

Plans are Completed For Charity Campaign

The WXYZ Radio Public Affairs Department has produced two special programs in support of the TB and Health Society of Detroit and the Goodwillies "Old Newsboys Day" charity campaign.

The first program entitled "Christmas in Detroit" will be broadcast Sunday, December 2, from 9 to 9:25 p.m. The second program, "Old Newsboys Day," will be broadcast Sunday, December 9, from 9 to 9:25 p.m.

Both programs will feature Fraser Pomeroy, treasurer of the organization, and a discussion on the work of the Goodwillies and their unique campaign where they sell newspapers to the city's most prominent citizens.

It is beginning to look like we may have a white Christmas. For those who prefer the weather of several weeks ago, there is one consolation—"Old Man Winter" has sprung up his sleeve. However, until spring comes many avid skiers are finally rejoicing.

Two new families have moved into K.I. both on Quail Hill. A welcome to the W. Strege's, a family of five which includes Leonard, 13, John, 10, and David, 8. The Charles Scott Jr. family moved here from Detroit. They have two children, Leslie Ann, 14, and Laurie Jean, 10. Scott is employed by the Bliss and Laughlin Steel Co.

Inspector Pollock of the Food and Drug Administration of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and pointed out the constant efforts of the government to protect the public in the areas of food and health commodities. He stressed the need for the education of the citizenry as to wise purchasing of food and health products.

Donald C. Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis L. Harris of 2317 Violet St., Farmington, completed recruit training recently at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. During the nine-week indoctrination, recruits are trained in physical fitness, basic military drill, customs and etiquette of the naval service, swimming and survival, first aid and basic shipboard routine. During the training, recruits receive tests and interviews which determine future training and assignments.

Friday's are beginning all around the Kendallwoods. To night on Cratsbury there will be a Christmas party where Mary Jane Curme will entertain her club. Saturday night the midnight oil burned as a bridge game was held at Ann and Bill Hiner's Bonnet Hill home. Phyllis Johnson and Marie Conroy won honors.

LENA AND EMERY Martin of Brandwynn Rd. flew to Los Angeles by jet. They spent three weeks touring the west coast which included a visit to Disneyland; a cabin cruise on the Pacific Ocean; a tour of Universal Studios where they saw Spring Byington, Tom Curtis, and several other stars. Through Beverly Hills where they saw the homes of many screen and T.V. stars; visited the Wax Museum; and attended the Lawrence Walk Program. They then moored to Phoenix, Arizona where they spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Martin's nephew and his family, and several friends. During their stay in Phoenix they enjoyed western hospitality at the Valley Ho Hotel. Upon arriving home they were welcomed by delightful (even if short lived) weather and for a short time felt that the Arizona sunshine had collected them home.

At Janice and Wayne Cordell's a three table duplicate group met. Gale Girolami and Tom Held won first place, Janice Haydel and Ralph Harris second.

MARION AND DON Robinson of Baintree turned their bridge night into a Christmas party with a humorous gift exchange. After adding the scores both Marion and Don were prize winners.

A big hello and welcome home to "our" college students. Hope your holidays will be packed with fun and only the best of everything. Be sure to report the news from your neighborhood by Sunday night - "you all call" GR. 62288.
