Trinity Church Named A Parish

The Episcopal Diocese of Michigan formally admitted Trinity Episcopal Church, Farmington as a parish at its 12th annual convention on February 28. The diocese made up of 17 parishes and 60 missions which serve the Eastern half of the Lower Peninsula of Michigan, is headed by the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Enrich. Since Trinity's founding 8 years ago, it has been a Diocesan Mission with the Rev. James B. Guinan as Vicar. The new parish was incorporated under the laws of Michigan last December and the first membership meeting to elect Vestrymen was held on January 10. Mr. Guinan has accepted the call to be the first rector of the new parish. The vestry elected Mr. Fred Bussler Senior Warden and Mr. James Erie Junior Warden.
