JUDY BURNS GR. 4-3121

On the sick list recently was Gary Fletcher, son of Evelyn and George Fletcher of Greyborne. He was hospitalized in St. Mary's with an undiagnosed recurrent stomach-ache. Gary, 9, spent better than a week in the hospital, and particularly enjoyed cards made and sent to him by his thoughtful classmates in the 4th grade at Beechview.

Gary's grandmother, Mrs. Gertrude Hick of London, Canada, is visiting the Fletchers, and has been an indispensable help in caring for Denise, 4, and Cheryl, 6, so that George and Evelyn can visit Gary in the hospital as much as possible. Mrs. Hick will remain with the Fletchers for an indefinite period.

A big thrill recently for Den 3 of Pack 175, Beechview scouts, was when they went to see and be seen on the popular Johnny Gingers show, WXYZ TV. Den 3 members who attended were Dana Byers, Ken Carver, Steve Delaney, Scott Smith, Ken Grubowski, Eric Schooley, Mark DeYoung and his four year old sister, Susan, and the Den's guest, Ted Froelich, who will soon be a cub scout. The den mother is Maxine DeYoung, whose efforts were responsible for the trip.

Den 3 was invited to accompany Den 3, so that the audience also included Eric Walter, John Tournaud, Scott Chalmers, Mark Anderson, Alex Gordon, Richard Zahler, and their guest, Bob Hansen, who will also be a cub scout soon.

Den 3 mothers are Marion Walcott and Marion Tournaud, assistant.

MARABELLE CHALMERS went along to help as a driver, accompanied by son, Glenn, 14, who had an unforgettable experience when they and their dad, Lin, were invited to accompany neighbor, Don Erickson, on the last cruise of the year aboard the "Molly D" before putting the cruiser in dry dock for the winter.

The fun was only beginning. For the return trip was made aboard the Erickson's plane, and before landing at Metropolitan Airport they circled Kimberly. The boys commented on how beautiful the city looked from the air, and on how large an area it encompasses.

THAT BUSY BUT ENDURABLE welcome mat is aired this week for several new neighbors: Pat and Bob Polson and their family have moved into their Fiddlers Green Barrington model, enriching Kimberly's young population with Nancy, 9, Paul, 6, and Mark, 4. Bob, an officer in the mortgage appraisal department of the National Bank of Detroit, is also a licensed attorney. He holds a senior membership in the SRA (Society of Residential Appraisers). The Polsons, by the way, are native Detroiters.

Welcome, too, to Louise and Sanford Bloomberg, new residents on Pipers Lane between Valleys and Duxbury. The Bloombergs and their three boys, Paul, 6, Jonathan, 4, and David, 3, are formerly of Northville. Sanford is a psychiatrist and maintains an office in Detroit.

Last but not least, the hand of welcome is extended to Marie and Don Baldwin in the Brunswick model on Barwell. Native Detroiters, the Baldwin family includes Claudia, 16, a North Farmington student; and Mike, 13, enrolled in Den 3. Don is a process engineer for General Motors at the Detroit Transmission plant.
