Church Women To Meet Dec. 4

The annual meeting of United Church Women of Farmington will be held at Salem United Church of Christ on Friday, December 4, at 1 p.m.
A highlight of the meeting will be a presentation of the work of church women among the large migrant population of Michigan by Mrs. John Graham, Jr. of Grosse Pointe Woods. Mrs. Graham is State President of the Michigan Migrant Ministry of the Michigan Council of Churches. She has spent many hours in the 24 migrant centers throughout the State, where a staff of 55 serves the 60,000 migrant workers and their families.
United Church Women of Farmington, consisting of women from all evangelical churches, helps support this program.
In addition to the talk by Mrs. Graham there will be election and installation of officers, annual reports, and the collection of devotional material to be sent to the Chaplain of the State Prison of Southern Michigan.
A nursery for small children will be provided, and a fellowship hour will follow the service.

To Attend Big Jehovah's Detroit Meet

Mr. Ernest Szalma, presiding minister of the Farmington congregation, announced that the Jehovah's Witnesses will be attending a three day Bible meeting that will be held at the Hollywood Theater in Detroit, November 27-29. Beginning Thursday, the Farmington congregation will surge into activity by setting the day for visiting the neighbors with Bible sermons with the view of inviting them to the assembly. This Christian gathering is sponsored by the Watchtower Society of Brooklyn, New York, for 24 congregations in Michigan Circuit 5. Delegates will be coming from Farmington, Wyandotte, Wayne, Ecorse, Dearborn, Livonia and other communities in the near west side of Detroit as well as from Detroit.
"The purpose of the meeting," said Mr. Szalma, "is to provide additional instruction for the Witnesses."
From the Farmington congregation many will assist in the various departments, including Donald Dornon, Francis Hammer, Otto Robinson and Cecil Grubbs.
Featured on the program will be the district supervisor, Peter D'More and the circuit supervisor, Mr. Chester Krochmal. An outstanding feature of Saturday will be the baptizing of new members and the evening showing of the technicolor film, "The Bible Will International Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses."
Highlight of the meeting will be the public address at 8:00 p.m. on Sunday, November 29, on "When Is God's Will To Be Done On Earth?"
A total of 225 ministers from Farmington will be among the 3,000 who will attend.

Xmas Bazaar Slated Dec. 3

A Christmas Tree Lane bazaar will be held Thursday, Dec. 3, at the Farmington First Methodist church on Grand River and Warner street. The affair, charmaned by Mrs. Arthur Meaur, will begin at 10 a.m.
Many articles of handwork will be offered during the sale. Included will be candles, Christmas wrappings, felt, handcraft, needlework, pillows, rugs, aprons, Christmas candy and Christmas cards, plus numerous other items.
Tea and coffee will be served at a special booth all day long. A roast beef dinner will be served at 5:30 and 6:30 on tickets and reservations, call Mrs. Lillian Carpenter, GR 4-3168.

Meracy Offers Scholarships

All 12th grade girls in public, private or parochial schools are invited to take the competitive examinations for Meracy scholarships to be held on Saturday, December 19 at 8:45 a.m. in Room 335 at the college.
Meracy College is a Liberal Arts College for Women, operated by the Sisters of Mercy, located at the corner of Urd Drive and Southfield Road. The scholarships are given to be applied to any field of study, Education, Nursing, Art, Music, Biology, Languages, Speech and Drama, Home Economics or any of the other numerous courses available at the college.
Any girl interested in taking the examinations should obtain an application blank from the college or apply to the numerous advisors or directly from Meracy College.

Special Service Set Thursday

The Southfield Community Church, 2122 Indian (near Lakster and Eight Mile), will hold its annual Thanksgiving Morning Praise Service from 10:30 to 11:30, according to Pastor Raymond Bayne.
This traditional service is increasing in popularity and is well-attended. The service is largely one of audience participation with songs of praise, prayers of praise, and individual expressions of praise by the people. There is a brief meditation on Thanksgiving by the pastor. Music will be provided by the choir and also by a missionary family that will shortly be leaving for Bolivia. The service is just one hour in length.

Orchard Meth. Women's Meet

A special meeting of the Orchard Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service will be held on Thursday, December 3, at 8:00 p.m.
Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Phyllis Jones of 32447 Bonnet Hill, Kendallwood II subdivision.
Walter Kenzie, business executive for the Plymouth State Home and Training School, will be the speaker for the evening.
The women of the Orchard WSCS have shown interest in being of some assistance to the children of the Farmington unit. Kenzie will explain, by lecture and film, how the group can best assist.

Church Slates Special Service

A special Thanksgiving Worship service will be held Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 26, at 9:30 a.m. at the Lutheran Church of the Shepherd-King, located at West Maple and Middlebelt.
All Farmington residents are invited to attend.
The church's annual drive for serviceable used clothing ended Nov. 22. The clothing collected during the drive will be shipped to the people of the Lutheran World Relief.

Library Gets Assn. Funds

The membership of the Farmington Township Civic Association which was incorporated as a township improvement association in the spring of 1949, on June 5 of 1953 voted to dissolve on June 5, 1953 and to give its assets to the district library.
Immediately, their American flag and standard, stationery, postage and other miscellaneous items were delivered to the Library. Since that time, Mrs. Charles Haynes and Mrs. Mary F. Allison, treasurer and secretary, respectively, of the Association at the time of dissolving, have worked on the necessary formalities of dissolution with the Michigan Corporation and Securities Commission in Lansing.
It appears that all requirements now have been satisfied, and Mrs. Haynes closed the bank account of its funds and a check in the amount of $114.82 has been delivered of Howard W. Thayer, treasurer of the Library Board of Trustees.

It is to be regretted that so long a delay was encountered in handling the dissolution of this Association; however, it is with distinct pleasure that Mrs. Haynes and Mrs. Allison are finally able to send these funds to the Library Board of Trustees, for the final activities of this civic association.
