Raise $5,000 in March of Dimes

The 1969 March of Dimes raised $4,930.92 in Farmington, according to Baird D. Tupper, chairman.

This figure contributed to a highly successful county-wide campaign which raised $116,500 to finance the operation of the Oakland County Chapter of the National Foundation for 1969.

The Foundation still provides treatment and equipment for more than 250 polio victims in Oakland County, and finances education and research in polio-fighting programs as well as the new targets of the campaign, arthritis and birth defects.
