Linda Chambers Weds In Methodist Church

Miss Linda Ellen Chambers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dale Chambers of 2655 Westmoreland Drive in Farmington, exchanged wedding vows with Mr. Donald Angus Burrell, of Livonia, in the Orchard Methodist Church, Saturday, December 22, in a 4:30 p.m. ceremony.

MRS. DONALD ANGUS BURRELL

The Rev. Frank Cozadd officiated. The bride wore a floor length white silk brocade gown with a white satin doir bow and veil. The bridal bouquet was made up with white baby roses.

Wendy Jane Chambers, the sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a red satin gown, red satin doir bow and carried a white mull of red poinsettias.

BRIDESMAIDS WERE Judy Hoofnagle of Farmington, Gretchen Hubacker of Birmingham, Mrs. Peter Trombley of Beverton, Michigan and Mrs. Louis Farmer of Waynesboro, Virginia.

The bridesmaids were outfitted in gowns matching that worn by the maid of honor. Their bouquets were made up of white poinsettias.

David Courtney of Detroit acted as best man. The groomsmen were Dennis DeClerk of Detroit, Robert Rixson of Birmingham, Clark Andrew, Jr. of Detroit and Malcolm Vickrey of Detroit.

The mother of the bride chose a fern green crepe sheath dress with a cotton lace bodice and matching fern green accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow orchids.

The bridegroom's mother wore a toast brown lace sheath dress with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow orchids.

A RECEPTION followed the church ceremony at the Rotunda Inn on Pine Lake following which the newlyweds left on a honeymoon skiing trip to northeastern Pennsylvania and New York state. They are making their home at 726 Greefield Court in Birmingham.

The bride graduated from Farmington Senior High School in 1957 and received a degree from Michigan State University's college of education in 1961. She has been employed as a teacher in the Birmingham public school system.

The bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School in Livonia in 1958. He is employed by the Peerless Cement Company.

WESTBROOKE MANOR NEWS

JOYE MCCORT

1963... This is the year... that for you waits... mystic gates.

A few of our residents have given some thought to making some resolutions. Could they possibly sound anything like you might make?

The Marty Glucksteins of Chesterbrook have resolved: Marjie and Marty: "resolve to write home to parents more often and get Christmas cards out early in 1963."

Mike: "resolves to take his dog for longer walks."

Danny: "resolves to let his parakeet fly around in more often."

Joel and Lance: (aged 4 and 3, the family has resolved this or them) "to stop waking up the house at 5:30 a.m."

THE ROSS CLAPPER family on W. Wayburn jointly resolves that in the New Year they will allocate the household tasks so that the work will be evenly divided.

The Bill Keegans on Arnel have resolved the following: Bill: he resolves "to complete all the projects Marjie has planned for 1963."

Marjie: she resolves "to think of twice as many projects."

Martha: resolves "to spend less money at college."

Patty: resolves "to keep her room clean."

Chris: resolves "not to fight with sisters... unless he feels like it... or they start something."

From the Bob Kelmans on Lorikay.

Bob Kelmans, who says this one is made annually: "to go on a diet."

Mary Jane: resolves "to make a concentrated effort to be more charitable."

Pete Allen: resolves "to study harder and go out more."

Dick Allen: resolves "to be more responsible."

Ward (Mary Jane has offered this one for him): "to start feeding myself."

So goes the way of resolutions.

THE DON DAVENSONS of N. Marklawn will have a guest for the holidays. Arriving Saturday evening, Michele Wambaugh from Chicago.

From Duncel Jr. High and North Farmington on Sunday evening, were many voices singing Christmas carols in French. The French classes combined under the supervision of Miss Johnson, traveled through Westbrooke offering "Silent Night" "Adeste Fideles" and many others. Nancy Weller, publicity chairman, adds that following the carolling they all returned to Miss Johnson's house for a Christmas party.

Happy Birthday to Glen Huber. On Friday, the 21st, Ann and Stan Johnson, Joye and Ralph McCort and Kay and Glen Huber dined at the "Canopy" to celebrate Glen's birthday.

Den 4 of Westbrooke, under the leadership of Mrs. Martha Chalfant, presented a skit at the Kendallwood Convalescent Home using a parody on "Night

Farmington Oaks

Edna Mosley — 474-2410
Betty Robertson — 476-0554

The children in the Oaks got a very pleasant surprise this past Friday evening. Santa Claus paid an unexpected visit to all the boys and girls to make sure he knew what they wanted and also to see if they were being good. He also gave each a candy cane. We understand that Normi Skerik will be in touch with Santa soon and want him to tell Santa how much the children enjoyed his visit.

Mike and Maggie Duncan moved in the week before Christmas with David, 9, and Beth, 3 years old. Snoopy, their Angora cat is still getting used to his new home. The Duncan family moved here from Pontiac.

All of the ladies in the subdivision got a chance to meet Maggie and the other new ladies at Ginie Skerik's home on Tuesday, Dec. 18. Ginie invited all in for coffee and cookies and the turnout was wonderful. There were over 27 women and half as many preschoolers present. Our thanks to Ginie for the chance to meet our new neighbors.

OUR BIRTHDAY roll this month is a long one. Ronnie Klein celebrated his 13th birthday on Dec. 3. The Carrahan family has 3 birthdays this month. Ann Garrahan was 15 years old on Dec. 13. Dave was 14 on Dec. 15, and Barbara was 9 on Dec. 17.

Mike Smith blew out 12 candles on Dec. 22 and Ronnie Rinz celebrated his 7th birthday twice, once with a party earlier this month and again on his birthday, Dec. 25.

Jim and Marie Ruyte left here Dec. 22 journeyed first to Saginaw to visit Marie's family and then went to Midland to celebrate an early Christmas with Jim's family. Marie's mother and dad in turn, traveled to Farmington for Christmas Day.

John and Edna Mosley had a full house last Saturday with a Christmas get-together of Edna's family. There were over 30 adults, uncles, cousins, etc. present.

Sunday afternoon Wes and Betty Robertson entertained Betty's sister and her family and Betty's Dad.

Joe and Pat Guyette's Godson, Matthew Hogan died of Mon. Dec. 17 in Caro, Mich. Matthew was the son of Pat's sister and was 4 months old.

MISS SUZANNE JOHNSON

Earns Nurse's Cap at Mercy

Miss Suzanne Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Johnson of Farmington, received her nurse's cap in a freshman capping ceremony Sunday, December 9, at St. John the Evangelist Church.

She was among 103 freshmen from the Mercy College School of Nursing of Detroit and Ann Arbor who took part in the impressive ceremony. The girls exchanged their school bonnets for nurse's caps and with tapers in hand sang in a choral group for parents and friends.

After the benediction, the guests were shown through the nurses' home and given a view of the "usually private" rooms of the girls.

Suzanne had as her guests Mr. and Mrs. George Benedetti, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Richard Johnson, and her parents.

Yule Spirit Reigns at Cub Meeting

Pack 168 Cub Scouts held their pack meeting Wednesday, Dec. 19, at Eagle School, with their theme "Magic of Christmas."

All the Cubs of each den and their parents sang Christmas songs of "Deck The Halls," "Jingle Bells," "Little Town of Bethlehem," and "Joy to The World."

Den 1 presented the skit, "The Night Before Christmas," following the opening flag ceremony, conducted by Den 5, not they had been good.

THE CUBS THEN displayed their Christmas projects, which they had been working on. Cub Master, Mr. Earl Block, asked each Cub to share some of his toys with children at the Northville State Hospital. Santa then came in with his big bag of Christmas candies to be delivered to each Cub and his little brothers or sisters. Of course Santa Claus had to check with several Cubs whether or Ceremony, conducted by Den 5, not they had been good.
