Kendallwood Komments

JANICE HAYDEL GR. 6-2228

We are still hearing about the parties and celebrations that were held in the Kendallwoods during the holidays. For instance—

There was a progressive dinner on Hawbury in K3; cocktails and champagne were served at the home of Jerry and Jack Wendt, shrimp and salad at Barbara and Henry Haigh's, a spaghetti supper at Margaret and Bert De Haan's, desert and coffee at Agnes and Clare Goodrich's followed by a party and breakfast at Barbara and Mary Stevens.

This is the fourth annual progressive dinner these couples have held. Each year they take movies and also make tape recordings of the events of the evening which are kept in secret until the following year. This year they were able to see themselves for the first time which they learned in 1961. Next year they will see the Bosa Nova as they did it this year. Sounded like a very entertaining evening.

THE SHELLOFFS of Red Clover in K 3 entertained 35 guests from Ohio over the holidays as well as holding an open house in honor of Hazel and Herb Neely, former residents of Kendallwood now residing in Atlanta, Ga.

The Red Tree Bridge Club held a Christmas party at Donna and Jack Flehman's treasure hunt and other games provided the entertainment for the evening. Donna and Jack also entertained their friends at an open house the Saturday before Christmas.

Earl and Ann Oppertbauer held "open house" for their friends on Sunday.

Nancy and John Kinn's New Years Eve party for friends and neighbors from Kendallwood and Birmingham was a smashing success!

The Jack Blanchard's held a surprise birthday party for Bob Smith of Kendallwood Drive. Those attending from Kendallwood besides Bob and his wife, Elita, were Mickey and Jerry Williams. Happy Birthday Bob!

AT BECKY AND BOB Baragallo's on New Years Eve

there was a gay party. Games, their families in Cleveland, Ohio. They returned to Farmington on New Years Day.

Happy Birthday Shirley Otis. Shirley's birthday was yesterday, January 9. No report of the celebration has been received yet, however we will expect all details soon.

Sincere sympathy is expressed to the Watson family of Baintree on the death of Edith's mother. The funeral was held in Rockwood, Tennessee. Sharon, home from Michigan State University, took charge of things at the Baintree home while mother and father were away. Sharon will graduate from State in June.

The newest member of the Smith Family of Thompsons arrived on December 28. This is the ninth child for Rosie and Tom. They have named him Christopher Stephen.

The Allen Kujala's joined the Kendallwood family in April of 1952 when they moved from Dearborn into their new home on Thornbury. They like Kendallwood so much that in February of this year Allen's father and mother, the William Kujala's, will move into their new home on Baybury.

Arthritis afflicts more persons than any other crippling disease. Michigan has 329,000 victims.

Similar prizes were awarded in K 2, 3, and 4. First prize in K 2, 3, and 4, First prize to S. P. Frattini, Family of Leamington Rd. The second to the Victor Girolami Family of Craftsbury. The third to the Earl Oppertbauer Family of Baintree.

Thompson-Brown has indicated their desire to continue supplying the prizes in future years for this very worthwhile contest which helps stimulate outstanding Christmas decorations in our community. However, because of the many other subdivisions developed by Thompson-Brown where they offer prizes for similar contests, they have requested that the Kendallwood associations concerned conduct the contest in its entirety. Thompson-Brown advises they can no longer be responsible for appointment of judges, making necessary arrangements and carrying on the required follow-up for a successful contest.

TWO BRIGHT NEW STARS arrived on December 19 at the home of Lenore and Daniel Skrovan of Farmington Rd. — twin daughters, Donna and Denise. The Skrovan's other children — Janet, 6, Danny, 4, and Rozanne, 2, thought this was the most wonderful Christmas present of all.

Jim, Marcia, Dennis, Michael and Mary Wyatt of Craftsbury enjoyed Christmas with their families and friends in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Les, Mary Lou, Leslie, Terry and Tom Carriere of Bridgebrook had an exciting five-day ski vacation. They were guests of Pat and Bill Targett and son, Mike, whose cabin is located on Lake Chub near Gaylord. They were also joined by their children. They spent most of their time on skis at Woods Knob, Thunder Mountain and the Ausable Ski Ranch. From the report, all of the Carriers can handle the skis with near perfection.

Frank, Helen, Slis, Fritz and Wendy Worack of Brandywine spent Christmas at Grand Blanc with Helen's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ragdale. Frank was recently appointed Assistant Manager of automotive accounts for Great Lakes Steel Corp. Congratulations "Bud".

CHARLIE AND JOANN Billmeyer joined Charlie's sister and her family in Florida during the holidays.

Start the "PIG RUN" we're all set!

THIS PIG RUN IS NOT A SPORTING EVENT ...AND THERE'S NO BACON ON THE "PIG"!

In the typical, colorful jargon of the pipeliner, a steel slug surrounded by stiff wire bristles is called a "pig" and the act of sending this pig through a section of pipeline is called a "pig run." This pig scoots rapidly through the smooth interior of the huge pipeline, clearing any rust and dirt and scale ahead of it—making sure that Clean Natural Gas remains clean all the way to the cities and villages of Outstate Michigan.

This is only one of the many precautions taken to assure dependable, efficient, clean gas service for home and industry.
