

Margaret Young Named Local Woman of the Year

Margaret Young of 3374 Leasure Lane was honored as Farmington's Woman of the Year by the Farmington Business and Professional Women's Club having served as its Recording Secretary for two years and the club's Business Editor for two years. Mrs. Young is a member of the First Methodist Church of Farmington and the Wesleyan Women's Club. She also worked with the M. Y. F. group for a year.

Her selection was based on her high character, energy, modesty and dignity in undertaking any task set before her.

Mrs. Young was presented with the corsage and gift from the club.

The committee in charge of the Woman of the Year program consisted of Jessie H. Bernheim, Grace Redner and Edith Powers.

Rev. Wm. D. Mercer Slated as Speaker

On December 10, Mrs. Guy G. Drayton of 1263 Hamilton Drive, will have "Yule Haul Tea" for the orthodox-Detroit Branch of Woman's national Farm and Garden Association, Inc. from 2 until 4 p.m.

Mrs. C. S. McDermott, International Chairman, will present the Rev. William D. Mercer as speaker and guest of honor.

There will be a cookie exchange, each member will bring three dozen and take home two dozen, which should delight the palate of those gourmets present. Hostesses will be Mrs. E. C. Weyher and Mrs. E. B. Turnpseed.

Nuptial Vows Spoken In Connecticut Church

Miss Michaela Ann Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael C. Hayes of Fairfield, Conn., became the bride of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Burt of 2912 Colwell Street in Farmington, in a double ring ceremony held at the Our Lady of the Sacred Heart Church in Fairfield, Conn. Saturday, November 17.

The Right Reverend John T. Mahon, of St. Francis de Chantel Church of New York, N. Y., officiated at the 12 noon ceremony.

MRS. HAYES CHOSE an ivory pea de sole bridal gown adorned with Alceon lace applique and embroidered in crystals and seed pearls. The fitted bodice was styled with a scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The waistline was defined with a white satin sash and a bow at the back extending in streamers over the full, square shaped train which was framed in satin and carried with the applique of matching ivory.

The bride's chantilly lace mantilla emphasized the elegance of her beautiful gown, her bouquet was of ivory roses and baby's breath cascade.

Miss Hayes has been employed with the IBM Company of Washington, D.C. She is a 1959 graduate of Good Counsel College in White Plains, N. Y.

The mother of the bride wore a berry red chiffon sheath dress with a bow at the waist and short sleeves. Her ensemble was completed with matching accessories and a cybindium neck corsage.

THE BRIDEGROOM is a 1958 graduate of Wayne State University and has been employed with the Ford Motor Company.

Mrs. Burt chose a forest green lace and satin sheath dress complimented by beige accessories and a cybindium neck corsage.

Sister of the bride, Mrs. William Murty of Arnold Lane in Orange, Conn., was the matron of honor. She wore a moss green gown with a scoop neckline, short sleeves and a semi-sheath skirt. A nosegay of bronze, gold and yellow pom-poms and a corsage of white carnations and baby's breath were worn.

Acting as bridesmaids were Mrs. Burt chose a forest green lace and satin sheath dress complimented by beige accessories and a cybindium neck corsage.

Franklin Knolls Women Get Christmas Spirit

Women who attended the November 11 meeting of the Franklin Knolls Women's Club in the Home Accessories Workshop at the Birmingham Community House, presents Mrs. Hague, a very talented woman, will show "how to" for all Christmas decorations from packages to pine trees.

If you have not acquired the Christmas spirit by then, meet with me at Alameda Gibbs at our new headquarters, the social hall in St. Coleman Church, on Middlebelt, between Northwestern and 14 Mile Road, at noon, December 6.

Gloria Jean Mulholland Weds Arthur Schuetzler

Miss Gloria Jean Mulholland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Mulholland of 28186 Alyce-ay Street in Farmington, became the bride of Mr. Arthur C. Schuetzler, son of Mrs. Clara Schuetzler of 33717 Glenview Drive in Farmington, and the late Mr. Arthur A. Schuetzler. The double ring ceremony took place on Saturday, October 20, in the Grace Lutheran Church of Redford.

The pastor of the church, Rev. Victor Halboth, Jr., officiated at the 6 p.m. marriage ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by Arthur C. Schuetzler, brother of the bridegroom.

THE BRIDE WORE an ivory white gown with a chantilly lace bodice, scoop neckline and long sleeves. Her headpiece was a crown of seed pearls and crystals securing a boufant elbow length veil.

Her bouquet was composed of white carnations and ivy with a single white orchid corsage centered in a splanonitis with white ribbon streamers.

Miss Sharon Koch of Farmington was the maid of honor.

Thomas Whelan served as best man. Users were Gordon Rohoff, Jack Allen and David Vaughn.

A reception was held in the VFW Hall on Orchard Lake Road in Farmington immediately following the church ceremony. Two hundred guests attended.

A honeymoon trip was taken by the newlyweds in northern Michigan. The bride selected a blue silk Hawaiian flower print sheath dress for traveling.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Farmington High School. She is employed as a secretary for the Gala Realty Company and he is the owner and manager of the Farmington Landscape Service.

Local U-M Coed Has Opera Lead

The Gilbert and Sullivan Society of the University of Michigan presented the operetta, "Princess Ida" at Rackham Auditorium Friday night, November 16, with local girls Nancy Hall as the leading lady.

Nancy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lytle Hall of 23056 Warner, is a sophomore majoring in Voice in Music School at the University of Michigan.

SHE WAS ON THE crew and in the chorus of "H.M.S. Pinafore", played the role of Ella in "Patience" and has sung in the all-state chorus at the National Music Camp.

"Princess Ida" opened Wednesday, November 7, in Ann Arbor before an excellent audience and continued through the week without Nancy who became ill after opening night. Understudy Laveta Loyd assumed the role for the rest of the week.

Friday night Miss Hall returned to the role and was tremendous.

The operetta was directed by Charles Morningstar. Music director was Dr. Rosella Durksen. Jay Cranston is President of the society.

LADIES STEP FORWARD

By JEAN

How much depth has your beauty? Let a glimpse of your hidden beauty shine with the start of the holiday festivities. Beauty wears many faces to those we love.

Woman is man's inspiration, queen of her home and her castle. Mother, reflection of all that is virtue, and true values of living. Character, religion, security, and faith in the future.

Taking time out to enjoy the simple things, a family gathering, the joy of being together and sharing. A beautiful thought, a lovely song, like looking out a rainbow when the storm has passed, holding your hand when you are ill, and kissing your disappointed away and giving you courage.

Each Queen is an inspiration to her family and with her quiet beauty rules her castle. We reflect all that is beautiful.

Psalm 138: Quote: "You have made me thank unto the Lord for He is good for His mercy endureth for ever."

"You have not lived a perfect day, even though you have earned your money, unless you have done something for someone who will never be able to repay you."

A POEM

TO MAKE YOU LAUGH

My get up and go has got up and went.

How do I know my youth is all spent?

Well, my get up and go has got up and went.

But in spite of it all, I am able to grin.

When I think of the places my get up has been.

Old age is golden so I've heard it said.

But sometimes I wonder as I top into bed.

With my ears in the drawer, my teeth in a cup.

And my eyes on the table till I wake up.

Ere sleep mids my eyes, I say to myself.

"Is there anything else I can lay on the shelf?"

And I am happy to say, as I close the door.

"My friends are the same, Perhaps even more."

When I was a young thing my slippers were red, I could kick my heels as high as my head.

Now, when I was older my slippers were blue, But I still could dance.

When I was a whole night through, Now I am older my slippers are black.

I walk to the store and puff my way back.

The reason I know my youth is all spent.

My get up and go has got up and went.

But I really don't mind when I get up with a grin.

Of all the grand places my get up has been.

Since I have entered life's competition, I busy myself with complete repetition.

I get up in the morning and dust off my wits, Pick up my paper and read the "Obit."

If my name is missing I know I'm not dead.

So I eat a good breakfast and go back to bed.
