

At Wheaton Homecoming

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Eby, of 23820 Glencrest drive, Farmington, attended the 37th annual homecoming at Wheaton college (Illinois), October 18 through 19. They were among more than 2500 alumni and former students attended the three-day event at their alma mater currently celebrating its centennial year, 1899-60.

An all-student committee arranged the program including such events as an alumni picnic, homecoming chapel, football game and halftime parade, soccer game, open houses, and class breakfasts. Highlights included the college centennial parade, a pageant and a pageant written and put on by students for the visitors. An alumni ball supper was an event of Saturday evening.

The present U.S. labor force of about 70 million will expand to 80 million by 1965, the Bureau of Labor Statistics predicts.

Elks Initiate 8 Members

On October 21, the Farmington Elks Lodge accepted eight new members into the Order.

The Lodge officers conducted the initiation ritual for William Applebee, Matt Cairns, Donald Cardwell, Homer Jones, Edward Medelis, Franklin Owens, Earl Smith and Raymond Strout.

This ceremony was in honor of the visitation to the local Lodge of District Deputy Clem Vogel of the Port Huron Lodge. This district extends from Port Huron to Jackson and includes fifteen separate lodges. Forest Burton, secretary of the Farmington Lodge, served as Grand Deputee for the evening.

After the initiation ceremony, Vogel addressed the members and gave a report of the many charitable projects that are sponsored each year by the over 2,000 Elks Lodges in the United States. He also emphasized that active participation in Lodge affairs was the only way the members could fully realize and take advantage of the many benefits and privileges of the Elks.

Prior to the meeting a dinner was prepared by Bill Everhart and his crew and served by the ladies of the Vivian Club.

Takes Lead Role in WMU Play

Joseph Coffman played Captain Bluntschli, a principal role in "George Bernard Shaw's 'Arms and the Man,'" in the first presentation by the University Theater at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo.

Joseph is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Coffman, 3245 Queensboro, Farmington. He graduated from Farmington High school, he is in the general at current at Western.

As the first arena production at Western, the play was presented Oct. 22, 23, and 24.

COUNTING PENNIES?

Halloween festivities will be given tomorrow night at 8:00 with the Sophomore dance, "Broomstick Bounce."

The Decoration committee headed by Jerry Nelson, has planned its work in with the Halloween theme. The refreshment committee, whose chairman is Gary Mott, has planned for cider and doughnuts.

"Intermission will be filled with some surprise entertainment by local people," stated Jim Anderson.

Prices are $2.50 stag, and $3.50 drag. The dance, which is casual, will run from 11:00 to 1:00.

The "Broomstick Bounce" will be the first dance presented by Farmington Senior High's new Sophomore class.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from the home of the deceased, Mrs. Rev. Richard T. Markham of Farmington First Methodist Church officiating. Interment took place in North Farmington Cemetery.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Florence Seeger, of Northville, and Mrs. Helen Stempson of Dearborn, plus one son, Clarence O. Bachelor, of Southfield.

Other survivors: A sister, Mrs. Arthur Lamb, and a brother, Arthur Bachelor, both of Farmington, and three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Open House Scheduled at Senior High Nov. 10

The annual fall open house at Farmington Senior High is scheduled for Tuesday night, November 10.

Parents will have the opportunity to visit the teachers, their sons or daughters in their classrooms and talk with them briefly from 7:30 to 9:00. The Future Teachers will serve as guides in the halls.

"This is a time for parents to meet teachers and for teachers to meet parents, and in the future, to meet not only to discuss serious problems that a student may be having. Special appointments are desired for now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to said Statutes in such case made and

A program will be presented in the gymnasium at 9:00. The Future Teachers will use overhead slides in an effort to explain the senior high curriculum and aims to the parents.

Representative students were taken last week by Brian Beale, John Anderson, senior, Sharon Bowman, junior, and James Church, sophomore, were photographed in each of their classes.

Other pictures, including reproductions of schedule cards, of the main office, and the teaching office, and various teaching aids will fill out the informative program.

There is no charge for this event, and the school is open to all. Everyone is invited to watch the marksmen (?) try their turkeys.

All Albinos are invited to their pre-dinner season party, and with a little luck, and good shooting, obtain a Thanksgiving Turkey. Contestants may bring their own turkeys, but the shells will be furnished. Anyone can be a contestant.

Allice Poylley, Carlisle Springer and Golly Taylor are this year's candidates for the American Field Service Program.

Gayle has applied to the Southern Hemisphere Program, which will enable her, if accepted, to spend next semester in New Zealand.

Both Allice and Carlisle hope that Farmington can be the host of the summer program. This allows the students to go abroad for six weeks in the summer.

This year's formal screening of candidates was unnecessary because of the number of those wishing to apply. Also the due date for applications, November 1, left little time for formal screening procedures.

Final selection of applicants takes place in New York. It is hoped that Farmington can be the host of the summer program. This allows the students to go abroad for six weeks in the summer.

Applications for the Michigan Chapter of Churches Program will be accepted later in the year.

The Camera Club elected Eddy Mottel president. Secretary is Donnie Kaye Malenard and Dave Busch was elected treasurer.

The constitution is presently being revised to include the legality of charging dues. Semester dues will be $5.00.

The operation of the camera was discussed at their next meeting. The majority of the members own their own cameras, and there are three available for those who need them.

There are a total of nine members that are and meetings are held every Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Don Mottel is their sponsor.

Death Takes Mr. Bachelor

Following an extended illness, Mr. Frank W. Bachelor, 710 Orchard Lake Road, West Bloomfield township, passed away Wednesday morning, Oct. 21. He would have been 81 on Oct. 28.

A retired farmer, the late Mr. Bachelor was born Oct. 29, 1878, in West Bloomfield township, the son of Marcus and Florence Bachelor. He married Mary Armstrong on Sept. 29, 1901. He had spent his entire life in this area.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from the home of the deceased, Mrs. Rev. Richard T. Markham of Farmington First Methodist Church officiating. Interment took place in North Farmington Cemetery.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Florence Seeger, of Northville, and Mrs. Helen Stempson of Dearborn, plus one son, Clarence O. Bachelor, of Southfield.

Christian Science

Prayer's effectiveness in healing sin and sickness will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon method, "Enduring Punishment" will include this selection from James (5:14, 15): "Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he has committed sins, they shall be forgiven him."

Correlative passages from Science and Health, Key to the Scriptures will include (391:13): "It is easier to suffer for evil, but your own sins, Christ or Truth, will destroy all other supposed suffering, and real suffering for your own sins will cease in proportion as the sin ceases."

The Golden Text is from Proverbs (16:29): "The Lord is far from the wicked; but he heareth the prayer of the righteous."
