Any novice collectors, or persons interested in learning about antique collecting are asked to contact Mrs. E. Brunk, 32040 Valley view, GR 6-1171, or Mrs. Philip Day, 25499 Springbrook, GR 4-3633.

Marie Burger Recently Wed at Sorrows Church

Marie Hazel Burger of Farmington and Lyle Joseph Huettner of Plymouth were recently united in marriage by Father L. Joseph Hemmer (cousin of the bridegroom) at Our Lady of Sorrows Church. Father Hemmer is regularly assigned to the Corpus Christi Church in Chicago, Illinois.

The former Miss Burger is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Burger of 22111 Farmington Road and her husband, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Huettner of Plymouth.

Vows were spoken before an altar adorned with white mums. Organ selections were played by Mrs. Betty Schaefer with Joseph Schaefer singing Ave Maria, "Pan Angelicus" and "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother."

The bride's gown was white nylon tulle over satin featuring lace insets in the skirt forming a long train. An illusion neckline was outlined in sequins and set off with a Peter Pan collar. Long sleeves were of lace as was the bodice. It was the same gown worn by the bride's twin sister when she was wed.

After headress was a lace pillbox trimmed with pearls and sequins. It held a finger ring veiled edged with lace. She carried a bouquet of white fast mums and stephanotis with two cymbidium orchids in the center.

Matron of honor was the bride's twin sister, Mrs. Ronald LeMone. Bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Burger, niece of the bride, and Mrs. Gwen Albright, sister of the bridegroom.

The bride's niece, Peggy Burger was flower girl. They were wearing street-length gowns of white nylon lace over red tulle with short sleeves and round necklines and trimmings with a red tulle bow at the waistline in the front. Fugl mums were carried by the brides.

The bridegroom's brother-in-law, Paul Albright, was best man. Groomsman were Edgar Burger, brother of the bride, and Al Paskevich, friend of the bridegroom.

MR. AND MRS. LYLE HUETTNER

Mr. and Mrs. Burger's wedding was held at 10:30 a.m. at Our Lady of Sorrows Church. The bridegroom is presently employed at Detroit Metropolitan Airport in Romulus. An Our Lady of Mercy 1948 graduate, the new Mrs. Burger has been employed with Ford Motor Co. in Dearborn.

For travel on a wedding trip to Florida, the bride wore a green knit suit dress with beige accessories. The new Mrs. Burger is presently employed with Ford Motor Co. in Dearborn.

A breakfast reception was held at Giffin's Frontier Town following the church ceremony. Out of town guests were present in their hotel.

RUSS AND SHIRLEY Blanton had a young man visiting them from Korea during their vacation. He came this year to study here in America and visit his good friends, the Blantons.

Russ and Shirley left on their vacation just before their friends from Korea left for home. On their "vacation" they visited Kentucky and the college there, where students work for their keep. There is no tuition.

From there they went to the Buffalo Valley, Cumberland Mountains to Gatlinburg. They saw seven states at one time at Rock City Georgia and the world's highest bridge, they were picking the ripe cotton.

Finally they arrived at Hot Springs Arkansas where Russ' father lives. After their visit to his home in Indiana, they traveled north through the Ozark Mountains, stopping at Crystal Mountain where many gems and rocks were on display.

They visited Truman's library and home in Independence, Missouri. Also in Missouri they saw the beautiful new multi-million dollar Mormon Tabernacle.

In Springfield Illinois they visited Lincoln's home and tomb and the town where he lived as a young man.

From there they headed for Farmington, after having a most wonderful two weeks of good weather and beautiful sights. Russ and Shirley report they were happy to see the black toping done when they arrived home.

Open House At Universalist Manse Sunday

Members and friends of the Farmington Universalist Church will attend open house at the church on Sunday, November 22, at 2 o'clock. The church is the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Walter E. Kellison. The Kellison family moved into their new home at 2200 W. 10 Mile on September 15, and the church turned, the former Manse, 23604 Warner, into a Parish House to serve the rapidly growing church school.

After much repainting, repainting and refurbishing by church members, the Parish House now makes pleasant meeting rooms as well as Sunday School space for nursery children (through junior high students). The senior high class meets in the church rectory.

Kellison said the open house would be held from 4 to 7 p.m. A tea and reception honoring church senior members of the church was held in Adams Hall last Sunday, Nov. 15. Guests of honor were Mrs. Frank Adams, Mrs. Edward Minor and W. P. Kellison.

Mrs. Adams, who celebrated her 90th birthday July 1, is a Universalist minister and wife of Dr. Frank D. Adams, minister at arrival of the Farmington church. Mrs. Minor is the widow of the Rev. Edward Minor, also a Universalist minister and was 75 years old Nov. 12. retired business man, Mr. Futnam is 89 Nov. 19.

Ten Mile PTA Hears Talk on Nov. 23 Election

The Parent-Teacher Association of 10 Mile School began the season's activities by holding an open house in October. The open house was attended by a large number of parents who had an opportunity to visit their child's classroom and meet the teacher. The room-mothers served coffee and cookies in the multipurpose room.

A special meeting of the 10 Mile P.T.A. was held on Tuesday, November 10, when the guest speaker was Leland Clifford of the Farmington School Board. Also present was James Reed, assistant superintendent.

Clifford discussed the coming special election and explained the three propositions on the ballot. Considering the vital issues being discussed, the P.T.A. officers were very disappointed by the small turnout of members. Those who were present felt their time was well spent as they appreciated having their questions about our schools answered.

New P.T.A. president, Bill Bliss, introduced the other new officers present were Mrs. Ann Richards, secretary; Mrs. Margaret McGregor, room-mother vice president; and Bob Stone, treasurer.

Due to the small turnout a business meeting was not held, although a printed treasurer's report was presented. Clifford reported that the television set purchased by the P.T.A. with funds raised at last year's carnival is enroute to the school and the antenna is scheduled to be installed this month.

Bliss announced that the next meeting will be held December 7. Guest speaker will be a man on the medical staff at Hawthorne Center and who will speak on child guidance.
