The Barrier Between You and Trouble

It is a wise man who can persuade himself that there are wolves abroad in the land other than the one which dire poverty usually impersonates. "No work" may be snapping at the heels of the laboring man. "Reduction in the office force" may be snarling even now at the salaried man. "Poor Crops" occasionally prowls around the farmers' fields, and yet a little surplus in the bank is a barrier across which the wolf of "hard luck" has never been known to come. Protect your home and yourself by opening an account with this bank.

100 CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING

Friends Honor the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the Marriage of Mr. and Mrs. John Grace

Last Saturday evening a hundred friends and relatives from Detroit, Redford, Clarenceville, Farmington and Northville gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Grace to help them celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The evening was spent at cards, after which an elaborate five-course lunch was served. The dining room was decorated with festoons of crepe paper from which suspended a motto, "Welcome to all." The table decorations were pink and white carnations, a gift to the bride and groom from Mr. and Mrs. Will Eckler.

Mrs. Grace wore her wedding dress of a quarter of a century ago. Mrs. Winter Davis, who made the dress, and Mrs. Brownie Cook, the bridesmaid, were both present. Mr. and Mrs. Grace were the recipients of many beautiful pieces of silver, among them a silver ring presented to the bride by her nephew, Morris Graham.

After singing "God be with you till we meet again," the company dispersed wishing the host and hostess many happy returns of the day.

Farmington Took Both Games Two basket ball teams from the Borough's Adding Machine company came to Farmington last Saturday night and met the High school and Independent teams. In both instances the local teams were victors, both playing a fast game. Willard Travis of the high school team was badly injured in a collision, having several teeth knocked out and receiving other injuries.

HIS PLAN COMPLETE SUCCESS

Old Gentleman's Hint Successful in Expediting the Going of Wooer Who Outstayed Welcome.

Men relate a merry tale of a certain young man and how he became amiable with the charms of a delightful person who lives in one of our suburbs.

The young man called on the lady often, and he seemed always loath to tear himself away from her charming presence at what her father considered the proper hour. This year-

FINE PROGRAM BY LITERARY CLUB

Excellent Papers and Discussions by the Ladies, Using Italy for their Subject

The Ladies' Literary club met Feb. 19th with Mrs. Anna Cook, twenty ladies being present. The program presented was very good.

Mrs. Nellie Dickerson read an article on "The Life of Victor Emanuel and Letters from a Traveler in Italy," which were much enjoyed.

Mrs. Crosby's paper, brought over from last meeting, "Palaces and Villas and Kings and Queens of Italy," was a well written and well delivered paper such as we have come to expect from her.

Mrs. Agnes Chamberlin read an excellent paper on "Legends of the Madonna," illustrating with pictures which gave much pleasure to her audience.

Mrs. Moore gave a short talk on "The Educational System of Italy," supplemented by reading statistics going to show that Italy is far behind in educational matters, a large percentage of her population being illiterate.

The club met again March 5th for another special day with Mrs. F. M. Warner.

ried the old man. And one evening he strolled into the drawing room. After chatting pleasantly for a minute, he said:

"How do you like our little suburb?"

"I find it delightful, sir," answered the swain.

"Yes, it is nice. And a strictly law-abiding place. For instance, the saloons close up tight at the legal hour—back door and all. A man can't get a drink a minute after twelve o'clock."

The young man looked at his watch.

"Goodness!" he exclaimed, "I had no idea I was staying so long. I must ask your pardon. Good night." And he hurried thence.

The old man smiled.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

GETTING IN RIGHT.

"I understand you have just bought an automobile?"

"Yes. I saw seven of them chasing one pedestrian the other day, and I decided that I was on the wrong end of the sport."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.
