

Want Easy to Clean Walls?

Attractive kitchen walls that are easy to clean, durable and inexpensive—that's what homemakers want, says Lucile Ketchum, home management specialist at Michigan State University.

The finish most resistant to staining and easiest to wash was a wallboard material with gloss paint baked on a pressed wood base.

L. Philip Warriner Weds Royal Oak Teacher

At a 7:30 p.m. service at the First Presbyterian Church of Royal Oak, Joyce Ann Solberg of 1821 Greig Ave., Madison Heights, was united in marriage to L. Philip Warriner of Farmington on Saturday, Dec. 18.

The double ring candlelight ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas A. Kinnison before an altar decorated with white poinsettias and pine bows. In the exchange of rings and vows, the bride presented her bridegroom with a wedding band which once belonged to her maternal grandfather.

The bride wore a floor-length white velvet gown which she made herself. It featured a chapel train, scooped neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and emerald waist. A white velvet pill-box hat secured her veil of silk illusion which was edged with tiny rosebuds.

Her only accessory was a single strand of pearls and she carried a single white poinsettia surrounded by variegated holly pinned to a white velvet muff. Matron of honor, Mrs. Leonard Kinnison of Royal Oak, wore a ballerina length gown of pink green velvet with three-quarter length sleeves, scooped neckline and bell-shaped skirt. Her frock featured pleated details in back. Her headpiece was a pink green velvet bow. She carried a pink poinsettia surrounded by white holly pinned to a green velvet muff.

Bridesmaids Mrs. Paul Blitch of Hillsdale, Mrs. Robert Barbeau of Royal Oak and Miss Linda Warriner, junior bridesmaid and sister of the bridegroom, wore gowns identical to the matron of honor. Red poinsettia was pinned to their green velvet muff.

David Warriner, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Guests were seated by Neil Warriner, another brother of the bridegroom; Jon Solberg, brother of the bride; Robert Barbeau, Denis Cannert, Walter Powers and Frank Heckadon.

Organ selections were played during the wedding ceremony by Miss Jacqueline Rulapaugh, friend of the bride.

Following a reception at the Maplewood club in Royal Oak, the newlyweds left on a trip to Florida. For travel, the bride changed into a softly tailored gray flannel suit with black accessories. The couple returned on Christmas day to 2008 North Washington, Royal Oak.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Arthur Solberg chose a deep turquoise wool dress with jacket and pink hat, gloves and shoes. Cymbidium orchids were pinned to her bag. Mrs. Warriner wore a royal blue metallasse print dress, variegated blue petal hat, gloves and shoes and white gloves. Her flowers were also Cymbidium orchids.

Presiding at the guest register at the reception was Mrs. Frank Heckadon, sister of the bridegroom.

Music Fills the Air at Kendallarks Yule Party

Among the many holiday affairs during the Christmas season and not to be outdone was the Kendallarks annual Christmas party.

Mrs. E. Savelly was hostess to the group this year. Guests of honor were the husbands. Also present was Don Kobman, of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Christmas carols provided appropriate air and candlelight tables completed the atmosphere for the affair.

President, Mrs. D. Berdeaux opened the program and introduced Eddie Ellegood as the accompanist and A. E. Katter as the master of ceremonies.

The Kendallark group sang two old favorites, though not in Christmas keeping. "Where'er you go" and "H. I. Could Tell You" by Margaret Savelly.

Featured at the soloist, Mrs. D. Berdeaux sang a solo favorite of Christmas time, "Silent Night", and the group joined in singing.

On the more religious theme, Mrs. Savelly and Mrs. Cosper sang a duet "Oh Lord Most Holy", Mrs. R. Nankervis.

Wonder as I Wander", and Mrs. E. Savelly sang "O Holy Night". A quartet composed of R. Holm, Mrs. C. Hazen, Mrs. E. Bytki and Mrs. R. Hunter sang in costume an old favorite "H. I. Could Tell You".

Mrs. R. Nankervis, Mrs. Grace Nye and Mrs. F. Spencer illustrated an hilarious episode at "Holly Mess Hospital". Mrs. Rosemary Timm in blackface sang "Nobdody".

Barbershop quartet singing "Shine on Harvest Moon" was Mrs. J. Flood, Mrs. F. Spencer, Mrs. C. Hazen and Mrs. M. Timm. Mrs. M. Timm posing as an infant in playpen and Mrs. D. Berdeaux chaise behind the "ole 8-ball" sang a hilarious comedy version of "Pistol-er Love".

Mrs. R. Coffman, Mrs. P. Cosper, and Mrs. D. Berdeaux did a song and dance routine from the Broadway musical "Gypsy and Dolls". "Take Back Your Mink".

The program was concluded with the singing of Christmas carols and a buffet breakfast was served.

Buxom Belles Have Party

The Buxom Belles of Farmington ended the year with a big party and have suspended meetings until January 7, 1960. A gala party was enjoyed by all members, where games were played, prizes won, good food served and presents exchanged.

On December 3, the Buxom Belles had a guest speaker, Mrs. Neim, who gave an interesting talk and demonstration on the use of cosmetics.

Set Expectant Parent Classes

Expectant Parent Classes are again being offered in Oakland County for future fathers and mothers. The series of classes are taught by public health nurses and are sponsored by the Oakland County Medical Society, the Oakland County Department of Health and various Adult Education Departments.

These classes have become increasingly popular throughout the county.

In 1964, two series of six classes each were offered. From September 8, through May 19, twenty one series, each class in a series, are being conducted at the four offices of the Oakland County Department of Health.

Attendance is limited to a maximum of 26 people, to provide ample opportunity for discussion. Classes begin at 7:30 p.m. and end at 9:30 p.m. Films and other audio-visual aids are used to highlight certain topics; a conducted hospital tour is arranged during the series.

Registration must be made in person on the appointed dates: POSTNAC OFFICE, 4000 N. Telegraph Road, RE 2558 registration on January 12, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. ROYAL OAK OFFICE, 2401 E. Fourth St., LI 1500 registration on January 5, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. BIRMINGHAM ham office, 151 W. Martin St., MI 6750 registration on January 4, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

At Home in Old Homestead
Jacqueline Davis GR. 4-1230

The hayride through the subdivision set Wednesday proved to be a great success with the young Old Homesteaders and their close neighbors. Forty young people, between the ages of eight and 16, and ten adults got on the hay wagon and into cars at the home of Edmund and Florence Zeigler to tour the subdivision. Because the night was so extremely cold it was impossible to remain out long enough to travel all the streets in the subdivision as had been originally planned. The carols were loud if not as sweetly sung as possible. The newly frozen path returned to the Zeiglers' home where hot chocolate and potato chips disappeared quickly. After that marshmallows were loaded in the fireplace, there were cokes, music, noise and confusion. All in all everyone seemed to have had a wonderful time.

CHRISTMAS EVE, Christmas day, add Christmas weekend seemed to be very busy days for everyone. The families that did not have company at their homes were guests elsewhere. Following Wednesday night's entertaining the Zeiglers invited Florence's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brabant, her brother and two nieces for Christmas Eve. Christmas day Edmund's family, were their guests.

A week ago Sunday Larry Karsen arrived home from Parks Air College of St. Louis. University for the two weeks between semester. Spent his time in the house, his brother, and two nieces for Christmas Eve. Christmas day Edmund's family, were their guests.

CHRISTMAS GUESTS at the Hill home were Midge's mother, Mrs. Tobey, and Ed's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hill. On Saturday Midge's sister and her family from Cheboygan were guests here. With the excitement of the holidays, Ed and Midge celebrated their ninth wedding anniversary on Sunday by relatives, Mary and Emma Forgette, who are house-guests at the Wideman home this week.

In honor of Leslie's eleventh birthday, Bob and Jean Radzack took her and Robbie to see the
