Sharon McHugh, Jack Walker Exchange Vows

MRS. JACK L. WALKER

A papal blessing was bestowed on Sharon Margaret McHugh and Jack Leonard Walker on their wedding day.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. McHugh, was dressed in a lace and silk organza gown with lace cap and silk illusion veil. She carried a spray bouquet of stephanotis and white roses. Barbara Weber, the maid of honor, was dressed in blue silk organza and lace with matching large hat and shoes. The bridesmaids, Camilla Dysarz and Bernadette Sloan, were dressed the same as the maid of honor. The attendants carried bouquets of blue delphinium and white carnations.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Walker, was attended by William Schaefer as best man. Ushers were Brian Walker, brother of the groom, Lawrence Alister and Patrick Walker Jr., cousins of the groom; and Michael McHugh, brother of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore a light blue sheath dress with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Breakfast followed at Oakland Hills Country Club.

The bride and groom left for a California honeymoon, with the bride wearing a lime green sheath with bone accessories.

On their return they will live at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana.

Effie Daley Wed Recently

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Daley of Johns, Michigan, announce the recent marriage of their daughter, Effie Kay, to Douglas E. Isaacson, of Farmington.

The wedding took place Aug. 13 at St. John's Lutheran church. The Reverend Fred Rutkowski officiated.

The couple will reside in New York where Effie will finish her last term of practice teaching and the groom will enter the Juilliard School of Music.

They are both students of the University of Michigan.

Come and see why this show is so popular with FARMINGTON AREA COLLECTORS

Plan September Antique Show

The Redford-Detroit Antique Show, will be held September 9-11, at the Carpenters Auditorium, 23231 Grand River Avenue. Hours will be 12 noon to 10 p.m. daily.

Of course, the articles exhibited and offered for sale are old, but so is the show itself. This showing is its 45th and it is recognized as the oldest show in the state.

It has built up a fine reputation through these many years and is one of the most popular shows for its size anywhere.

More and more people make a point not to miss this fine old show.

Some collections of antiques have just been purchased in Europe and will be for sale at this show. Primitive items, Early American momentos, country store articles, dolls, fine old china and glass, jewelry, guns, stumps and coins are a few of the many types of antiques and heirlooms on display. These interesting, old, unusual and often rare articles make up a most fascinating show.

Many of the 26 dealers from various states in the Great Lakes area have exhibited in this show for many years.

Reveal Plans For MEA Fall Conference

The advance schedule for the program and guest speakers for the fall Region 7 State Teachers Institute, sponsored by the Michigan Education Association, has been released by Cecil C. Elmore, MEA director of regional conferences.

More than 5,500 teachers and administrators in Oakland County are expected to attend the conference to be held in the Detroit Masonic Temple Auditorium, October 28.

Keynote general session speakers will be Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Automobile Workers of America; and Dr. Michael Ference, Jr., executive director, Scientific Laboratory, Ford Motor Company.

Reuther and Ference will present the views of labor and industry, respectively, concerning education in a dynamic society.

Dr. Fred J. Vescolani, associate professor of education, Michigan State University, president of the MEA; and Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett, state superintendent of public instruction, will bring greetings to the group.

Linda Gillam at Camp Cavell

Linda Gillam, 32118 Heathstone, is among 80 girls representing their Y-Teen clubs in senior high schools of metropolitan Detroit spending this week at the Y-Teen's Camp Cavell on Lake Huron, considering the broad subject of "Teen Valley of Decision."

The occasion is the annual Y-Teen Leadership Conference, which opened Monday (August 22) and will continue to Saturday afternoon (August 27).

With Miss Evelyn Barrar, lecturer and writer, of Cleveland, Ohio, the Y-Teens are giving serious thought to such questions as: What is the population explosion? What about a third world war? What concerns do we have about minorities? To marry or not to marry during the school year? What are the responsibilities of marriage?

Recreation has its place at the Conference, too, with swimming, tennis, badminton, cookouts, and campfires being strong favorites.

Republicans In Area To Attend Convention

Eighteen Farmington area residents will head for the state Republican convention in Detroit this weekend.

They are: Mrs. Margaret Downs, 35500 Bresbury Ridge; Mrs. Grace Richardson, 35500 W. Nine Mile Road; Floyd R. Jaye, 27306 Lorikai; Robert Baxter, 28428 Thorny Brae; Mrs. Susan Fleming, 27700 Briarton; Mrs. Elise Avery, 28041 Wildwood Trail; Jack Curry, 2224 Avershill Rd.; George P. Merwin, 13401 Cottingham Road; Delos Hamlin, 23210 Cass; Harry Simanek, 25455 Greenmeadow; Edward Curme, 32314 Cranbury; Larry Avery, 26041 Wildwood Trail; Robert Irving, 31855 Nottingham; William Rogers, 25205 Bannockburn; Mr. C. E. Haynes, 33475 Leisure Lane; William Davis, 32291 Chesterbrook; Wendell Brown, 29221 Ardmore; and Harley Walters, 40028 Oakland.

They'll attend the state GOP confab as members of the powerful 140-man Oakland county delegation, largest at the convention.

The candidate they'll support is 48-year-old David R. Calhoun of Highland Woods, who has county endorsement for the post of state auditor general on the Bagwell slate.

The Farmington delegates will caucus at 9:30 p.m. Friday in the Bagley room of the Statler-Hilton, following an open house in the Oakland county suite. The official convention will be called to order at 11:00 a.m. Saturday in Cobo Hall.

Elim lettuce is out of place in a tossed salad. To keep it crisp, Anita Dean, foods and nutrition specialist at Michigan State University, suggests the tossed salad be "served" just before it is dressed. Acid and salt cause greens to wilt and break down rapidly.

Operation 'Coffee Cup' In Full Swing

Operation "Coffee Cup" sponsored by the Republican Women's Organization of Farmington is in full swing in the Farmington area. The first two in a series of twenty three coffees scheduled were held Wednesday, August 17.

Republican candidates for office in the November election will be guest speakers, to enable voters to know more about their proposed office holders at county level.

Mrs. John Maan, 36019 Old Bedford opened her home to friends and neighbors for "Coffee Cup" number one. Mr. Henry M. Hogan Jr., candidate for State Representative, was the guest speaker. He pointed out the necessity for a better showing at the polls in the primary election, and the need for voters to know more about the candidates.

"Coffee Cup" number two was held at the home of Mrs. George Cope, 27118 Longacre. George Taylor, presently chief assistant prosecuting attorney and candidate for prosecuting attorney of Oakland County was the speaker.

He stressed the need to change the unfavorable business climate in Michigan to keep industry in the state from moving to other parts of the country. Mrs. R. L. Seger presided at the coffee table.

Jane Hamlin Speaks Nuptial Vows in South August 13

The Laurel Presbyterian (Hoerner of Lexington, Kentucky, also wore white with a Carolina was the scene of a white rose corsage. The mother quet ceremony Saturday, August 13 when Jane Hamlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delos Hamlin of Farmington, was united in marriage to Tony Byers of Pickens, South Carolina.

The bride was lovely in a ball-length gown of champagne lace with a bateau neckline. She carried her white rose shower corsage on a white ribbon.

The groom, who is a student at the University of South Carolina, was attended by John Holmes.

Following a short wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, the couple returned to Columbia where they will make their home.

FASCINATING FACTS ABOUT NATURAL GAS

"REBELLION" - Mother of Invention

In the early 1800's a Gas water heater (though manually-operated) was very popular addition to any household. But in 1899 Mr. Robertshaw, a busy man with a large family, rebelled against the turn the water heater on and off. He thereupon developed a thermostat which automatically regulated the flow of the gas and maintained water temperature.

Today millions of consumers enjoy the benefits of Natural Gas through the invention and perfection of many wonderful, time-saving, automatic-controlled Gas appliances. Constant research and experiences of millions of dollars make life more pleasant and work more efficient wherever this dependable "wonder fuel" is used to heat, air-condition, cook, refrigerate, dry clothes, heat water and incinerate.

Gas Service is both reliable and automatic - always responds silently, accurately and safely to all thermostat settings on any modern, automatic Gas appliance. Call or write Consumers Power Company and learn how many ways Gas can serve you.

GET THE FACTS - BETTER YET - GET GAS!
