The Taylors are back from their five weeks in our 50th state. Two days after the Cardinals left for home they were joined by other friends from Detroit, the Faulkners. They maintained headquarters at Hawaiian Village on Honolulu, but visited the three islands of Kauai, Maui, and Hawaii. It was a picture taking tour and each of them have some 5000 feet of film with sound recording. Dick says it will take him about three months before his film is edited and ready to show. I'm telling you this because I'm so sure everyone is as eager as I am to see these wonderful pictures.

Philo Wright's brother, Paul, died last Thursday after a long but inevitably a losing battle against cancer. The funeral was Monday at the West Funeral Home, followed by interment at White Chapel. We all wish to extend our sympathy to Phil and Agnes, and to his widow and daughter.

THE WEAVERS had a very busy week end. Old family friends from Haddenville, N.J., coming on up to the Ford Motor Co. stockholders meeting, so, of course, they insisted that Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Draper stay with them. They reached here Thursday. Friday Bob took them to Greenfield Village. Friday afternoon, Ralph, Ruth and the grandchildren came in from Grand Rapids as they had not seen the Drapers since their marriage. Bob and Dick also got home for the week end. The Schell's returned to Grand Rapids Sunday afternoon. "Dick" Lansing, the Drapers left at 6 a.m. Monday morning to return east by train and Ruth took Bob back to Ypsilanti.

Harry Lang drove to Chicago last Thursday on business. Day Ginny, with Terry and Linda, flew out to join him. It was a big thrill for the children as it was their first plane trip; the flight they had expected to go on was grounded in Schemeda by bad weather; but they were able to get space on a Jet assist. Electrica, Ginny, John, Harry at a dinner party Friday night; Saturday they drove to Western Springs to visit Harry's brother, Dick, and his family; and drove home Sunday.

Gerry Dyna was brought home again last Thursday after another two weeks in the hospital at Ann Arbor. Emily reports that he is doing very nicely and should be back to work shortly.

DAN MCCARTHY won a cash award of $50.00 toward a summer at the Interlochen Musical Camp. The Farmington Jr. Chamber of Commerce gives three awards yearly to winners in this musical competition. Dan, in his seventh grade at Dunkard Jr. High, plays the saxophone. He is working very hard doing yard work to earn the balance of the camp fee.

Florence Richards got back Saturday from another week in Monroe helping her nephew, Robert Warren, in his florist shop. This time she took over while he spent a week in the hospital. He is back to work again and reported in excellent physical condition.

The Weedons, with friends from Birmingham, went up to their camp back in the woods about 25 miles from Gaylord for the week end. The men went fishing but did not catch enough to feed a group of ten, but a very good time was had by all.

The Sheriff's will have their daughter and her family a good many miles nearer than Cambridge, Mass. Tom gets his DSC in military at MIT this June and has accepted a position with G. E. in Schemeda. N.Y. Louise and Tom spent this past week end looking for a place to live near the plant preparatory to moving there as soon as graduation is over.

Will Get MSU Commission
Frederick E. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thompson, 2802 Rocky Crest, Farmington, will be among 50 graduating seniors in the Army and Air Force ROTC units at Michigan State University to receive second lieutenant commissions at traditional ceremonies Tuesday, May 31.

The commissioning address will be delivered by Army Chief of Staff General Lyman L. Lemnitzer.

More than 3,000 cadets, comprising the entire ROTC detachments at MSU, will participate in the commissioning parade. The public is invited to the ceremonies, which will begin at 4:20 p.m. on Old College Field.

Thompson will receive an Army commission.

10 Mile School Winds Up Busy Month
The month of May has been busy one at 10 Mile School. A Spring Music Festival was presented by the children in the 2nd, 4th, and 6th grades on Tuesday, May 12th. The program included a variety of songs, some dancing, and even some instruments played by the children. The second graders sang about learning to sing and dance.

The 4th grade group sang calypso numbers and were accompanied by their own orchestra. The 6th grade group sang a variety of songs, complete with costumes. The two-part harmony of the 6th grade singers was much enjoyed by the parents and the over-flow crowd all seemed to agree that this was a very fine display of the variety offered in our school's music program.

The 10 Mile P.T.A. met Monday, May 16th and had as speaker, Dr. W. C. Cole, who delighted the audience with his talent as a speaker and his knowledge of astrology. With breath-taking slides of the wonders of the universe and awe inspiring statistics of the space age, Dr. Cole led the audience through the development of astronomy from early Babylon down to the fabulous 200 inch giant on Mt. Palomar.

A BUSINESS meeting was held and the election of officers for next year took place. Elected were: Pres., Bob Stone, Father Vice-Pres., Richard Harbicht, Mother Vice Pres., Mrs. Dolores Grant, Secretary, Mrs. Margaret Savely, and Treasurer - Mrs. Jane Hopenstedt.

After a successful performance at the annual Instrumental Music Program held at the senior high school, the boys and girls in the band and string group gave a special private program for teachers and classes.
