FIFTH GRADE STUDENTS at the Eagle School stand proudly on the western states of the 25 x 42 map the class planned and then painted on the blacktop porches of the playground. Several weeks of preparation under the direction of fifth grade teacher, Mrs. Robert J. Irvin, preceded the actual painting which required four hours labor from the 31 students in the class. The youngsters sold various items to each other to raise the $11.00 to purchase two gallons of pavement marking paint.
