HAIR HIGHLIGHTS

Special care should be given before trying a new hairdo. Make sure that the hair is in good shape after the ravages of summer sun, wind and water. It will take a sensible hair program to make your tresses really attractive once more.

Take advantage of hair conditioning and scalp treatments. If for any reason your growing glory appears dull and lifeless, professional assistance can bring back the wanted highlights.

We are prepared to give your hair all the special care it might require.

Your regular routine should include regular appointments with us.

Local United Church Women Meet Nov. 6

Annually, on the first Friday in November, the United Church Women councils across the nation meet at respective gathering spots and plan ways to increase understanding of the essentials for a peaceful world and to promote the sharing of resources to meet urgent needs.

Farmington's United Church Women will meet locally on Friday, Nov. 6, with this aim: The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church, Farmington road at 11-Mile road.

Mrs. Jesse Jay McNeil, from Detroit, the president of Michigan United Church Women and National Vice-president, will speak. Her theme: "Full Partnership."

An offering will be used for Christian Service in the South Sea Islands. A UCUW woman's offering, "There is a difference in methods to help women in that area adjust to the new demands of the times."

Gifts of clothing for babies and tiny tots in refugee camps are being solicited. The gifts will be accepted at the service or prior to the meeting.

A tea will follow the meeting and there will be a World Wide Exhibit on display. Any one desiring to display articles are asked to bring them, labeled with the name of the exhibitor, to the church office.

All women in the community are invited to attend the meeting. Nursery care will be provided during the service.

Head All Fouled Up! Our Sincere Apology

We really missed last week on the headline for the Jankuski - Dorthea Hildun wedding story.

Not only was the bridegroom given his wife's maiden name (Hildun instead of Kastel) but it was also spelled wrong in the head. Insult was added by the fact that the head said she was from Highland Park when actually her home is in Detroit. They were married in Highland Park.

Our sincere apologies to both the Kastel and Hildun families for these careless mistakes.
