Four Churches Unite Services

Annual Union Good Friday Services will be held this year at the Southfield Community Church, 2122 Indian, between Beech and Webster, north of Eight Mile, from twelve noon until three p.m. on Good Friday. Participating will be the Clarendville Methodist Church, the Evangelical Free Church, and the Rice Memorial Methodist Church. Subject of meditation will be the seven last words of Christ spoken from the Cross. Participating pastors will be the Rev. Miss Elsie Johns, the Rev. Mr. Edw. Clemens, the Rev. Mr. Floyd Sullivan, and the Rev. Mr. Raymond Bayne. Special music will be furnished by the churches for each of the meditations. Friends are free to come when they come and leave when they must. The Southfield Community Church will have two services on Easter Sunday morning, one at 8:30 and one at 11:15 a.m. with its massed youth choirs singing at the second service. Pastor Bayne will be speaking at both services as well as at the evening service at 7:00. Bible School will be at 10:00 a.m.

1st Methodist Hosts Services Good Friday

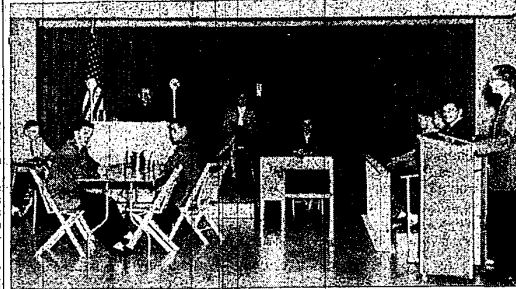

The Community Good Friday Service from 12:00 until 3:00 p.m. on April 15 will be held at the First Methodist Church of Farmington, located on Grand River at Warner. Seven of the ministers of the area will be participating in this service. Churches and ministers co-operating in the Farmington Community Good Friday Service are: First Presbyterian Church, Reverend Richard A. Geiger, minister; Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church, Reverend Carl H. Schultz, minister; Willowbrook Community Church, Reverend Marvin E. Hickert, minister; Orchard Methodist Church, Reverend Frank A. Cozadd, minister; Forest Hills United Missionary Church, Reverend Eugene R. Sims, minister; North Farmington Baptist Church, Reverend William Holmes, minister; and First Methodist Church, Reverend Richard T. Markham, minister. Special music will be furnished by choir members of the First Methodist Church and the organist, Mrs. Gerald Harrison. There will be a brief interlude between each of the seven words to be preached to allow worshippers to come and go as necessary. A free-will offering will be received and used for the furtherance of the work with retarded children at Plymouth State Training School, located in Farmington.

Mrs. Williams Coming May 6

Mrs. Nancy Williams, the state's first lady, will be guest speaker at the May Fellowship Day sponsored by the United Church Women of Farmington. Representatives of eight churches met at the home of Mrs. Edge Cope, President of the United Church Women recently to complete plans for the Fellowship Day which will be observed May 6 at North Baptist Church, Farmington. The meeting will get underway at 1 p.m. Orchard Methodist Church ladies will assist the North Baptist church women in the Tea. A nursery program will be available for care of the youngsters to enable all mothers to be present at the occasion. Everyone is welcome to attend.

ALSO JOINING Antioch Evangelical Lutheran Church

last Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs.

TEEN-AGE MEMBERS OF THE Youth Fellowship of Salem United Church of Christ make up the cast of "The Case of Humanity vs. Pontius Pilate" to be staged tomorrow evening (Good Friday) at 8 p.m. at the church. Left to right are Larry Clayton, balliff; Bill Clayton, Pontius Pilate; Dave Bush, Judge; Bob Bennett, prosecutor; Sandy Richard, Salome; Cathy Boyer, court reporter; Pat McDonald, Annas; Bill Prisk, Jr., Caiaphas; Fred Eichhorn, Joseph; and Benjie Clayton, defense attorney. The play is being directed by Harry R. Farmer, assisted by Mrs. Kay Farmer. A jury will be chosen from the audience.

Confirm 8 Young People At Antioch Lutheran

200 were in attendance at worship on Palm Sunday when eight young people were confirmed into the Christian faith at Antioch Evangelical Lutheran Church. Confirmed were: Robert Eckorn, Son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Eckorn, 28300 Thorny Brae; Cynthia Folsom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Folsom, 28084 Thorny Brae; Jack and Mike Ford, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Ford, 27541 Stansbury; Christine Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Meyers, 31824 Nottingham Rd.; Marguerite Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Miller, 46189 Grand River; Laird Peters Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Laird Peters, 23275 Brookview; and Nancy Sandbothe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Sandbothe, 28220 Peppermill. Confirmation for these young people marks the completion of two years formal instruction in the Christian faith as taught by the Confessions of The Evangelical Lutheran Church, and marks the beginning of adult responsibility in Christian discipleship in the Church. Members of this Confirmation Class will receive their first Holy Communion together at the 10:30 a.m. worship, Easter Sunday. John Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reed, and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Ringquist.

Of special significance to members of this young United Lutheran congregation in the north Farmington area was the announcement by the Pastor at last Sunday's service, that they had successfully completed their recent building pledge drive to reach a goal of $12,000, and that the tentative ground breaking date for their first unit building is May 8th.

Presently Antioch holds Sunday Church School at 9:30 a.m. and worship at 10:45 a.m. in the Dinsdale Jr. High School on 12 Mile Rd. between Orchard Lake and Farmington Roads. This young United Lutheran congregation represents in the north Farmington area all Lutheran bodies in the National Lutheran Council, a cooperating agency of nearly two-thirds of all Lutherans in America. For further information, call Pastor James Henneberger, MA 6-5560.

Lachmann Sings in Western Mich. Choir

Paul J. Lachmann of Farmington was one of 70 choir members at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, who traveled to five communities for concerts on April 11 and 12. The choir sang at high schools in Montague, Whitehall, Muskegon, Coopersville and Wyoming Park. Lachmann is the son of Mrs. Mabel M. Lachmann, 24485 Glen Orchard Dr. He graduated from Farmington high school.

Moon to Speak At Service

The healing power of divine Love will be the topic of a free public lecture on Christian Science to be given in Farmington on April 29 by Albert Clinton Moon of Chicago. Mr. Moon will speak in First Church of Christ, Scientist at 9:00 p.m. under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist. His subject will be, "Christian Science Heals Through Enlightened Thought." A member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, Mr. Moon is on a nationwide speaking tour. A native of Louisiana, Ohio, he withdrew from business in 1933 to devote his full time to the public practice of Christian Science healing. He has been an authorized teacher of Christian Science since 1943.

Trace History At Easter Rites

"Six Thousand Years of Easter - You Are There" will be the theme of the Easter service Sunday at 11 a.m. at the Farmington Universalist Church. Dr. Russell T. Costello, speaker for the morning, said he would trace the history of Easter observances from early man's spring rites to the present day. The church's choir will sing two numbers under the direction of organist Evelyn Adams Costello. "Still, Still with Thee" by Mendelssohn, and Palestrina's "Alleluia." The Easter program will begin with a 9 a.m. family breakfast in Adams Hall.

1st Methodist Sets Easter Services

The Senior Methodist Youth group of the First Methodist Church, Farmington, will conduct the Sunrise Service at 6 a.m. on Easter Sunday. A sunrise breakfast will be served by the group at 7 a.m. following the service. For reservations call the Church office, GR. 4-6573.

Easter

Greetings and Good Wishes

As we celebrate a glorious Easter, we take this opportunity to greet you and your family with every good wish for your happiness at this Holy season. Our earnest hope is that the glad tidings of Easter may guide and strengthen all of us, helping us to envision deep spiritual goals and to recognize the greater truths that go beyond our everyday life.

To know the true joy of Easter... to experience all the glory of its message... attend Easter services in the church of your choice. Bring your family... join your friends.
