The Constellation is a vital unit of American seapower at home and abroad.

Plan Concert Dec. 19 at FHS

The Music Department will present its annual Christmas Concert next Wednesday, December 19, at 8:00 in the Farmington Senior High gym. Colorful lights, evergreen roping, and decorated Christmas trees will be placed around the gym, and should create a beautiful setting in which to present what is expected to be the best program ever.

The evening will begin with the choir singing "Hodie Christus Natus Est" to the band's accompaniment, and after a number of other songs and carols, it will end with the "Hallelujah Chorus" consisting of the combined chorus and alumni, in between, the Girls' Choir, Falconaires, a cappella Choir, and Twelve Tones will entertain, each with various songs.

There will be something for everyone this year, since all types and styles of Christmas music and songs have been scheduled. For the older, intellectual type there will be Gosses and Mozart, while for the youngsters "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer" and "Jingle Bells" will provide enjoyment.

Another highlight of the evening — a treat for the youngsters — will be the appearance by Santa Claus, who — it is expected — will lead the conmunally singing and get every one into the Christmas spirit. During the evening Santa will have one of the youngsters come up onto the stage and choose the two lucky names who will win the door prizes provided by the Music Department.

Tickets are now available from any member of the Music Department for what should prove to be an evening of pleasure and enjoyment for all who attend.

ROBERT DAVIS
Death Claims Ward-Griffith Ad. Mgr. at 42

Funeral services were held last week, Monday, December 3, for Robert Davis of 29100 Lorikay Drive in Farmington. Davis, who was 42 years old, died Wednesday, November 28.

Davis was the Detroit Manager of the Ward-Griffith Company, national newspaper advertising representatives.

A native of Pennsylvania, Davis was born in Elizabeth, Pa., July 23, 1920, and had been a resident of Farmington for two years.

PREVIOUS TO joining the Detroit firm of Ward-Griffith, Davis had been a newspaper advertising representative in Pittsburgh, Pa., and a title salesman with radio station WTAR in Norfolk, Virginia.

He was a member of the Aircraft Club in Detroit, the American Association of Newspaper Representatives, and the Detroit Association of Grocery Manufacturers Representatives.

The deceased rested at the R. G. Harris Funeral Home, 14751 McNichols Road, The Rev. Dr. Lehman Strauss, pastor of the Highland Park Baptist Church, officiated at the funeral services. Interment was at Oakland Hills Memorial Cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, Anna Lou; and three children, Teri, 9, Lisa, 4, and Clayton, 2 years old. Also there are Mr. Davis' mother, Mrs. Gertrude McKee, and a sister, Mrs. Betty Beedle, both of Elizabeth, Pa.

Eastern Star To Stage Party

Farmington Chapter No. 239, Order of the Eastern Star, initiated two new members at the Tuesday evening meeting at the Farmington Masonic Temple. Some 95 members and guests were present for the initiation of Mrs. Doris Tarr and Mrs. Alex T. Mackenzie.

The organist, Mrs. Alma Primrose, was honored guest for the evening. Her guests were Mrs. Lily Lawler, Oakland County Association Organist; Mrs. Hazel Woodfenden, Commerce; Mrs. Joan Stark, Birmingham; Mrs. Barbara Gowans; Mrs. Lillian Walhi; Mrs. Edna Stoll, past organist of Plymouth.

The tables in the dining room were decorated with miniature pianos, musical notes and staffs. Each guest received a note planter and corsage.

A Christmas party for all members and their families will be held December 18 at the Temple, starting with a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. followed by entertainment and a fifty-cent gift exchange.
