

VanAmejde to Speak to PTA

On Tuesday, April 12 the young and vigorous Alameda PTA will present a program of vital interest to every parent. Mr. Van Amedje, Assistant Superintendent of Farmington Schools, will discuss what you should expect from the present school program and what the school expects from your child. This talk should produce a very stimulating question and answer period which Mr. Van Amedje will be prepared to conduct. Members present will also be able to participate in election of officers for the coming year.

Charles Damm in Nature Program

Charles A. Damm, Farmington resident and Farmington Metropolitan Authority naturalist, participated in the Sixth Annual Workshop on Nature Interpretive Programs held April 1 and 2 at Bradford Woods in Martinsville, Indiana.

Purpose of the program was to discuss various phases of the naturalist activities, including services offered at the Nature Center of Kensington Metropolitan Park.

Wood Creek Village

ANNE M. PHILLIPS
MA. 6-4335

Pat deCock was taken to Steepthill Hospital last week Wednesday and Thursday morning had a little girl, Peggy Ann. Pat was due to be home yesterday or today.

The lucky Wood Creekers who were able to be in Florida during March are returning home.

Angeline Walker and daughter, Linda, were taken down by Angeline's father Mr. Fred Walker on the 19th. They stayed at the Heathwood Motel, on the outskirts of Miami, a very lovely motel.

The Thurons had four weeks at Pompano, sunning and resting and visiting with the Thurons, Weightmans and Flewesses. They got back Friday. The Dornans also reached home Friday after two months at a house on the ocean at Boca Raton. Bill feels very fit. It is now a very slim 159 pounds and hopes to be back at work very shortly.

WELLS was almost too much excitement for one family last week when June and Bob Slesker prepared for son Bob's wedding to Beth Jones of Franklin. The young people couldn't bare the separation. Thursday June met her mother's bus from Wisconsin and found it was late due to ice storms at the Strait. Two tense hours later her mother, Mrs. William Garvey, arrived from Washington, very glad to be safely here. The next morning was at the train depot to meet son, Bob, who is now in the Air Force and stationed at Lowry Field, Colorado.

June and her daughter-in-law to be waited at the Fort station only to be told Bob's train would come in at the Michigan Central. They dashed over there to find Bob had been waiting patiently for half an hour. Friday evening the rehearsal dinner was held at Rosemond Inn for the 14 members of the party. Then another plane had to be met so Bob Sr. and Dr. Jones had to leave early.

The wedding was Saturday at 4 o'clock at the Franklin Community Church with Bob Slesker performing the ceremony. Several bridesmaids in her white waltz length gown with its hoop skirt. Her veil of white tulle was topped with a pearl crown. The three bridesmaids wore similar veils with gowns in pastel pink and blue. Their flowers were painted daisies tinted to match. June wore a blue chiffon dress with rose accessories, and the bride's mother wore a contrasting color of beige with yellow accessories. She had her brother, Bill, as best man and two ushers. It was a very lovely spring wedding.

A SMALL reception for friends and relatives was held in the church social hall. To follow this June had invited several of their close friends and their relatives to the house for a buffet meal. However, when the car load in which June was riding reached home they were told that June's brother, Bill, Garvey, his family and her son, Bill, had just been involved in an accident on Northwestern. The Garveys car was struck from the rear and all were taken to Beaumont Hospital; their numerous cuts and bruises taken care of; then released after seeing the damage to both cars June and Bob feel it was a miracle no one was more seriously injured.

The bride and groom have but a week to honeymoon before Bob must be back at the Lowry field where a home will be furnished there.

The Fellriths have three birthdays in March, but no birthday celebration this year. Genevieve was the 4th but she was in the hospital at that time. Virginia was 18 on the 6th but, as her mother was not at home and they usually celebrate together, it was delayed. The next morning birthday on the 28th and all three celebrate at that time. Virginia changed those plans by coming home to celebrate. Gladly should be back to school Monday. We hope they will stay well from now on.

THE FRANKLIN Garden Club meets tonight at the home of Mrs. 2310 Wellington Rd., Franklin. Mr. Wayne Seifert, Oakland County Agent, will speak on pruning.

The Franklin Branch of Women's National Farm & Garden Association will meet on Monday, the 11th. Members and guests will meet at 12 noon at the Franklin Community Church for luncheon. At 1 p.m. the business meeting will be held, to be followed by a program which will present the work of the National Farm & Garden Association at Michigan State U. in Lansing. He will speak of his experiences as an International Farm Youth Exchange student on a farm in Pakistan. Roslyn Becker and Florence Richards are two of the hostesses for this meeting.

Dave Warriner Honor Student

David Roland Warriner of 3500 Eleven Mile Road, Farmington has been named an honor student for the first semester of the 1968-69 academic year at Wheaton College (Illinois).

The announcement of the recognition was made at the honor convocation during the campus chapel hour Wednesday, March 26. Named the highest number of students maintaining a minimum 2.2 (3 is perfect) grade point average the first semester were 123 seniors, 94 juniors, 72 sophomores, and 67 freshmen.

Warriner a junior student majoring in history is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Warriner.

Cville Schools Ask Photo Material Bids

A motion was supported to request bids on photographic equipment at the March 24 meeting of the Clarenceville Board of Education.

The equipment would be used by the science department as well as the camera club. It would consist primarily of dark room materials to facilitate photographing functions.

Raymond Brent Services Held

Raymond Anderson Brent, 20810 Randall, Farmington, passed away March 26 in St. Mary's Hospital, Livonia, following a short illness.

Mr. Brent was born in Bedford, Indiana, September 6, 1905, the son of Robert E. and Bessie V. (Anderson) Brent. He was united in marriage to Mrs. Laura Crawford February 3, 1945, and had resided in Farmington since 1945.

Mr. Brent was co-owner of the Lincoln Park Out Store Company. He was a member of the Farmington Stone Contractors Association.

Funeral services were held from the Spencer J. Heene Funeral Home at 1:00 p.m. Friday, March 28, with Rev. Richard Markham of the First Methodist Church, Farmington, officiating.

Besides his wife, Laura, Mr. Brent leaves two sons, Warren Dean Brent and Gary Lee Brent, both of Detroit; a stepson, James Crawford of Livonia; and a daughter, Mrs. Frederick Brent; four step-grandchildren, Michael, Linda, Marie; Paul and Stuart Crawford.

Interment was in Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens, Novi.

At Home in Old Homestead

Jacqueline Davis GR. 4-1230

Three weeks ago Friday was a retired day for the Franklin family. Dick, Ann, and their four year old son, Tom, now reside at 36124 Padfield Rd. in Livonia.

Two weekends ago Leslie Raddatz was one of fifteen girls of Troop 234, who along with five mothers, went to Camp Narrin, near Orionville.

The group left on that very old Friday and returned Sunday after a very busy week. They slept in bed rolls, did their own cooking, and took care of their own needs.

News from the Simmonsbush house is that Patty will be in bed all of this week. Shirley and Bill have hopes that their doctor will find that she is well enough to be up and around by Sunday. Two weeks in bed is pretty hard on a four year old, but it really takes its toll on the rest of the family, especially the mother, who spends most of her time trying to keep the child busy as well as quiet.

A number of families have reported children with the measles. The disease is still going strong in the subdivision, so if your children have been exposed, just be patient, they will have their turn soon.

THE MAJOR topic of conversation in Old Homestead this past two weeks has been the condition of the roads. Drake Rd. and Eleven Mile Rd. have enabled a good portion of the residents to become good speaking units with the local towing companies. In one afternoon five different motorists used the phone at the Bohme's to call for help to free them from the mud on Eleven Mile Rd. Two phone numbers that should be added to everyone's list are those of the Township Supervisor GR. 4-2115 and the Oakland County Road Commission in Pontiac, Federal 8-4571.

Talking to each other won't bring out the road scrapers, but a phone call to one of these could do the trick.

The members of the Pinocchio Club are reminded that the April meeting is tonight, Thursday at the home of Betty Garvoda.

The April Square Dance of the Applespeels will be held on Saturday, April 9, at the home of Dick and Jean Lelander, 4442 Meadowview Dr. Those planning to attend are asked to call either Betty Garvoda, GR. 4-4765; Marguerite Debe, GR. 4-1915; or Kay Hamm, GR. 4-9005. As always, everyone is welcome, but please bring your own plate, cup, silver ware and folding chairs to ease the burden on the hostesses.
