'The Reluctant Debutante' Opens At Players Barn Friday, Oct. 16

The Farmington Players open the winter season this week end with the family farce, "The Reluctant Debutante." Curtain time is 8:45 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 16, 17, 23 and 24.

The play will be presented on the stage at the quaint Players' Barn located on 12 Mile road near Power road.

With this play the local players bring to Farmington the type of theater that should be of large enjoyment to the entire family. Teenagers will certainly enjoy the problems encountered by The Debutante.

One of the features of the players' presentation is that the acting is performed on a round, central stage where many of the members of the audience will be only a few feet from the actors.

Featured as the "Reluctant Debutante" will be Miss Nancy Niles, a newcomer to the Farmers' Barn located on 12 Mile road near Power road.

GIRL SCOUTS, Brownies, Camp Fire Girls units, Boy Scouts and Cubs all took part in the big parade Saturday officially kicking off the 1959 United Foundation Drive in Farmington.

All of these youth organizations are supported with Torch Drive funds. Also benefiting directly from the Torch Drive is the Farmington Area Recreation Commission which provides a well-rounded summer recreation program as well as a limited winter recreation program.

Without United Foundation help, it would be impossible to conduct any kind of a community recreation program for youngsters. Little is provided in the city or township budgets for recreation. Volunteer solicitors will be calling at your home soon asking your support for the worthwhile youth organizations as well as over 115 other non-profit service organizations.

AAUW Offers 2 Language Classes Here

The American Association of University Women announces the beginning of two foreign language classes for children.

The French class for boys and girls in grades 5 and 6 will be conducted by Mrs. Irvin on Tuesdays from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m., starting October 27. Miss Calzadillas will teach Spanish to boys and girls of grades 3 to 4 on Saturdays from 10 to 11 a.m. This class will start October 31.

Both classes will be in session for two weeks at Farmington Junior High School. A nominal fee for each course will be charged.

For further information and registration, please call Mrs. David Mills at GR 4-2715 or Mrs. Robert Mowitz at GR 4-9546.

Taking Part in College Drive

Mrs. Richard B. Armstrong of 28423 Newcastle, Farmington, is among 17 Detroit area women participating in the national alumnae fund campaign being conducted by Mount Holyoke College throughout the country this month and next.

A visit to every Mount Holyoke alumna in the area is planned by the group.

Using the same person-to-person calling plan last year, Mount Holyoke achieved the highest percentage of contributions among alumnae solicited recorded by any college or university in the country. A $300 award was made by U. S. Steel in recognition of this achievement.

Mayfair Co-Op Nursery Open House Sunday

The Mayfair Cooperative Nursery announces its annual open house for Sunday, October 18, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the school, 3220 Middlebelt, between Northwestern and 14 Mile Road.

Purpose of the open house is to acquaint fathers and friends with the nursery. Anyone interested in seeing the school, equipment and projects of the nursery is welcome to attend.

Teachers, Mrs. Jane Fagan and Mrs. Mary Pascoe, will be on hand to greet all visitors.

The Mayfair Cooperative began in July, 1955, when a group of eight suburban mothers concerned over the lack of playmates for their children met to discuss a nursery.

A member of the Michigan Council of Co-operative Nurseries, the Mayfair Cooperative serves the four-corner township area of Farmington, Southfield, West Bloomfield and Bloomfield.

The 60 children which comprise the three sessions of the Mayfair Cooperative Nursery will be taken on a field trip to McInerney's Farm and Old Orchard on Thursday and Friday, October 15 and 16. This is the first of a number of field trips scheduled for the school year.

Sweet Gifts Coming Here

Three local institutions will receive delivery of Sweetened Day gifts on Saturday from the Southeastern Michigan Sweetened Day committee.

Receiving gifts will be youngsters at Boys Republic, 2800 West Nine Mile, Sarah Fisher Home, 27400 West 12 Mile, and Farmington Children's Hospital, 3045 Grand River.

More than 500 gifts will be divided between the three Farmington institutions, the committee reported. All told, 30 Detroit and suburban institutions will receive Sweetened Day gifts totaling over 3,000 gifts.

Will Screen Volunteers for Child Care Plan

Interviewing of prospective Red Cross volunteers to serve on the Farmington Children's Home has been scheduled October 19 to 23 at the Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross, 215 Franklin Blvd., Pontiac, and South Oakland Red Cross headquarters, 215 S. Sixth Street, Royal Oak.

Hours for interviewing will be 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and interested applicants are asked to call Federal 4-3575 or Lincoln 4-5700 for appointments.

On November 19, Dr. Gertrude Goss of Merrill Palmer School will conduct a class on the emotionally deprived child.

Mrs. Mitchell added that hours of volunteer service would be extremely flexible. "There 'spot' jobs to be filled," she says.

Mrs. A. T. Barnes of Royal Oak has been appointed Training Coordinator for the program. Mrs. Mel Stevens of Farmington. They will be arranging training dates and places.

Area Educators To Have Tea This Afternoon

Final plans have been made for the annual fall tea of the Association of PTA Councils in International, Southern Oakland County Branch.

The tea will be held at the Kimball High School in Royal Oak on Thursday, October 15, from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m. Guests at the tea will include southern Oakland County PTA Council Presidents and School Administrators and Supervisors.

Minnie Zielke, director of elementary education in Farmington, is president of the group this year. Other officers for the year include Wesley Manley of Berkeley, vice president; Vera Young of Farmington, recording secretary; Ruth Shiland of Bloomfield, corresponding secretary; Lena Anderson of Rochester, treasurer.

Programs for the year will center on communication, the importance that communication plays in developing a better understanding of and for each other.

Dr. Harry Hahn, Director of Instructional Services for Oakland County Schools, will introduce the year's program by giving an overview of the topic at the tea.

The membership of this International group is composed of educators, P.T.A. workers, and other interested in promoting desirable conditions, programs, and practices in our schools. They are interested in raising the standards for teaching and encouraging educational and professional growth in this vital field of education.

Other purposes of the organization include bringing into action the Wheeler-Star Fire Station.

On Oct. 7, the local Blue Star mothers held their seventeenth anniversary luncheon at the Clarenceville Methodist church. Several members of the Highland Park and West Bloomfield chapters were also present.

Special guests were Mrs. Clyde Trueman of Detroit, who is the Department of Michigan president, and Mrs. Catherine Woodworth, district vice president. Mrs. Mary Fox, VFW auxiliary president, was also present.

Rev. Elsie Johns, pastor of the Clarenceville church and honorary member of the Farmington chapter, gave the invocation.

Some of the charter members are still serving the chapter after the many changes and adjustments.

Newcomers To Model New Fur Fashions

A number of Farmington natives will become fashion models for new styles in furs shortly when the Farmington Evening Newcomers club holds its annual Fur Fashion show on Wednesday, Oct. 28.

Proceeds from the event will go to the Farmington Library.

The fashion show will be held in the multi-purpose room of the Cloverdale school. It will begin at 8 p.m. on Oct. 28.

In addition to the furs, which will be furnished by Saks Fifth Avenue shop in Detroit, the newest in hair styles will also be displayed throughout the course of the Betty Hansen Beauty Salon from the Seven-Grand shopping center.

Mrs. L. M. Jenks will furnish background information on the show. Her phone number is GR 4-2530. There are approximately 50 members in the Farmington Evening Newcomers club.

Blue Stars Meet This Afternoon

Farmington Blue Star Mothers has extended an invitation to all mothers with sons or daughters in the U. S. Army to meet with the Blue Star organization.

The next regular meeting will be held this afternoon at 2 p.m. at the Wheeler-Star Fire Station.

On Oct. 7, the local Blue Star mothers held their seventeenth anniversary luncheon at the Clarenceville Methodist church. Several members of the Highland Park and West Bloomfield chapters were also present.

Special guests were Mrs. Clyde Trueman of Detroit, who is the Department of Michigan president, and Mrs. Catherine Woodworth, district vice president. Mrs. Mary Fox, VFW auxiliary president, was also present.

Six from Here At MEA Art Meet in Flint

Farmington Public School art personnel attended the annual meeting of the Michigan Art Education Association in Flint recently.

More than 400 were in attendance as this department of the Michigan Education Association convenes for a two day conference.

The program included tours of Flint schools where art work was on display. Commercial exhibitors were on hand to demonstrate new products available to art specialists and workshops were held to enable personnel to view and experiment with new mediums and new applications of some old ones.

In general meetings the representatives heard and discussed the reports of specialists discussing curriculum problems, methods used to present art in the classroom and other topics of specialized topics.

Attending the programs from Farmington were: Robert Benjamin, Ann Dunlap, Barbara Remick, Dorothy West, Joan Scott, Elementary Art Consultants and Adelaide Heault, art teacher at Farmington Junior High.

The meetings were held at the site of Flint's Junior College and in part were hosted by the Mott Foundation. Mr. Mott addressed the group at their annual banquet.

Dr. Howard A. Lane, Professor of Education at San Francisco State College, spoke on the subject "To be intelligent is to be Creative". The other primary speaker was Hale Woodruff, Professor of Art Education at New York University.

Kenbrook PTA To Hear Talk on Correct Speech

The next meeting of the Kenbrook PTA will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 20, at Kenbrook School, at 8:30 p.m.

The speaker for the evening will be Mrs. Jeanne Courville and she will speak on "Training Boys and Girls in Correct Speech". This will be followed by the general meeting.

Everyone is hoping for a large turnout for this meeting. You may remember that Mrs. Courville was unable to be our speaker last year and everyone was quite disappointed. Her topic is vital to all parents.

The regular executive meeting was held at Mary Morrow's house at 28730 Lorway on Oct. 5. Committee members reported on their activities of the past month.

Clara Hunt Dies Sunday After Long Illness

Mrs. Clara Hunt, 22800 Power Road, Farmington, passed away at her residence, October 11, following an illness of several months.

She was born in Ewart, Michigan September 8, 1868, the daughter of John and Anna (Lanheiser) Kneisel and was united in marriage to Carl L. Hunt, February 24, 1895. They had resided in Farmington 36 years.

Mrs. Hunt was a member of the First Methodist Church of Farmington.

She leaves her husband, Carl L., two daughters, Mrs. Albert (Marjorie) Mancini of Detroit and Mrs. George (Ellen Jean) Hildebrand, both of Hills Village, Michigan; one son, Carl O. Hunt of Farmington; six grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Edna Hunt of the late Mrs. Mary Kneisel, both of Ewart, Michigan.

Funeral services were held from the Spencer J. Heeneey Funeral Home at 1200 W. Grand Wednesday with Rev. Frank Cozadd of the Orchard Methodist Church officiating.

Interment was in Oakland Hills Memorial Cemetery, Novi.

AAUW to Hear Talk on Music

Carl Senob of Oakland Street, Farmington, will be the featured speaker at the October meeting of the American Association of University Women, Farmington Branch.

Senob, a teacher and pianist at the Wheeler School in Detroit, will discuss music which we hear today and trace its history from the beginning of music to the first vocal and instrumental sounds up to the present day. Recordings will offer enlightening highlights.

Farmington High School band room will be the scene of the 8 p.m. meeting on Wednesday, October 21. Husbands of members and guests are invited.

Mrs. Dale Cowan will head the hostesses committee. Miss Virginia Carley, Mrs. Ray Cranston, Mrs. Royal Davis, Mrs. Edith Powers, and Mrs. Robert Symes, will assist Mrs. Cowan.

Afternoon Newcomers Slate Meeting Oct. 28

The Afternoon Newcomers group will hold its monthly meeting on October 28, at the Farmington Savings and Loan, Ten Mile and Orchard Lake Rd., at 12:30 p.m.

Nellie Giacchino, hospitality chairman, will be in charge of the desert and coffee to be served.

Mrs. Laub will show some more of her travel pictures. The club has had the pleasure of seeing Mrs. Laub's pictures. In the past, and have enjoyed them very much. All members and their friends are invited.

On Wednesday October 7, board meeting was held at Harriet Pell's at 34146 Cass Cl. A luncheon-card party for the November 18 meeting was decided upon. The place of this party will be announced at a later date.

Film Programs Begin Tuesday

A new series of film programs for adults is scheduled to begin Tuesday evening, October 20, at 7:30 p.m. at the Redford Branch Library, 3151 West Nichols Road, near Grand River.

Three films, all in color, will be shown. The first "Soal Is Land" was filmed by Walt Disney Productions and depicts the life of the Alaskan fur bearing seals on the Pribilof Islands in the Bearing Sea. The other two films to be shown are "Motor Mania" and "Bear Valley".

Addition to the program is free. Film programs will be shown at the Redford Branch Library every Tuesday evening through December 15.
