Speech Classes Ready For Plays

"The Play's the Thing," working actively in preparation for the two-evening, May 27 and 28, performance of the Farmington Senior High Speech Department's one-act festival, "Plays For 60," are the personnel of the advanced speech classes, the casts of "The Wall," "The Rope," and "The Adversary," and the advertising, property, and staging committees.

The cast of Verne Powers will appear in the festival, which will be Farmington Senior High's entry in the third annual High School One-Act Play Festival, May 20 and 21 at Wayne State University. "Fourteen" Detroit area high schools will give their

Set Plans for Senior Party At Botsford

Before seniors had even finished tearing down the flowered walls of "Aiyame Saku Koro" and storing away their treasured stencils, plans for their final fling, the annual Senior Party — had begun to fill their minds.

At a Senior Assembly during homeroom, May 11, Mrs. Robert Swift outlined the plans that so far have been made for the concluding party.

Following the custom of the last few years, the party will be held at Botsford Inn, near Eight Mile and Grand River, from 11:00 to 3:00 on the night of Commencement, June 16. A chicken dinner will be served at 11:30, and hi-fis will provide the dance music.

Unlike the Prom, the Senior Party is not a date affair, although a senior may bring a date if he or she wishes to do so. The cost of the evening is $2.25 per person. This includes dinner, dancing, and beverages served later in the evening, or rather earlier in the morning.

Seniors who wish to leave the Inn early must have written permission from their parents to do so. The parents will be notified upon their departure from the party.

About 10 pairs of chaperones are needed so seniors whose parents would like to come to the party are asked to contact Mrs. Swift.

Honor Faculty Members at Tea

The Voice of Christian Youth group honored faculty members at a tea held after school Wednesday, May 11.

Taking part in the program was John Stahler who played a piano solo, "Sweet Hour of Prayer."

Carolyn Balman and Sue Welser also sang a duet, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is." They were accompanied by St. Kosmosky.

Following the program, next year's officers were announced. Alice Bassette was elected president and will be aided by vice president, Gary Sovereign. Judy Stahler will be secretary. Council representatives include Sue Appleby, Bill Harlow, and Lenora Johnson.

Honor Mr. & Mrs. Schuon At Gala Surprise Party

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR A. SCHUON

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Schuon, lifelong downriver residents presently residing in Southgate, were honored at a surprise party April 24. The occasion, a combination birthday and retirement dinner, was held at the home of their son and his family on Runnymede Road, Farmington Township.

Upon their arrival at the Runnymede address Mrs. and Mrs. Schuon, whose birthdays are April 22 and April 23 respectively, were immediately ushered to the basement recreation room by their youngest granddaughter to "see the display."

"Sitting Time," the Home-making Department's fashion show, will be presented tonight in the Senior High Gym. The show will begin at 8:00, but the doors will be open at 7:30 so that people will be able to view displays representing various other departments.

The classes which will have displays are Industrial Arts, Woodworking, Science, and Art.

The focal point of many of the exhibits will be major projects such as those done by the physics classes.

Narrators for the fashion show will be Donna Bird, Carole Lewis, Karen Open, Karen Coy, and Sue Cross.

The girls will wear clothes which they made themselves in class. Included will be every type dress from beach wear to formal attire.

Mrs. Marjorie Ellis and Miss Nancy Rice, student teacher from Wayne University, are directing the show.

Highlight of the "This is Your Life" decor was a 32 square foot panel on which were displayed photos, dating from 1888, of the principals, their families and friends. The display, enjoyed by all the guests, elicited many nostalgic memories and was a constant source of "do you remember" reminiscences of happy times.

MR. SCHUON, who is very active in the Southgate Civic Defense Program and is a life member of the Wayne County Sportsman's Club, stated that he and his wife Florence plan to remain in Michigan. They will devote their time to civic and church activities plus enjoying their hobbies.

Matrarch of the family Mrs. Katherine Schuon, age 91, was present to honor her son and
