Kendallarks
Add Members

The Farmington Women's Choral Group known as the "Kendallarks" recently welcomed new members: Mrs. E. W. Bower and Mrs. E. M. Warner of Kendallwood; Miss Judy Lupton of Briar Hills; Mrs. Charles Shandor of Bel-Aire; Mrs. M. N. Williams of Warner Farms; and Mrs. F. Smolinski of Normandy Hills.

Newly appointed members to the "Variety Acts Committee" are: Mrs. W. N. Danc and Mrs. D. A. Berdeau of Kew, Mrs. C. J. Martin of Ridgewood Manor, Mrs. C. C. Hazen of Warner Farms, and Mrs. H. Hunter of Ridgewood Manor.

Work is continuing on developing "little" acts for the purpose of entertaining in variety shows, benefits and the many other local social functions. The group will present acts, upon request, in addition to the entire choral assembly performing under the able direction of Mr. Eddie Ellegood, head of the O. E. Dunckel Junior High Choral Dept. Plans are underway for their annual Spring party to be staged early June.

Information concerning Kendallarks may be obtained by contacting President, Mrs. E. C. Nye, GR. 4-5783, KE 4-1018 or Vice President, Mrs. E. A. Savelly, GR. 4-2821.

Knolly Women Plan Events

The Franklin Knolly Women's Club met Thursday, May 5, for a dessert luncheon at the Shepherd King Lutheran Church, the guest speakers were, Mildred Droge, from the Farmington Library, and Mrs. John A. Seerist, president of the Boston Garden Club.

Mrs. Wm. Tylner, Chairman of the Hospitality Committee, announced plans for two festive affairs, a dance and installation luncheon, for the closing of this year's activities.

The dance and late supper will be held at the Farmington Country Club, Saturday, May 28, at 9:00. Reservations must be in by 10:00.

The installation luncheon for the new officers will also be held at the Farmington Country Club, Thursday, June 2. Reservations must be in by May 25.

The next cancer-pad sewing group will meet in the home of Mrs. Jos. Gibbons, Thursday, May 19, at 8 p.m.

Young Map Makers
Twenty eight fifty grade youngsters at the Eagle School labored for a total of 11 hours last Saturday and Monday making a 30" by 15" map of the United States on the school playground.

Mrs. Arnie Bell of Wayne Road returned home Sunday from Elliott Hall Hospital in Detroit where she had been hospitalized due to pneumonia.

Frances Foster
Wed to Harry Petersmarck

In a gown of embroidered silk organza and carrying white roses, Frances Foster became the bride of Harry J. Petersmarck Saturday, April 23 in a double ring ceremony in the Church of St. Fabian.

Frances, daughter of the F. F. Fosters of Lamar Drive, selected Donna Bird as maid of honor. Bride's maid was Karen Petersmarck, sister of the groom. Brenda Foster was flower girl.

John Martin served as best man and ushers were Nicholas Larson, Michael Petersmarck and James Foster.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Petersmarck of 12 Mile Road.

"Following a wedding breakfast at Northwest Inn and a reception in the bride's home, the newlyweds will leave for the East."

At Art Exhibit

"The Design and Study of a Miniature Submarine" was the first place topic submitted by James Mclernum, University of Detroit aeronautical pre-senior in the recent student challenge paper competition sponsored by the Detroit section of the Institute of the Aeronautical Sciences.

This first place paper competed with entries from the universities of Toledo, Cincinnati, Wayne State, and Michigan. He is now eligible to compete in the national finals which consists of winners from the seven regions of the Institute.

80 Honor Ida
Prisk on Her Retirement

Over 80 present and former co-workers together with her immediate family honored Ida Prisk at an Open House at Middlebelt School last Wednesday evening, May 11. Mrs. Prisk is retiring after 21 years of teaching. She has inspired pupils at the old Wm. Prisk, Fairview, and Middlebelt Schools here in Farmington since 1943.

Before that she taught in the Upper Peninsula at Bruce's Crossing, Calumet, Bonifas, and Hermansville. She reminisced that during her first year of teaching in 1914-15 she made $417 for nine months and had 38 pupils in all eight grades.

Guests signed a copy of the book, "One Thousand Inspirational Thoughts" which was presented to her at the end of the evening. She was also the recipient of a rosette and a testimonial gift to be used for organ music.

A special bulletin board depicted outstanding events in her life.

Mrs. Prisk had previously been honored at the May meeting of the Middlebelt PTA when she received the Distinguished Service Award.

She and Mr. Prisk live at 21415 Clougham. They have four children, all of whom are in the PTA.

Plans for the future include relaxation, some substitute "just to keep my hand in", travel, and enjoying her grandchildren. We wish her much happiness in her retirement.

Plan Musical
At Cloverdale

The early elementary children of the Cloverdale School will present a program of vocal music at the May 24 meeting of the P.T.A.

The program will include fun songs, lullabies, songs with rhythm and melody instruments, action and two part songs. Each class will sing a group of their favorite songs learned this year.

The kindergarten will begin the program followed by the other grades which will convey to parents a picture of growth made by the boys and girls from one year to the next.

Teachers of the classes participating are Mrs. Senob, Mrs. Gale J. He, Johnson, Mrs. Newman, Mrs. Todd, and Mrs. Freeman. Mrs. Corey, music consultant, is coordinating the program.

The vocal music program will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will be followed by a brief P.T.A. meeting at 8:00 p.m. at which time the newly elected officers will be installed.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Clark of East Lansing welcomed a son, Frederick Patterson, on May 1. He weighed 8 pounds, 10 1/2 ounces at birth. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray D. Eichler of Nine Mile Road and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark of East Lansing. Mrs. Clark is the former Barbara Joan Eichler. Both Barbara and Jim are Michigan State University graduates.

You cannot remain several months' neglect with a one-week crash program. The prettiest coiffure is distinguished unless the hair is well-groomed. Adopt a routine. Shampoo your hair as often as it needs it, brushing your comb and brush even more often than your hair. Give your hair the time-honored hundred strokes at night with a good brush! For your weekly or bi-weekly shampoo, allow plenty of time for a careful job. Rinse until your hair squeaks as you rub it between your fingers.

Mrs. Mummery Attends
Wayne State Conference

Mrs. Winifred Mummery, Farmington High School guidance counselor, attended the third annual Conference of Counselors and Freshmen, Wednesday, April 27 at Wayne State University.

Conference questionnaire sheets which were mailed by the college to each freshman were completed and given to the counselor during the Conference. The students' answers on the questionnaire indicate that they are happy and well adjusted at Wayne State.

The 1959 Clarenceville graduates taking part in the conference were Kendall Robertson, Sara McKiddie, Julie Campbell and Robert Lefebvre. Rosalind Schambers, Ruth Rapch, Joyce Forrest and Marilyn Gay are also presently attending Wayne.

When asked, "What recommendations would you make for changes in your high school courses to better prepare students for university work?" some of the answers were: "drop courses which are merely enlightening and interesting, and concentrate more on use-

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burbank of Detroit have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jacquelyne, to George C. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Moore, also of Detroit. The bride elect, a graduate of Farmington High School, is a senior student at the Ford Hospital Nursing School and her fiancé is enrolled at Highland Park Junior College. A September 9 wedding is planned.
