Girl Scout News
Honors seem to be the rule as Middlebelt - Shawnee Neighbors begin another busy season of scouting. Marion Touraud, retiring Troop 224 leader, was awarded a Certificate of appreciation for her guidance with our Art Exhibit.

Mrs. Mary Robinson, reluctantly retiring leader of Troop No. 388 honored our recent meeting with some valuable information as to the program to have a flag ceremony. We will certainly miss Mary as she returns to Ohio. Good luck.

NEW BROWNIE leaders Margie Nash and Norma Morris and Nominating Committee Chairman Mickie Johnston were invested and planned Adult scouts by Neighborhood Chairman Virginia Erickson.

INTERMEDIATE TROOP No. 430 welcomes the following girls who have finished Troop 224 to become Girl Scouts: Carolyn Sheldon, Cindy Kleinhaus, Sally Matilla, Jeanne Naquin, Barbara Palmer, Sady McCon, Judy Johnston and Gail Mann. Mrs. Matz and Mrs. Buchanan are the new leaders.

INTERMEDIATE TROOP No. 224 have all returned along with their leader Diana Somers to continue their badge work.

BROWNIE TROOP No. 2059 has a new leader, Mrs. Helen Nash, who is also our Troop Consultant.

We regret that at present Troop No. 323 is in need of a leader.

We do have good news on the Brownie front with two new troops under the leadership of Mrs. Nash and Mrs. Jamison.

OUR FIRST BIG event of the year is the coming Calendar Sale — Nov. 12 through 24. Be sure to reserve one from your nearest Intermediate Scout. These calendars are ideal to keep appointments and other notations handy. Our goal for Brownie Oakland County is 44,100 calendars. In past years the girls have raised $33,000 for the purchasing and upkeep of camp facilities with the help of calendar sales. This is in addition to their share of the money which goes into their own troop.

So-o-o if by some chance a second or third little girl in green comes knocking at your door, perhaps you know someone who would have an opportunity to get a GS calendar — get an extra one for them.

Senior Girl Scout Troop, 258, will be hostess at an Inter-troop Evening, Tuesday, November 5, from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the gymnasium of Farmington Junior High.

Girl Scouts from Croquis Woods and Farmington Neighbors are invited to attend this affair in honor of Troop 258's 10th birthday. Oct. 31.

SLIDES OF MEXICO and the International Girl Scout Girl Guide Cabana near Cuernavaca, which Troop 258 visited in 1961, will be shown.

According to Mrs. Bridget Reagan, leader, and Mrs. Dorothy Leach, co-leader, refreshments and community singing with an international flavor will complete the evening.

Several Farmington Girl Scout troops participated in the United Nations parade and tree planting in the City Park on Saturday, October 27. Represented were: Senior Troop, 258; Tween Hi, 178; Intermediate, 410, 552, 804, and two Brownie troops.

Mrs. Frank Kirby and Mrs. Robert Schaefer led Intermediate girls of 410 to Moss Farm for a cook-out, following the parade. Fire-building, outdoor cooking, clean up detail, and group singing were among the skills developed by this activity.

CONSTRUCTION WORK on the new 11½ Mile Expressway has been slowed recently by inclement weather as heavy equipment has created ruts in the soggy ground along the route of the divided highway. Concrete paving work has been under way for several weeks now in spite of bad breaks in the weather and progress on the roadway is continuing normally. The scene above was taken from the Farmington Road overpass looking west.

School Lunch Head Attends Food Workshop

Elia Plichia, school lunch supervisor of the Farmington Public Schools, Farmington, and a member of the American School Food Service Organization, was a participant in the third annual Food Facilities Planning Workshop of the School of Hotel Administration at Cornell University recently.

The week-long conference, designed to acquaint participants with advances in the field to make possible an exchange of information on common problems, was attended by some 30 members of the National Restaurant Association and others engaged in food facilities planning.

Among the topics discussed were food facilities planning, standards of warehousing and warehousing equipment, convenience foods, financial management aspects of planning, and problems of the architect in the design of food facilities. Each participant received a certificate of completion from the School of Hotel Administration at the final banquet.
