News from Kimberly

JUDY BURNS GR. 4-3112

A brief column this week, sandwiched in between the many holiday preparations. Hope your Thanksgiving is a happy, blessed one.

Welcome is extended this week to several new neighbors in Kimberly. Pearl and Al Cowger and their two boys, Eddie, 8, and Duane, 5, have moved into the Harvard model on Middlebelt. The Cowgers are formerly of Utica, New York. Although Pennsylvania is a "home," Al is a defense contract administrator for Burlington.

ANOTHER EXTRA special new family who have chosen Kimberly are Neil and Gerry Garrett in the remodeled Brunswick on Kiltarian. The Garretts, infatigable number three in March, have two little ones - Michael, 21 months, and Karen, 10 months. Neil, a urologist at Grace Hospital, and Gerry are native Detroiters who moved to Kimberly from Huntington Woods.

Last but not least, welcome to Lorraine and Chuck Wilson in the Atlantic model on Wick low near Barwell. The Wilson family, native Detroiters, includes John, 6, Anna Marie, 4, and Linette, 2. Chuck is a buyer for the J. L. Hudson Company here. By the way - Lorraine and Shirley Pfaffmann of Pipers Lane are cousins, so the two families are cousins, too.

WINNERS IN THE POSTER contest conducted in connection with the Our Lady of Sorrows Christmas Fair for 1962 were awarded their prizes last week at the OLS High School. Shown above holding the winning poster from the high school entrants is a first place contestant Agatha Koscielnik, a senior, to her right are the other high school winners, Mary Abbey, second place, and Charlene Mendenhall, third place, both juniors. The elementary school winners were Susan Scattell (pic- tured holding her first place poster) and on her right is the second place winner, Bill Selinsky; both are eighth grade students. Christopher Schikora (third from left) and Margaret Barrett (second from right) earned honorable mention in the Christmas Fair poster contest.

Westbrook Manor News

JOYE McCORT GR. 4-2334

"Dancing in all its forms cannot be excluded from the curriculum of all noble education," dancing with the fun, with ideas that words, mind, and need to add that most also be able to dance with the feet?"

And so it was on Saturday night, November 17, that residents of Westbrook Manor and their guests danced to the music of the Jerry Fenby Five Combo. A crowded dance floor indicated the music as stimulating from the polkas, tangos, mamboes, swing, cha cha and the twist. Cocktails, conversation and hors d'oeuvres at pre-dance parties around the sub-division were held.

NANCY AND JACK Passfield on Arnel met guests, Jane and Bob Orman, Nancy and Hal MacDavid, Dingley and Larry Sharp, Betty and Jack Norrish, Peg and Harley Macintosh, Jerry and John Eckhart, Nancy and Dick Armstrong, Ingrid and Fred Lavens, Marge and Bill Keegan, Mary and John Har- rison around 7 p.m. in their home.

On Nottingwood at the Irene and Tom Schott residence couples joining together were Mr. and Mrs. John Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ralph and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCarthy.

On Lorikay at the residence of Barbara and Dale Bowman were Mary Jane and Bob Ke- lman, Jean and Floyd Joyce, Kay and Glen Huber, Edna and Andy Suvac and Joy and Ralph McCort.

Although the daylight hours were somewhat gray, in the evening the sun did become clear and crisp. By 9:30 every- one had arrived and the gaiety and carefree atmosphere of the party took over. The dinner started with tomato soup, and then came tossed salad, relishes and the main course of tender Swiss steak and gravy, art grain potatoes, vegetable, coffee and strawberry cheese cake.

Groups leaving their tables wandered into the different sit- ting rooms for after dinner drinks, more fun and conver- sation. The redecorating of Orchard Lake Country Club is quite lovely with colors in the dining room of blues and greens. Although the lights across the back outdoors were not lit, a faint light brought back the memory of the rolling terrace down to the lake.

It was through the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. McMillan that we acquired our sponsor, Mr. Robert Wyatt, to be able to enjoy once again the serene environ- ment of the Orchard Lake Country Club. Organizers, ticket chairmen and your hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis O'Hara.

ALMOST BECOMING a tradi- tion following the dance is the breakfast served at Dingley and Larry Sharp's residence on E. Marklawn. Partaking of scrambled eggs, bacon, toast and coffee were the MacDavids, Norrishs, Macintoshes, Arm- strongs, Harvards and Keegans.

Now back to the bowling ol- ley! The Thursday Tenpins of Westbrook are calling real com- petition, this bowling Team 9 leads with 25 and 15. But Team 10 comes in second with 24 and 14. Bud Bolin rolled high with 225. Ray Kolk 200, Bob Walker 201. June Kilmer was close with 197. With the 500's were Ray Kolk 815, Jack Rich- ard 804, June Kilmer 802. Get- ting those splits were Del Hare 6-4-10, Joe Gunderbick 7-9, Ted Skonos 2-10 and Jerry Konke 5-7. The jackpots four were Cathy Kraft, Ray Kolk, Lynn Slueter and Bob Kraft.

Chuck Bort, Al and Phyllis' 22-year old son, is still in Beau- mont Hospital recovering from his automobile accident of No- vember 11. His left leg was fractured in two places and his jaw is wired together also as the result of a fracture.

Jo and Rick Bouffard re- turned home a week ago last Sunday from a ten day trip to Florida. They attended the 20th anniversary reunion of Rick's class at Putnam High School in Palatka, Florida. There was a banquet and the Homecoming Football game in addition to a number of parties and get-togethers with Rick's friends and classmates. It was a little cool for swim- ming at Daytona Beach but the Bouffards did enjoy the fact that it was warmer there than here. On the return trip they visited Rick's sister and her family who live in Huntsville, Alabama, and his brother and his family in Dayton, Ohio.

OLD HOMESTEAD takes this opportunity to welcome Lo- is and William Carey to the subdivision. They moved into their new home at 32553 Quakerown Lane just before Hal- lowe'en. The Careys formerly made their home in Taylor, Michigan. At present they are enjoying a one year leave of ab- sence from her position as a teacher in the Dearborn school system.

On Sunday the Marshens celebrated the birthdays of Col- len and Jamie at a joint fam- ily party. Jamie was two last Wednesday, while Colleen be- came three years old today.

Monday, November 19, Tom Huber, seventh grade student at Dunckel, underwent an ap- pendectomy. It is our sincere hope that he is home by Thurs- day, and enjoying a quick recovery.

RHODA ELLIOTT of 32503 Sprucewood is home from the hospital. She is on the road to recovery and we certainly wish her the best of luck here on in.

As the Jerry Fenby Five Combo concluded their music for the evening, at the Fall Dance, an applause not often heard for the band, was given to them. He thanked us, and said, "It takes 2 muscles to smile and so many more to frown, so why strain yourself, goodnight".
