This column failed to appear last week and contains limited new this week because your report was slowed down to a crawl for about one day by a virus. By next week all should be back to normal.

Of prime interest this week is the special meeting of the general membership of the Old Homestead Association that has been called for Thursday, tonight, at 8:00 p.m. at the Farmington Savings and Loan Building. This meeting is being held for the purpose of voting for or against joining the League of Subdivisions Assn. All questions will be answered. It is important that each family be represented at the meeting. It was emphasized.

This Saturday of course is Halloween. Approximately one hundred children will be out ringing doorbells. Be prepared. Because darkness falls so early these days don't be caught in the arms of the younger buggers arrive before twilight.

Don't forget the annual dinner-dance on Saturday, Nov. 7. You have a choice of chicken, shrimp or prime ribs of beef. Make your reservation with either Roy Ziegler, GR. 4-0600, or Jackie Davis, GR. 4-1230. If you may want to pay for your reservations at the meeting on Thursday evening. The deadline is October 31.

Woman's Club

Farmington Woman's Club members will meet Wednesday, November 4 at the home of Mrs. Charles Rayle at 3458 Oakland Ave.
