

From Orchard Meadows Sub

JOAN BROWN GR. 4-1753

The chicken pot is with us once again. Joe Meyers is down there is anything like it is here, with us this week. We hope that he feels better soon and that sister, Janet, is over with it by Christmas.

Frank and Cathy Stevens entertained Frank's parents, the E. W. Stevens from Jackson, for the day last Sunday. Grandma and Granddaddy brought the family's sleds as they're all ready for the snow.

PAT HILL is away for the week, skiing at Boyne Mountain and qualifying for ski instructor. Husband, Gene, will drive up Wednesday and stay for the weekend for advanced training for instructors. They should both get a lot of skiing in this week if the weather holds.

Many of the homes have their outdoor decorations up now and everything looks nice, from the choir boys at the other.

Please, please, if you have any news of visitors or happenings at your home, call me. We can't write it if we don't know it. There cannot be a column if there isn't any news. It is up to you!

A grouch is a man who has sized himself up and got sore about it.

John Says:

Let us remember that although it is a busy season, it is also the Christmas season. Don't be too busy to reach in your pocket when you see that Goodfellow on the corner. Keep him busy because it is Christmas.

New Year's Eve Ball Planned by Legion
Post 346 to Serve Breakfast Dec. 16

A New Year's Eve dance will again be provided by the Farmington American Legion Post 346 on Saturday, Dec. 15. The dance is set to begin at 9 p.m. amid a "nite club atmosphere". For ticket information and reservations call Norm Goers, GR 4-8638.

Childhood has no forebodings. —George Eliot

Groves-Walker Post 346 of the American Legion announced it will again stage a Christmas breakfast for church goers on Sunday morning, December 16, from 8 a.m. until 11 a.m.

The sausage and pancake breakfast was a huge success last year and plans have been made to accommodate even more patrons this year. The price of admission is a one dollar gift for a hospitalized veteran.
