

Head Committees For College Dance

The 50th anniversary of Mary Grove College is the theme being spotlighted by the senior class as they work out plans for the Tower Dance. The first formal dance of the year, "The Golden Ball" will be held Friday evening, November 13, in Alumnae Hall on the college campus.

Serving as chairman of the program committee is Mary Stator, 2400 Earl Court, Judith Jagrowski, 28570 West Ten Mile Road, a member of the invitational committee.

Les Elgar and his orchestra will provide the music for the evening.

Library Friends Meet Tuesday Open to Public

All members and interested residents are invited to attend the fall membership meeting of the Friends of the Library which will be held Tuesday, November 17, at 8:00 p.m. in the Farmington Jr. High library on Thomas Street.

William T. Feiers, Chief, Educational Film Department of the Detroit Public Library, will explain the film service available to the suburban communities through their local library.

The secretaries and program chairmen of the various men's and women's organizations in the area are invited to be present to get first-hand information on the mechanics of this service.

The Friends of the Library have agreed to underwrite this program if the community expresses its desire to participate.

All residents of this area who are concerned with the expansion or future growth of our new library or its services are encouraged to be present at this meeting.

It is wonderful to be able to report that Bill Dornan was brought home last Saturday afternoon. He cannot have any visitors yet but his hospital bed is set up in the bedroom window so we can wave to him.

Ethel Nelson entertained fourteen for lunch last Thursday to honor Celia Zielesch of Franklin. The Zielesch family has just adopted a precious two-month old baby boy. Among the guests was a group of garden club women who work together in the horticultural therapy project at the Pontiac State Hospital. June Bieker was also present. She and Celia are old school friends.
