At Home in Old Homestead

By FRANK MYTIK

The Halloween goblins must have gotten into the Enterprise office last week and mixed up the type. Credit for last week's column was given to Frank Mytik, who is a stranger to me. This is due to the fact that you who may be in doubt know that you still call me if you have news for the Old Homestead column.

The subdivision's Halloween bonfire last Wednesday night was a big success. Approximately 150 cups of hot chocolate were served to the bidders who took the time to stop at the Orvis garage that chilly night. Donuts were consumed by the hungry and many a weary parent had a cup of coffee and some conversation with friends and neighbors. Elizabeth Orvis was aided by Jane Orvis, No. 4, Farmington, and Jackie Davis in the serving.

A WEEK AGO Saturday 18 youngsters were invited to lunch at the Wadsworth home to celebrate the birth of Jerry Orvis, son of Jerry Orvis. Many of the kids took this opportunity to get an extra day's wear out of their Halloween costumes and the immediately following party was one to celebrate Patty Lou Morgan's sixth birthday. Laurie and Susie Ziegler, Marie and Joanne Davis, and Debbie Clarke helped Patty Lou blow out the candles on her cake. Since Patty Lou's birthday falls on a Friday, when her guests were their costumes to her party too.

By now you have all noticed that the street lights have been changed to the new design. Grand River and Drake and Twelve Mile Rds. This is a most welcome sign on a dark night. Our officers deserve credit on the back for accomplishing this. Incidentally the association is billed for the cost of the electricity for these lights. This is one more place that your maintenance dollars serve you.

This past weekend was one in which enough birthday cakes were baked to keep the frost with the heat. Thursday was Suzanne Bouffard's seventh birthday, and also Kay Greengrass's birthday. Kay walked out Friday to have several friends share a birthday supper. This gave the little girls a day to recover from Halloween.

THIS WEEKEND also found birthday cakes for Julie Garvado with two candles on Friday, Susan Ribbe with 15 candles, and the birthday of David with seven. This was the Davis' week for TV. A week ago Sunday Kenny's name was announced as a winner of a generous supply of baked goods from a contest on the Popeye show. Saturday morning B'wana Don wished Joy a Happy Birthday.

Sunday found the Friedmans celebrating four birthdays. Peggy reached the delightful age of 19 on Saturday. Tim, became 18 at that same day. The young Chuck and Bill became 18 on Tuesday, but celebrated on Sunday with the family because Bill was home from college for the weekend. Bill attends Northwood in Midland, Chuck is at U. of D., and Peggy at Mercy College. Because this was such a family week, the Friedmans had a party with their friends a week early. This also gave the kids a chance to get an extra wearing out of their costumes.

Last but, not least birthday congratulations go to Dennis Howes who became 12 on Sunday.

On our injured list is Sue Shobe who is wearing a cast on her left arm. She suffered a break about two weeks ago in a fall.

The Longacre P.T.A. is busy this week. There is to be a general meeting tonight at eight. The speaker is with the U.N. which is a most interesting place always. The party will be on these days. Longacre is holding its annual Family Fun Fair on Saturday. If you have not already volunteered your services at one of the many booths you may do so at the meeting tonight. As one of the chairman I know that help will be welcomed. If you were willing to spend a hour selling tickets contact me, I need help.

SATURDAY NIGHT the Agapies will meet at the home of Don and Betty Rose, 923 Quaker Lane. Those of you who plan to take part should call either Mary Tholl, GR. 4-474, or Shirley Simpson, GR. 4-432.

These gals should know how many hungry dancers to plan to feed. Also please take your own plate, cup, silver, and folding chairs.

New dancers in the area may want to arrive at the Howes home at 8 p.m. The caller will be there at that time to give extra dance instruction to those who feel unfamiliar with the various steps and calls. This has been planned to make the squares more fun for everyone later in the evening.

A BIRD IN THE HAND is the name of Danny Ressler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Ressler of 2281 Brookline in Farmington, is worth a dozen in the bush as he is shown above exhibiting his fine two-day catch of six phalaropes, which he hunted recently in Oregon where he is a student at Oregon State. Oregon hunters are allowed to bag three birds per day and have 12 in possession.

Now on Display in Lathrup Village

COME see money that "talks" ... in foreign tongues, of ancient temples, to people who can "hear" the mysterious messages of rare old coins.

From Thursday, November 8, through Tuesday, November 20, three displays from our Main Office Money Museum will be shown right here in our Southfield-Eleven Mile Road office at 18100 W. Eleven Mile. Come in and see coins used in the markets of the Holy Land when Christ was on earth. You'll see, too, ancient coins of the mysterious East, unearthed after a sleep of centuries among the ruins of forgotten temples and lost cities. Or you can let your imagination roam the modern world through the collection of foreign coins and paper money. Come in any time during banking hours, 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday or until 7:30 p.m. on Friday.
