. As it was, the kitchen and the storage room were destroyed, along with a large amount of food supplies. Other portions were also damaged severely.

'Corsairs' to Play For Teen Toppers

The Teen Toppers Teen Club dance this Friday evening will feature the music of the "Corsairs".

The dance will be held at the American Legion Hall in Grand River at Lakeside starting at 8 p.m. and run until midnight.

These weekly Friday night dances are open to all between the ages of 13 and 20.

Fish Fry Slated at Masonic Temple Sat.

Trinity White Shrine of Farmington will be serving a Fish Fry at the Masonic Temple, Farmington, on Saturday, October 3, from 5 to 8 p.m.

The public will be served all types of food at a nominal fee.

Madonna Grads To Meet Oct. 4

The Madonna College Alumnae Association will hold its annual meeting at the college in Lyonsia, Sunday, Oct. 4.

The day will begin with Mass in the campus chapel at 10:00 a.m. followed by brunch.

The main order of business at the meeting will be the election of officers for a two-year term.

Following a tea at 3:30 p.m. the program will conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Dorothy Lapczynski and Gertrude Bank, program chairman, announced that baby sitters will be provided for those wishing to bring their children.

As green leaves turn to red and red leaves turn to brown, our college students are leaving town to attend their schools of higher learning. Jim Chellman has returned to Houghton College of Mining and Engineering to continue his studies. The senior Bill Fulton has returned to University of Michigan. Among those leaving to begin their freshman year are Sharon Hedges, Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti; Jerry Orlikowski to University of Detroit; and Mike Chellman has selected University of Michigan.

SEPTEMBER was also the month for newleaves to our midst. On September 17, Julie Dingman and Tom Hedgeswood were united in marriage at the Methodist Church on 105 Mile Road and Telegraph. A family reception was held at Dingman's following the ceremony. Tom is a graduate of Farmington High School. The honeymoon couple traveled to Tennessee to visit Tom's folks who have recently moved there from Farmington.

On September 11, Bill Fulton and Sandra Staker of Ann Arbor were married. This ceremony and reception were held at the home of Connie Smith, his hostess by Connie, Marion Hall and Doris Jackson, joining in the festivities were Dottie Dawkins, Frances Smith, Gladys Walkins, Betty Tings, Dolores Gorniak, Stella Gorgol and Dixie Bonner.

MAXINE PLOSKONKA was on the guest list at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hall and Mrs. Bob Dingman celebrated their anniversary, the 9th birthday of their son, respectively, by enjoying dinner at Saratoga Farms last Saturday.
