

Speaker Slated By Lutherans

It has been announced by Pastor Dr. Siegmund, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Incarnation, that the guest preacher for their service of formal organization to be held at 11 a.m. Sunday, October 28, in Middlebell Elementary School will be the Rev. Frank P. Madsen, newly elected president of the Michigan Synod of the Lutheran Church in America.

DR. MADSEN HAS served a number of churches in the Detroit area and in 1952 was elected the first full-time president of the Michigan Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America. During his able leadership the number of congregations in the Michigan Synod has doubled due to a vigorous Home Mission program which brought into existence more than forty new congregations.

The convention which brought into being the new Michigan Syn-

Congregation Plans 1st Party

Masking as television personalities and TV commercials, the congregation of the Lutheran Church of the Incarnation, Southfield, will hold the first party of the season at the church this Saturday, October 27. The time is set for 8 p.m.

Part of the fun on the program will be skits by the church members, based on the "personality" they have taken on for the evening. The party goes under the title of "U-2 TV" (Unitarian-Universalist TV).

Co-chairmen for the evening are Mrs. Larry Sands, Farmington, and Mrs. James Smith, Berkley. Assisting with the plans and decorations are Mrs. Sheila Newhouse, Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ward, Davison Avenue, Detroit; Mrs. James Benjamin, Southfield; and Mrs. George Jacobs, Archdale Avenue, Detroit. Refreshments will be served.

Church Plans Charity Drive

This year various groups will be collecting for UNICEF. They all should have identifying material such as UNICEF collecting containers and leaflets explaining the purpose of UNICEF.

THREE GROUPS from Orchard Methodist Church will be collecting for UNICEF in the North Farmington area. The evening of Friday, October 26, Sunday, October 27, and Saturday, October 28, will be "trick-or-treat" for UNICEF in the Franklin Hills subdivision.

Saturday, Oct. 27, the Senior High M.Y.F. will collect from the Brian Hill subdivision. Sunday evening, Oct. 28, the Junior High M.Y.F. will make the rounds in the Westbrook Manor and Kentlandwood 3 and 4 subdivisions. Each evening an adult sponsor will be in the area.

Be sure that any person you give your money to has the correct leaflet so that you know that the money will be given to UNICEF.

Meekness heightens immortal attributes only by removing the dust that dims them.

PROCEEDS FROM the St. Mary Hospital Guild Charity Ball, held at the DRC Ballroom last Saturday night, will help provide for the hospital such a machine as is being explained above by a doctor to volunteer workers. Called the X-mat Machine, it is capable of saving much time in the development of x-rays and speeds the process of diagnosis for doctors. They are (L to R) Dr. G. Haxell, Mrs. H. L. Dyer and Mrs. Cleve Masson.

Slate Martin Broones For Church Lecture

How to cope effectively with pictures and radio programs, acting also as manager and producer for his wife Charlotte Greenwood.

Active in Christian Science for many years, Mr. Broones withdrew from business in 1948 to devote his full time to the practice of Christian Science healing. He became an authorized teacher of Christian Science in 1958.

THE OAKLAND COUNTY Alumnae Chapter of Delta Delta Sorority will celebrate its Founder's Day at a luncheon on Saturday, October 27, at the Village Woman's Club, East Long Lake Road at 1 p.m.

This marks the 60th anniversary of the founding of Delta Delta Sorority at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio.

Speakers for the day will be Mrs. Russell T. Costello, National Panhellenic Conference Delegate and Past President; Mrs. Winfield C. Hinman, 27310 Wellington Road, Franklin, who is Alumnae Province Director; Mrs. George W. Belker, Jr., Collegiate Province Director; and Miss Mary Jo Kurk, College Chapter Director of the Epistol Sigma Chapter at Wayne State University.

Mrs. William B. Wheeler, College Chapter Director of the Epistol Phi Chapter at the University of Detroit, will lead the singing. Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall will conduct the Founder's Day ritual.

Mrs. Everett V. Bolen, 32905 Nottingham, is accepting reservations from the Farmington area Delta Zetas.

Sorority Plans 60th Birthday

THE SPECTACULAR rise in the three decades in various parts of the world speaks eloquently of this special Week of Prayer.

All women of the church are invited to take part and set aside one hour of meditation and prayer for world peace, October 29, from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m.

The Week of Prayer and Self-denial offers a special season for prayer, for missions, and for prayer for special projects and Christian work. It offers also a time of voluntary denial of self-indulgence. The observance came to the United Methodist Church in 1916 as a part of the rich heritage brought to the church by the organized women of the M.E. Church, South.

WSCS to Hold Holiday Fair

The Women's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church, Farmington, will hold a fall bazaar, The Holiday Fair of 1962, on Thursday, November 8, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The bazaar will feature many 4-55s, is handling the dinner giving.

A group of paperback and hardcover books will be sold, including some current best sellers, and a collection of children's books. Needlework, a pantry shop, Christmas cards and many other items will also be included.

A turkey dinner will be served in the evening from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Five cups of coffee are provided for hungry children.

Each coin collected by these groups will mean food or medicine for the sick and hungry children of the world. For one penny, five cups of coffee are provided for hungry children.

Five cents provides enough vaccine to protect five children against tuberculosis.

When these groups come to your home on October 31, please contribute toward a more healthy, peaceful, and prosperous world.

Church Teens To Raise Funds

Millions of American youth share Halloween each year by Trick or Treating for UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund. This year the Junior High Fellowship Teens of the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington and the Future Homemakers' Club of Farmington Senior High School will participate in the program.

Each coin collected by these groups will mean food or medicine for the sick and hungry children of the world. For one penny, five cups of coffee are provided for hungry children.

Plan Sessions At Convention

The 31st biennial convention of the National Council of Catholic Women will have something to reward those women who can spend only a few hours at Detroit's Cobo Hall during the November 29-30 meeting.

Two concentrated sessions are planned for 7 p.m. November 29, and 2 p.m. November 30, at which visitors with limited time will be given a "laboratory" presentation of the over-all convention.

Among the mothers of small children who are active members of the NCCW in the South Oakland County area are: Mrs. Richard Thompson, 23114 Farmington Road; Mrs. Stanley Gibbs, 38328 Lyman Road; and Mrs. Charles Audette, 25309 Ridgewood Drive.

Blue Star Mothers Celebrate 20th Anniversary With a Party

The Blue Star Mothers of the Farmington had a real "bang up" birthday party. The beautiful birthday cake, compliments of Lettie McIntyre, graced the center of the table and everyone had a bright and happy look.

President of Chapter 49, May Fox, gave the welcoming speech to the guests who came from Chapter 4, Pontiac; Chapter 47, Novi; and Chapter 39, Keegoon Harbor.

SPECIAL HONOR guest, the Reverend Elsie Johns of the Clarenceville Methodist Church, gave the dedication.

Sarah Hopkins was also introduced to our guests. Sarah is a member of the Blue Star Mothers of Chapter 49 but more importantly, at the moment she is also president of the VFW Auxiliary and a member of VFW Chapter 49.

In her welcoming speech, May Fox told the ladies she was very happy to have them share in the happiness of the twentieth birthday party and hoped they would come again next year.

MOTHER ETHEL LINT brought back several Abalone shells from her trip to California and several of the ladies received one as a souvenir.

Blue Star Chapter 49 hopes to go on having many happy birthdays by continuing the work they are doing now.

Phys. Ed. Nite Opens At Kenbrook PTA

The Kenbrook P.T.A. is sponsored by our guests. Sarah is a member of the Blue Star Mothers of Chapter 49 but more importantly, at the moment she is also president of the VFW Auxiliary and a member of VFW Chapter 49.
