Local News

The Ladies' Aid will meet with

The ice season was a short one, but while it lasted it was made good use of by those who needed a supply.

The auction crop is about ripe now and the season will be a busy one from now on for a couple of months.

The public is cordially invited to the supper which will be served by the Rebekah lodge next Thursday afternoon at five o'clock; 25¢ a plate.

A big transformer was received at Farmington by D. U. R. Wednesday for the Boys' Home, where electric lights and power have recently been established. Fred Lee was in charge of the installation.

The question of what becomes of the pins has never been settled, but what becomes of the street car conductors? They are always breaking in new ones, but we never miss any of the old staff.

Wednesday old Sol came out so warm that many wraps and coats were shed. 'Twas just like a day in June, minus the green grass and leaves, the songs of the birds and the base ball chatter.

There is talk, and it should bear fruit, of decorating the streets in honor of the Odd Fellows at the time of their gathering here next Thursday. It would be an admirable thing to do. The colors of the order are red, white and blue.

Isn't it about time that the honorable Inspection Bureau of Insurance took due notice that Farmington has a water system and is prepared to fight fires? Should it not cut down our present prohibitive rates that were made a couple of years ago?

The calls for caucus, registration and election for the village are out and that is a reminder that spring is approaching. Another season's work will soon begin and if a continuation of the past year's progress is kept up the village will certainly be doing well.

The Detroit Business University with its host of ex-graduates as employers is in a position to do more than most schools of this kind in securing good positions for its students. Its success in this regard and the excellent courses of training given combine to make it the largest and most important Business Training School in our State.

it in a few days with Dr. War-

DAY'S DUTY PUT ON RECORD

Resourceful Mistress of House Devised Shrewd Scheme for Instruction of Swedish Maid.

A Brooklyn woman who was going out of town for a few days was in a quandary over the problem of her husband's existence during her absence. The maid was Swedish and could neither read or write English, yet she somehow must be told each day, as only the mistress could tell her, what should be done about the house. A moment's thought solved the problem.

A list of each day's duties was made out. Next a phonograph desired was called up and instructed to send up half a dozen blank records.
The mistress then set down in front of her machine and dictated her orders, using one record for each day's instructions. The records were then placed in their pasteboard cases, and the days on which they should be used were indicated on the outside by one, two, three and four straight lines, making a mistake impossible.
As a result not only was everything in perfect order upon her return, but the novelty had so appealed to the maid that she had "played" her orders over and over until she could repeat them word for word.
