GR. 4479

Steve Harns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harns, has returned to school after a short stay at St. Joseph's Hospital due to a virus infection. Mrs. Paul Harns Sr. of Dayton, Ohio, had been a recent visitor at the Harns household.

Mrs. Harold Miles from Anna Maria, Florida is visiting her daughter and family. Mrs. and Mr. Richard Decker of St. Joseph's. Mrs. Miles visited in Farmington for a few weeks and then travelled to visit friends and relatives in Duluth, Minnesota. This is her return visit before starting South on Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas Edlinger will recall the night of October 1st to come. On that evening, thirty of her neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. Al Blum to honor her with a surprise baby shower. The Edlingers have recently welcomed into their home four months old John Thomas. Gifts were presented and a social evening climaxed with the serving of assorted desserts to all. Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Thomas Edlinger and Mrs. Joe Rozman.

Mrs. Rozman was hostess a gain on Wednesday evening to her bridge group.

THE MEMBERS of St. Gerard Circle would like to express their thanks to all those who attended and those who worked toward making their bridge party such a huge success. They hope to make this an annual affair to be held on the first Tuesday of each October.

At the first meeting of the Kendallwood Association held Oct. 1, it was decided by attending members to continue with the present officers for some time to come. The various area directors will fall personally on each family to collect annual dues. Thompson-Brown has compiled a questionnaire regarding the various types of stores which are interested in locating in the new shopping center on Farmington Road. The stores will be chosen as indicated by the request and needs of the residents. Your thoughtful co-operation is asked in filling out and returning the blanks which will be mailed out soon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Gasser of Farmerville Road had the good fortune recently to even their family score. They are the proud parents of a baby girl. The Gassers now have two girls and two boys.

A PROUD father indeed is Charles Hogan of Red Clover. He called Oct. 9 to report that his wife Joan had presented him with another son that very day. The odds have been running 3 to 1 in favor of girls when a true upset occurred. Five boys were born right in a row. Thomas John who weighed 8 lbs. 2 ozs. was one of them. He is a brother to Michael who is eighteen months old.

Something very new and unusual was added to the Green Willow this week. A girl, Pamela Ann arrived on Tuesday, Oct. 6. The Coves have three boys, (Michael, Danny and Timmy) and half anticipated one of the same gender. Mrs. Mary Covanke, the paternal grandmother from Chicago, is caring for the children while Donna is reigning queen at Beaumont Hospital.

Traffic has been coming and going at the Heyn's family on Green Willow. Nancy journeyed to Pennsylvania on a well-

LEARNING ABOUT wood and bark of various Michigan trees are these youngsters gathered around Rather Brocke, park naturalist at Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford. This is just one of several educational exhibits on display at the park's Nature Center, open for public viewing from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays through Friday and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Novi Happenings

By MRS. GEORGE WAITE

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller visited in Rochester on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Evans will be travelling to Chicago, Illinois this weekend.

A regular meeting of the Rebekah Lodge was held Thursday evening, Oct. 8, at which time five new members were initiated.

Rev. and Mrs. Cook attended a class reunion at a school in Kentucky this past week. Their two little daughters were guests of Rene Evans while they were away.

THE BLUE STAR Mothers luncheon and bazaar was held at the Community Building on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson drove to Mason, Michigan on Friday where they attended the funeral of Will McGowan, brother of Belle Walter, both former Novi residents but more recently of Ormond Beach, Florida. Mrs. Walter remained with Mrs. Johnson for a few days before returning to Florida.

Plans have now been completed for the Rebekah's bazaar and rummage sale to be held Saturday, October 24, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. There will be a fish pond, grab bag home from Canada where they went moose hunting. Because of considerable rain, however, they were seldom able to get into the woods.
