"Welcome Sweet Springtime and in the same breath—we say goodbye-spring on our cars! We're warm breezes we're the air-there's mud in their roads. And where there's mud, there's holes—need we say more? Call the Road Commission PE 8-471, and tell them our sad, sad story."

Speaking of stories—there's not much to report—no new from you folks, so can't write any. We would like to welcome home to Susan Harman Susan under a consistent Friday at St. Joseph's hospital in Farmington and to find the diet of chicken and jello not too bad at the moment.

Seems that Beaumont hospital had another victim from Briar Hill last week. Jeff Adams, 1 1/2 year old son of Ruth and Chuck Adams, found himself in the hospital after a "trailing under the finger" caught 8-10 stitches were required on one small finger. The boy was not hurt, and was quite an ordeal for a small tot.

HOW ABOUT a picnic or lemon slice? Jim DeVin, we mean, Mungus says: "I'm not a fan of lemon slices. In addition he stresses the point that the skates must fit well and be faced tightly."

"The main thing to remember is to start out by taking short strides," he said, "and to gradually develop a longer stride." "Don't be afraid to fall," he said. "If you do, it's all right. In most other things, experience is by far the best teacher."

Fred Hamlin Meet Your Merchants

Fred Hamlin, manager of Farmington Lanes, gets his biggest enjoyment from watching the youngsters in the Junior League, go through their paces.

"It is really amazing," he said, "the way these youngsters develop their game in such a short time. Some of them are really fine bowlers already," he added. Some 30 teams participate in the various Junior Leagues with an age range from 12 to 18.

Fred is a life-long Farmington resident. He graduated from Farmington High in 1945 where he participated in football, basketball and track. He went on to Michigan State and received a degree in business administration in 1950.

Following his graduation from State, Fred went into the Air Force and served five years. He was a B-29 pilot during the Korean War.

After being separated from the Air Force in 1955, Fred went to work as a sales representative for a sporting goods firm and in 1957 became associated with Farmington Lanes.

For the past two years, the bowling alley underwent a complete renovation. Automobile planterets were put in and the number of lanes was increased from 60 to 84.

FRED IS married and the father of three children. His wife, Pat is a Texas girl who he met while in service. Her home town is Fort Worth.

Fred is interested in almost all sports—with bowling, of course, ranking at the top of the list. He likes to get out into the woods and hunt. He is also a devoted hunter and fisherman.

R.A.F. Team Tops In Intramural League

Intramural basketball provided approximately 80 boys with winter recreation this season. Under the direction of Mr. Doug Race, the boys of the R.A.F. team won six games, made up of 14 members, which met every Monday night to play basketball.

THE TEAM which took first place with a perfect 5-0 record was the R.A.F. Their captain Dave Crouse, senior, led the scoring for the R.A.F. with 51 points, followed by Jack Alchison, senior, who scored 32.

THE BOYS FROM Harlem placed second by winning four and losing one to the R.A.F.'s. Their captain, Bruce Moltz, senior, was high scorer for his team and topped all other intramural participants with 60 points. Pat Lupia, junior, totaled 48 points.

Other boys which have shown promise during practice are Dennis Heimonen, John Hackadott, Mike Hildner, who has good hurdling possibilities, Rodney Kamisto, Bob Drummond, Gary Atchison, Dennis McHugh, Dave Helmer, and Larry Hawk.

According to Coach Race, the team seems to be shaping up, but until we can start practicing outside we can not determine the progress of the team quite so readily.

"There is room for many more boys," said Coach Race, "providing they are willing to improve."

Farmington track men have captured the league championship for two years in a row, and both Coach Fred and Coach Race would like very much to make it three years in a row.

Officers and team managers will be introduced. Rules will be discussed and announcements for registration day for players will be made. Registrations will be available for those in attendance.

Mothers and fathers are urged to bring their 8 to 12 year old ball players with them to the meeting so that everyone will have an understanding of the functions of the program.

Mr. W. Christensen vice president of the Babe Ruth League, will be on hand to answer questions on baseball for boys aged 13 to 17.

FHS Weight Training Is Termed Successful

The new weight training program for out of season athletes which started shortly after the end of last sports, is now nearing completion. It has been termed a success by Supervising Coach Jack Hayes.

The program's objectives were to increase overall strength, resistance to injury and body weight, primarily for those in football. The participants have worked on a four day a week program which consists of two specialized sets of exercises. The exercises done on Mondays and Thursdays were designed for arm work, while on Tuesdays and Fridays leg and back work was done.

Those in the program included George Becker, John Mullins, Jim Hansen, Rod Kanisto, Gary Morelle, Gary Atchison, Ron Errain, Larry Harsh, Ray Naimie, Larry Clayton, Don Eliola, Dave Busch, Norm Otto, Mike Tomlin, and John Fleck.

Leading athletes in all fields of athletics are benefiting from weight training. This method of training is the scientific approach in the production of superior athletes.

All three of the above listed objectives were realized in this program. The basic theory of the school's weight training system is maximum resistance with minimum repetitions.

The program will be continued next year, and it is hoped eventually will be set up on a year round basis. The program now has five sets of weights and will probably acquire new and varied equipment next year.

In speaking of the concept of weight training, Coach Hayes said that 20 years ago coaches wouldn't let athletes touch weights because they felt it made the users, musclebound. Today it is accepted fact that this type of training is necessary to attain maximum performance from today's competitive athlete.
