Where were the people of Forest Park Friday night? The Harvest Moon dance, put on by the Forest Park Homeowners Association at the K of C Hall, was planned and advertised weeks ahead to everyone should have known about the event, yet only 38 couples showed up. When a dance is big as this one is scheduled, and there is a poor showing, the Association loses money.

LET'S SEE WHAT MONEY

Forest Park missed. First, the tables were arranged so everyone sat together, that is, you could talk to couples in front of you, beside you, or behind you. This made it possible to be one big friendly group; therefore many couples who were not acquainted got a chance to know their neighbors. Also, the Dantus Moore band arranged some variety dances that mixed up couples, such as the Bunny Hop and other round dances. In fact, the dancers were having such a "ball" that they requested the orchestra to play an extra hour.

Four door prizes, Thanksgiving turkeys, were raffied off. Bill Strey, Angelo Berardi, Art Snure, and Richard Pretzell won them.

Once again, Social Chairman, Dennis O'Neill and his committee did a fine job — Forest Park residents you missed a good time.

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Weidman, the birth of their 5½ oz. baby boy, David Ross, born October 30.

Last week Lois Pohlenz had the steel pins removed from the toes of her right foot. She had had orthopedic surgery performed on the foot last August and was allowed only very limited use of it while it healed; however, the doctor assured her now that she will have complete use of the foot by spring.

Many boys from Forest Park attended the Little League football banquet at K of C Hall last Sunday. They had a delicious meal with mothers bringing casseroles and the Little League furnishing the ham.

THE FOREST PARK "Little Leaguers" came from the Buckley, Nolan, Sprigs, Holap, Allen, Sleumann, Riddell, and Wolfman families.

All of these boys received football emblems to wear on their jackets. Ronald Buckley and Dan Wolfman each received a statuette trophy as a memento to their time spent playing for Little League. They will now go on to high school football.

There were also several drawings and Terry Sprigs won a football and Jim Atkinson a Detroit Lion's Pennant.

News from Kimberly

The little kids went a-treatin' and the big ones a-trickin', and so were the traditions of Halloween fulfilled in the subdivision. Thoughts have now turned to Thanksgiving, and the annual problems of how to fit all those relatives around the dinner table and where to get a turkey are being solved. The two acquire a roasting pan large enough for a turkey destined to last for weeks are up to the moment if you will, and protect yourself beyond the hash and into the Christmas season.

Slated for Saturday night, December 8, the dance will be held from 9:30 to 1:00 a.m. at Meadowsbrook Country Club.

With music for your dancing pleasure supplied by Don Dierks and his orchestra, tickets will be $4.00 per couple, and will be sold door-to-door throughout the subdivision in the near future. Invitations to the dance will be distributed in the Kimberly mailboxes soon (if not already), and will include the phone number of your ticket salesman in case you are not home when she calls for you. C'mon — let's all turn out and make this an extra special party.

A SPECIAL "BOO" to Halloweeners. Davey, Togo, and Tango, 5 on the same date, birthday busts too for Davey Wilmer on October 29, and to the Savatras double-birthday, Lynn, 12 on November 4, and Greg, 10 on November 5.

A bit of Halloween revelry was hosted by Tivy and Ken Hall, Beverly, aged 3 and 2, on the afternoon of October 27. Some 32 neighborhood friends attended the party, held in the Bosworth basement decorated with all manner of Halloween scares. The children, who ranged in age from 2 to 10, were attired in costume — a wonderful array of goblins and ghosts of every conceivable size and shape.

AMONG SEVERAL subdivision parties hosted in honor of the holiday was one given by Hugh and Doris McChesney on Saturday evening, November 3. Invited for 8:30 were Jo and Bud Olson, Judy and Tim Burns, John and Lil Clark, Phyllis and Ralph Kimbrough, and Dick and Jan Melville. All were disguised in various costumes, including a gruesome lady with head in hand accompanied by her hooded executioner, two very large, buxom women (1), and a trial to lend sobriety to the occasion.

An evening of games and dancing was enjoyed in the McChesney's newly refurnished basement, followed by a midnight supper pot-luck by the couples present. The McChesney's new basement entertainment area is a delight, by the way — very cleverly designed, and all done by Hugh.

Another Halloween party hereabouts was hosted by the Chuck and Pat Alber on Saturday night, October 27. Arriving in disguise at the Alber home on Westmeath were the Edgars, Sokols, the Don Buchanans, the St. Savatras, the Fred Macghees, the Fred Sorvins, and the Ray Petersons.

The evening began with a scavenger hunt, with clues that led the couples to several business establishments throughout the township. Prizes were awarded the winning team, and the remainder of the evening was spent at the Alber home. A midnight supper was served by Pat to conclude the party.

AN UNUSUAL PARTY was hosted in Kimberly on October 26, outstanding because it was planned, executed and managed by Louise Tournaud, 12, and Linda Barringer, 10. The enterprising young ladies gave three weeks in advance, and raised funds for the party by making and selling doll jewelry. Hand-made invitations house was cleaned and decorated.

By the way — John Tournaud is home this week after a month's absence from Kimberly. Departing on October 13, John spent a total of 3 weeks in Niagara Falls training for his new job. Formerly with Babcock and Wilcox Refractories, John is now with Carburendum and will handle sales for the Detroit area.

See you at the PTA meeting, Monday night, November 19, at 8 p.m.

If we gave a prize to the Family with the biggest snow scoop of the week, there would be no doubt in anyone's mind that it would go to Tom and Ruth. The Simmons family, who could have been more surprised than Tom when they said he had twins? Unless, of course he was Ruth!

Yes, identical twin boys entered the Simmons family on Tuesday, Nov. 6. The "oldest" is Todd Albert and the "youngest" is Gary Thomas. And don't think Tim and Rick aren't getting mighty anxious to get a peek at their new baby brothers. At any rate, since we can't give a prize, we can surely give a big note of congratulations to the entire Simmons clan. (Footnote: My husband says Nov. 6 must be a good year for twins — he is a twin, too, and that is his birthday!)

AND IF YOU really think you've been busy lately, I'll bet Kay Ockerman has you beaten. Ken and Kay attended a Middle West Dealers Convention from October 28 through 31 with another couple, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bar-santi, of Detroit. They spent four exciting days at the Concord Hotel in the Catskill Mountains in New York. Kay said they were really treated royally — Fashion shows and luncheons for the wives, and in the evenings they saw several night club acts — including Buddy Hackett and Martin and Rossi.

They no sooner had returned from New York when Kay entertained 45 people on Saturday, Nov. 3, with a surprise dinner in honor of the Agnes, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bonnez.

It was their 25th Wedding Anniversary and the ham and roast beef dinner was topped off with a beautiful wedding cake. The centerpiece for the table was a money tree trimmed with fans made of paper in disguise at the Alber home on Westmeath were the Edgars, Sokols, the Don Buchanans, the St. Savatras, the Fred Macghees, the Fred Sorvins, and the Ray Petersons.

The guests, bearing lovely gifts for the mother-to-be, included Marge Kowalski, Jenny Belcher, Greta Terman, Peggy Fleming, John Tucker, Pat Ma-ther, Marlene Brodie, Arlene Chetlebrough, Sandy Nelson, Mary Atkinson, Gary Kuhn-ken, Margaret Yoder, was Ag-nes' mother, Mrs. Slausnessy. A lovely luncheon was served and winners of games included Agnes, her mother, and Mary Kuhnken. Sandy Nelson was the lucky door prize winner.
