Council Dance Will Have A German Theme

As the holiday season nears, plans are rapidly being completed for the most festive Student Council sponsored dance of the year the annual Christmas dance, this year called "O Tannenbaum".

"O Tannenbaum", which is German for Christmas tree, will be held from 8:30 to 11:30 on Wednesday, December 23. The price is $1.50 per couple. The Christmas tree place and obtained by Pat Fox, will furnish the music for the evening.

Since the theme for the dance is a German one, Carol Schramm and her decoration committee will center their artistic efforts around the thought of Germany. The refreshment committee, headed by Diane Hubert, will soon be busy baking German cookies and mixing a German punch. Some of the ideas for refreshments were suggested by our German exchange student, Herma Bullinger, in order to keep the theme authentic. The punch and cookies will be available in the gym. Parent chaperones will help to serve. Tables and chairs will be disbursed throughout the gym. The clean-up committee, headed by Gary Barich, will begin when the other committees finish.

Diek Lam, chairman of the ticket committee, stressed that corsages are not necessary. Some sort of sprays of greens will be given to the girls at the dance as favors.

As an added highlight, the Student Council has contacted a Santa Claus, and he will be on hand to enhance the joviality of the affair.

Picture happy couples will also be pleased. Bill Hall will wander around during the dance to take pictures of willing couples for approximately $2.50.

Since this dance is sponsored by the Student Council, all students are invited to help on the various committees that are planning it.

Nicholas Spicer Rhodes Scholar Candidate

Nicholas G. Spicer of Farmington was one of three Bowdoin College seniors selected as Rhodes Scholarship candidates from Maine and Michigan. It was announced today by Nicholas C. Kendrick, Dean of Bowdoin.

Spicer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Spicer of 2415 Farmington, will take part in the Michigan competition.

Spicer, a member of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity, is a government major. Like the other two Rhodes candidates, he has been a James Bowdoin Scholar for three years, missing the Dean's List only during his first semester as a freshman.

He has participated in both track and cross country and has been active in debating, the Reserve Officers Training Corps, the Political Forum, the "Orient," and Masque and Gown.

He is a graduate of Farmington High School where he was a class officer and a member of the National Honor Society.

Y-Teens Honor New Members

Y-Teens held its annual Recognition Service for new members Monday evening, December 14, at the Northwest Branch of the YWCA.

Herma Bullinger, FHS exchange student, spoke to the girls and their parents about German life and especially religion.

Other brief talks by the officers included the history of Y-Teens and club projects. New members were then formally taken into the club as each had her individual candle lit by the club's president.

The service closed, with a hymn, benediction and recessional march. A social hour with refreshments followed.

IT WAS NOONTIME. The lineperson opened his lunch box and looked inside.

"Peanut Butter sandwiches! Last week, yesterday, today; nothing but peanut butter sandwiches! I don't care if I ever see another peanut butter sandwich."

"Gee," said a friend, "Why don't you ask your wife to make you something different?"

"Wife?" answered the lineman. "Who's married? I made these myself."
