After seven weeks of bowling Team 2 is the top team in the Men's Bowling League. The team consists of Ross, 30, low, Russ Reimer, Stan Steiner, Carl Wilson, Dick Andridge and Tom Furlong. Last Friday two new individual high scores were established when Jim Moore bowled 246 and Casey Arkestyn rolled 241.

In the Morning Women's League there are four teams tied for first place. The next two teams are one point behind and the last two are only three points behind. It's really a close race. Top scores are held by Helen Kirland and her 195 and Killy, Jones with 186.

THE EVENING Women's Group is led by the Pin Pacers—Annabelle Miller, Glorice Moore, Peg Balow and Peg Marilla. Phyllis Annan bettered her own individual score by bowling 171.

St. Fabian's Third Annual Parish Dance will be held November 3 at the American Legion Hall on Greenfield. Why not get out on dancing shoes and join in the fun? For information and tickets, call GR. 4-7873, GR. 4-3921 or MA. 6-2280.

On Friday, October 19, at Corpus Christi, Texas, Phillip Andridge received his commission as an ensign in the Naval Air Corps. His father, Dick and his fiancée, Miss Mary Rathbun from Lansing, were in town to witness the ceremony. And speaking of ceremonies, Ensign Andridge and Miss Rathbun are to be wed on October 27 in Lansing. So there are still some wedding days for the Andridge family of Old Bedford.

It was 3 a.m. Sunday morning with the MacLellan family fast asleep when suddenly their dog started barking and really yelling. Grace rushed downstairs to discover her son, Elgin Larry MacLellan standing in the vestibule, bag in hand. It was Grace's turn to yell and by then the whole family was down. Larry planned to get leave to be able to attend Phil Andridge's wedding but had not told his family. He is to report back to the service.

Dr. and Mrs. Gerald V. Kingsley of 12083 Ward, Detroit, announced the engagement of their daughter, Sue, to Mr. Donald C. Harms. Miss Kingsley is a junior in education at the University of Michigan. Mr. Harms is a senior majoring in history, also at the University of Michigan. An August wedding is planned. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Harms, reside at 29732 Briarton, in Farmington. The couple plans to live in Detroit where will continue her education and he will enter Wayne State University Law School.

MRS. DAVID KRINGS GR. 6-0441

Mrs. David E. Krings GR-60441, little Marianna Helen Edwards was christened Sunday at Our Lady of Sorrows. William and Mary Jane Harrison of Roseville, Michigan, cousins of Mrs. Edwards, are her godparents. The Harrison enjoyed dinner with the family, after which an open house was held. Many friends, neighbors and relatives dropped by to welcome and congratulate the newcomer, all of which Marianna took in stride. Friday evening, eight school friends of Susanne Woodward gathered at her home for a pajama party to help her celebrate her 14th birthday.

TAKE ADVANTAGE of the holiday when the children were out of school recently the Wood Smith family of Dehany Drive, drove down to Youngstown, Ohio on Wednesday evening. They spent Thursday and Friday there visiting with friends. Thursday evening they drove over to Punksawney, Pennsylvania, to spend Friday and Saturday visiting their family. They returned again to Youngstown to see friends who had missed earlier and then returned back to Farmington Sunday evening. The Smiths purchased the car from their old car, moved here late in August from Youngstown.

Seen around for the Farmington homecoming were Shirley Williams from a private college, Lynne Chamberlain from Central, and Karen Manette from Michigan State. On Saturday evening the eight girls who made up one of the Punksawney, land County, had a get-together with their families at the Scout Building of St. Michael Church in St. Michael to show pictures and slides from their Girl Scout Round-up which was held last July in Vermont.

KAREN WAS a member of this patrol and attended the affair with her dad. On Sunday her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Detroit, drove her back to Lansing.

With all the work and changes being made around our school this summer and fall a Hardtime Party was definitely most appropriate and in order for the girls. So Saturday evening couples from Detroit, Dearborn and Southfield gathered in our recreation room, which had been transformed into Hoboville, USA, for an evening of fun. Included in the zany outfits were tails and derbies, overalls, long out-moded dresses and one gal came to her dress from her high school senior prom, dating back 30 years. Lucky gal to still be able to get into it! But no mulligan save for this crowd of hobos—they enjoyed the hot chili, salads and apple pudding; and spent the evening enjoying summer vacations and dancing.

Girl Scout News

Intermediate Troop 804, a newly organized group consisting of Fly-Ups from Brownie Troops 281 and 574 under the leadership of Mrs. Edward Wilson and Mrs. William Rose, had its first meeting of the season Oct. 4 at the home of Mrs. Wilson, 33724 Glenview.

The committee mothers of the troop are Mrs. Richard Pauline and Mrs. Elwood Gibson. The girls have already completed their first service project by making coloring book covers for the Ten Mile School P.T.A.

The weatherman smiled on them Oct. 18 so the girls gaily trekked out to the Franklin Cider Mill where they enjoyed the traditional cider and doughnuts.

Schedule Next Visit By Goodwill Trucks

Offer Special Courses at de Ancys Hats

The business growth of Farmington in recent years has been marked by not only the addition of new stores to the community but also by the expansion of existing establishments.

Such an expansion has now been made by de Ancys, Farmington's only exclusive millinery store. Formerly located in the old building on Greenfield, they have now moved to larger quarters at 2404 Orchard Lake road across from the Bel-Aire Shopping Center.

This is no ordinary hat shop since the two young ladies who created de Ancys, Dorothy Carpenter and Nancy Mitchell, actually design and make all the hats themselves. They also conduct millinery classes and sell millinery supplies, handbags and costume jewelry.

SEVERAL additional services are being announced by de Ancys this week. Beginning Thursday, Nov. 1, they will have the services of Mr. Irene MacKinnon, talented local woman, to teach a six-week course entitled "Christmas Craft Workshop." This will be either a day or evening class depending on demand with many original patterns for a variety of gifts being discussed and shown how to be made by Mrs. MacKinnon.

A six-week fur craft course is planned for the first three weeks in December and the last three weeks in January. Mrs. Peggy Wyatt, widely known in the field, will be the instructor. This course will afford women an opportunity to learn how to reconstruct and restyle fur coats, jackets, etc., as well as utilizing extra pieces of fur to make collars, cuffs, hats, stoles, etc. Coming up on Nov. 13 will be an old hat party during the evening. Women are being invited to bring their old hats to Mrs. Ancy's to get expert advice on how to clean, re-block and re-trim them. The program will run from 7:30 until 10:30 p.m.

For additional information about any of these classes call 476-0160, or if no answer try 474-4667 or 474-0767.

CD in Schools

In the event of tornadoes or similar disasters.

The large amount of glass present in modern school buildings makes the threat of possible injury to the young students during a severe storm much more apparent, according to Gain.

"It is necessary to see that these children have safe areas in the school in which to seek refuge from possible disaster," Gain said, "and these areas of safety must be accessible in the quickest possible time to insure against needless injury which can result if such plans are not carried out before hand."

AT THE WESTBROOK School, 21120 Campus Street, the principal, Grover Jones, has 190 students who after just three evacuation training drills, filed to their assigned places of safety in the school in just 42 seconds.

Both schools have areas within their respective buildings where flying debris in the event of a storm would be least likely to penetrate. It is to these areas that Building Inspector Gain has recommended that the students be directed when the warning buzzer is sounded. All of the drills have been given without prior notice to the schools.

To Buy Land at Eagle School

A go-ahead on the purchase of approximately two and one-third acres of additional land at the Eagle elementary school site was authorized by the Farmington Board of Education Monday night.

Negotiations for additional property at this site have been going on for some months now. Indications have been given that an addition at this school may be necessary in the near future although no definite decision has yet been made.

Trustee Herbert Neal who has been negotiating directly with the land owner stated that they wanted to locate a well on this land and that a purchase agreement would have to be contingent upon the Board's granting this. This was agreed to provided a well-house to meet Board specifications will be built.

NBD Annex Moved To New Location

The National Bank of Detroit's Farmington Annex, formerly located in the southeast corner of the Downtown Farmington Center, has now been relocated at the Kenn Loomis Building, 22380 Farmington Road. The move was made last weekend, according to NBD vice president Byron Lapham.

Charles A. Walsh who is in charge of operations at the new location, Lapham announced.

To Be Honored At Vets Dinner

The officers and members of the Farmington Groves-Walker Post 346 of the American Legion have extended an open invitation to the community to attend their Veterans' Day Dinner, Saturday, Nov. 10, at 7 p.m. in the American Legion Home, Grand River at Lakeway in Farmington.

This year's annual observance of Veterans' Day at the Farmington American Legion Post will be especially significant, according to Post Commander Gordon Harlan.

The Groves-Walker Post will present one of its long-standing members, James M. Nourjian of 3107 Thomas Street in Farmington, with a life membership in the Post for his many years of hard work and service.

For reservations to the dinner call Norm Goers, GR. 4-9036, before Wednesday, November 7.

Prayer Policy

pared was turned over to members of the Board and administration for consideration.

Their feeling was that this or a similar type of policy should be adopted as soon as possible and that copies should be made and distributed to every teacher and administrative official in the district as swiftly thereafter as possible.

Gluckstein was asked by one member of the Board to cite specific cases of prayers or services that were conducted in nature which were required in the classroom, which he did.

The Board took no action on the request but agreed to study the prepared statement in detail and make a study as well into the charges made by Gluckstein.

Okay Purchases

The purchase of basewood shades for light control in services of the schools in the Farmington District at a total cost of just under $1,100 was approved by the Board of Education Monday night. Also approved was $415 worth of miscellaneous purchases.

Okay Sidewalk, Drive Repairs

An expenditure of approximately $2,500 for blacktop repair work on walks and drives at several different school sites was approved by the Farmington Board of Education at its meeting Monday night.

The projects include re-surfacing of badly damaged concrete walks at the Gill road and Eagle schools and blacktopped drive areas at Farmington Senior High, Dunkle Junior High and Farmington Junior High. Some walk and drive widening is also scheduled at Farmington Junior High. At the William Gair School extension of an existing walk to the play area is slated.

Part of the contract was awarded to Farmington Paving Co. and the balance to the B. J. Pollard Co., lowest bidding offer for the work.

Bids on a number of other walk and drive repair jobs were taken but action on them tabled until a later date.
