Pitcock and Clappison Named Falcon Co-Captains for '62

The Farmington Senior High League Champions, Walled School football team last week, Lako, who received their only guard Bob Clappison as the Farmington.

Both Pitcock and Clappison are seniors who played on defensive as well as offensive platoons for the Falcons during the nine-game schedule which resulted in a 4-1 record over the season.

DALE PITCOCK

PITCOCK was the favorite target for Falcon passers and notched two touchdowns in helping the team to a respectable 12-2 record in the sixteam Inter-Lakes Conference.

One of the impressive Falcon victories was scored against

Lancer's Barth Named To All-Catholic Team

Jeff Barth, who set a new scoring record for Our Lady of Sorrows this year in addition to players from Catholic teams and the east side, west side, south west, northwest and Macomb Catholic Leagues.

Barth scored 12 touchdowns and 11 extra points to lead the Lancer Eleven and set a new single season scoring mark of 82 points.

JEFF BARTH

Barth, a 176-pound six-footer, racked up 888 yards, hitting the air for the Lancers, hitting on 37 of his 61 passing attempts. His rushing total of 1267 yards in 174 carries combined with the passing yardage he gained set a new Our Lady of Sorrows grid mark for total yards gained of 2,153. Barth's average gain rushing over the season was 7.39 yards per carry.

His coach Bud Farmer credits him with being the finest football player ever to come under his tutelage.

Letters With Albion Eleven

John Mullin of Farmington was among 40 Albion football players awarded block "A" letters for regular duty on this year's Briton grid squad.

Mullin played guard for coach Jack Hayes on the Farmington Senior High School football team. He graduated from FHS in June of this year and has launched a promising athletic career as a freshman at Albion.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Mullin, 2544 Westmoreland Drive.

Gill PTA Plans Safety Program

The Gill School P.T.A. will meet Wednesday evening, November 28, at 8 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Gill School.

In keeping with the year's theme, "Health and Safety," the program will be on traffic safety.

THE GUEST speaker will be a Farmington Township Police officer who will be speaking of safety specifically related to our own local area.

It is the aim of this year of the membership committee under the leadership of Mrs. Butler to top all previous membership records and they will be on hand during the evening to sign up anyone wishing to join the P.T.A.

Mrs. Longtine with assistance from the "first grade" mothers will be preparing and serving the refreshments for the evening.

Farmington Cub Scouts Enjoy Active Program

Keith Hardy, Gold Arrow to the Ken into Cub Scout Pack 45 during the November Pack meeting. ALL THE DENNS are becoming extremely active with Field Trips having been taken or planned to visit every nook and corner of Detroit and Oakland County.

Under the leadership of Mrs. D. P. Johnson, celebrated United Nation's Day with a visit to a Chinese restaurant for lunch and a tour of the highlight of the trip was a demonstration in the use of chopsticks by a very congenial Chinese gentleman.

Three new Cubs were welcomed into Den 1, James Brogden, Kevin Rylance, and Roy Le Blanc, who are all awaiting letters to their pen pal letters.

Although the boys are busy with Christmas plans, they will take time November 21 to visit Richard's Millwork Shop to watch louvered doors, cornice boards, and other intricate work being done.

On Thursday, October 23, the boys of Den 9 appeared on the Johnny Ginger Action Theater. Escorting the Cub Scouts were Chief Richard Misiak, and Mrs. Yoder. The Cubs attending were: Scott Bragton, Robert O'Brien, Bernice Johnson, Danny Grant, Russell Griffin, Kenny Oekerman, Michael Randall, Kevin West, and Joel Yoder.

MRS. PAUL HARTMAN, Den Mother of Den 8, has certainly had her Cub on the go. Mrs. Manewski helped her take the Cub to appear on the Johnny Ginger Action Theater October 10, where the Cubs also received autographed pictures of Johnny Ginger and Ricky the Clown.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fleming took the Den to Boy Scout Camp Agawam, on Lake Orion, for a hike and lunch on the Johnny Ginger Action Theater October 10, where the Cubs also received autographed pictures of Johnny Ginger and Ricky the Clown.

Den 6, with Mrs. Craig Sharpe as Den Mother, and an assist from Mrs. Robert Larson and Mrs. Miles Tiersan, have taken the Cub on several field trips. The Cub had a visit to the Johnny Ginger Park for a hike and lunch in September. In October the Den went to Kensington Park for a hike and lunch. The Cub had lunch, Cider and doughnuts were on the menu when they visited the Franklin Cider Mill, November 11. The Cub in Den 6, Steve Sharpe, John Naughton, Miles Tiersan, Steve Larson, Tim McLean, Tim Martin, Kevin Gostick, and Michael Jenkins, are looking forward to a trip to the Lincoln Mercury plant in Wixom next month.

THE CUB SCOUTS OF DEN No. 11, Pack 45, were treated to a trip through a "haunted house" and then on to the Cider Mill by their den mothers, Polly Lawshie and Lee Justice. Douglas Lawshie and Randy Black have been chosen Den Chiefs for Pack 45.

Girl Scout Troop No. 639 has been busy as always. Under the direction of leaders Doris Burd and Barbara Blatz they are taking riding lessons, sewing lessons, and their "Seamstress" class, and hope to take swimming lessons this winter. They have recently completed a successful sale of Girl Scout Calendars.

BARBARA DOZER was the November hostess for her pinocchle group. Enjoying good cards were Lee Majestic, Grace Carlin, Donna Blatz, Pat Gibb, Elaine Flynn, Kay Hanson, and Senora Poirier. First prize winner was LaDonna Carlin. Refreshments were Grace Carlin, and Boozy prize Pat Gibb.

John McCorrie spent a carefree week, deer hunting with his buddies, while Joanne and son, Bobby, visited the home of Mrs. Bob Hammer. Bob and his wife, Joanne, and husband were among the hunters. Watch for announcement of venison dinner, folks.

Our hunters have returned home, all safe and sound. Bill Sickness and Scott Brown had a few near misses at their deer but real luck.

Bob Sicks who had a license for doe, brought his home early last week and the Shaw family will be eating venison for some time to come.

NANCY AND RUSS Grant are conducting Nancy's mother, Mrs. Barbara C. Thayer from Morningdale, Massachusetts for a week. Mrs. Thayer arrived last Saturday and will stay till Sunday.
