Open House Stated At Mercy College

An open house for high school students and their parents will be held at Mercy College by the Chemistry Club Friday, Dec. 14, starting at 2 p.m.

Dr. Armand J. Guarino, associate professor of Chemistry at Mercy College, who was an exchange student in Mexico this past summer, is now playing host to the girls whose parents he visited in Mexico City.

Miss Rosalie Ghigliarza is attending senior classes at Farmington High School along with 17 year old Carol on the same exchange program sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches under their Youth for Understanding on the campus at W. Outer Drive and Southfield.

Guests are invited to attend "Cinderella" which will be presented at 8 p.m. in McAuley Auditorium on the campus at W. Outer Drive and Southfield.

The new phone number is 176-0810 and the office hours are from 1-4 p.m. Mr. Richard Tyler, the director, will be in the office personally from 3-4 p.m.

The Adult Education program will sponsor many type of course if 14 persons agree to sign for it. The school can find an instructor capable of teaching most any subject and the system is well equipped with the proper facilities.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Cooley of Maple Street, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Helen, to Mr. James Roman, the son of Mr. Frank Roman and the late Velma Roman of Gladwin, Michigan. Mary Helen is a 1959 graduate of Farmington Senior High School and is in her senior year at Central Michigan University. Mr. Roman is a graduate of Central Michigan University and is presently teaching speech at Hillman Consolidated School at Hillman, Michigan. He is a member of the honorary speech fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega. A June 29 wedding is planned.

Customs here were also found to be new to Rosalie from what she has been used to in Mexico. She finds them very exciting and interesting like the teachers and students at the school.

CAROL FREILICH has plans to introduce her 18-year-old Mexican visitor to a full program of winter sports. Rosalie, having never seen snow before, will have many new experiences awaiting her and is eagerly looking forward to them.

Carol has a good idea of just what her visitor finds new and unusual about this country, having herself spent two months in Mexico learning of customs like our own.

At a baptismal ceremony Saturday afternoon 41 persons were baptized in water. The symbol of their dedication to God's will. They are all entering the preaching fellowship of Jehovah's witnesses.

All in attendance were invited to study the Bible with Jehovah's witnesses and learn God's will. Also, they were given appreciation to the management and others concerned for their cooperation in behalf of all the assembled witnesses of Jehovah.

The S.O.C. Saburante Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc., will present a concert of Christmas music in barbershop harmony on Saturday, December 15, at 8:15 p.m. in Fendale High School, 881 Pinecrest, Fendale.

"Come Let Us Sing of Christmas Day" will feature the S.O.C. Chorus and the S.O.C. Soloists, who are children of the S.O.C. members. The director is Mrs. Betty Craig. The concert is being held to raise funds for the Penitentiary Nursery for the Visually Handicapped, Tiedmont, Mrs. Sherry Olanoff, 21-1-6760. Tickets will be available at the box office.

YWCA Winter Term Plans Set

Registration for the Winter Term of YWCA activities for teenagers and sub-teens is now open at Northwest Branch YWCA, 2590 Grand River. The program will start on Saturday, January 12, and will continue for a ten week period. Pre-registration is necessary and may be made at the Branch building, Monday thru Friday from 5:30 until 5:00 p.m.

Activities at the Branch include ballet and tap dancing, children's theatre, art and games. These are scheduled from 8:30 a.m. until 12 noon and are open to girls 12-15 years of age. Girls may choose three activities during the morning hours. In the afternoon young ladies and young men may choose chess, sewing or teen playhouse. This will be followed by a tea town jamboree, an informal dinner in co-ed groups. Dancing, ping-pong, basketball and volleyball ball will be featured.

EVERYTHING IS BEING donated for the event - entertainment, food, gifts, wrapping paper, the postage on the invitations.

No March of Dimes funds are being used, she pointed out. Al Kaline, who is serving as Oakland County campaign director for the 1963 drive, will greet the guests, each of whom will receive a gift.

Entertainment will be provided by the Metropolitan Activities Club, known as "MACS", a group of handicapped persons who will perform a wheelchair square dance and other acts.

Six persons from Farmington who are March of Dimes patients have been invited to the Christmas party. Invitations also have been extended to 40 persons who have been March of Dimes patients.

The North Farmington Teen Club, represented by Pete Allen, President, Bill Lightfoot, Treasurer and Bobby Wieder, Secretary, delivered a 22 inch table model television and a $73 check, designated for the Orthopedic Fund, to the Plymouth State Home and Training School.

Dr. Robert Jastrow, Hospital Director, received the gifts from the officers and conducted the group on a tour through the hospital wards.

MRS. CLARK Pederson, chairman of the committee for designating the gifts and the recipient, Mrs. Jastrow, accompanied the teens to make the presentation.

The North Farmington Teen Club is held every Tuesday and the officers and adult advisors wish to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their past efforts in making this gift possible.

Farmington's Boy Scout Troop No. 110, had an outing last month. Scoutmaster Jerry Edwards, planned this one for the State Lodge on Tamarack Lake, in Bald Mountain State Park. Assistant Scoutmasters Fred Stegbauer, Jerry Kinjorick, and Thomas Mahoney, conducted the Troop on the Boy Scout's Lodge was right on the shore of beautiful Tamarack Lake. All camping had to be done by the boys on grilles and fireproof containers. Of course it was before the snow, so the difficulties were all minor.

Each Scout had his own sleeping bag, and "mess-hut" in the direction, they managed pantries, hamburgers, baked potatoes, and fried eggs.

The interior of the Lodge was 2000 feet and contained 20 bunks. The Troop spent most of the daylight hours on nature hikes. They would attempt to trace the various trails from the small branches they could obtain. There was no electricity, so naturally bed-time was early. Everybody in the Troop, Assistant Scoutmasters, had an enjoyable weekend.
