Bart Tenney is making very good progress. He will have to remain at Beaumont Hospital for many weeks, but his complete recovery is expected.

Alvin and Virginia Albertsen, with Holly and Brian, went to Cleveland, O. for a week to spend Christmas with relatives there.

JACK ARMROSE went into the hospital again the Saturday before Christmas and did not return home until a week ago. Monday, Ellen reports that he feels just fine.

Ellen Banfield has spent hours every day practicing for the solo organ program she is to give tomorrow night in Franklin for the Hammond Organ Club. Candace was home for the holidays but returned to her school in Staatsburg, N.Y. on Saturday night.

Ada and Charles Bronson had Charles' niece, Carol Bronson of Los Angeles, Calif., and Ada's nephew, Glenn Vaughn, with them at St. Louis U., with them for Christmas.

ED AND WILMA GARDEN had house guests for over new years Mr. and Mrs. Cable and their 11 year old daughter, Patricia, Ill. They had a big New Year's eve party with about 50 attending.

Alger and Alice Clark spent Christmas day with their son and his family, which includes five children, at their home in Bloomfield Hills.

Gertrude and Pere Darnell spent Christmas in St. Thomas, Canada, with Gertrude's family.

Bobbette and Butch Davenport, and the four children, spent the holidays with Bobby's parents at Del Ray Beach. They came home with a variety of intervals but all were here for Christmas.

Jimmy Davis returned to Brigham Young U. on New Year's day. That afternoon "Emogene gave a recovery party" for about ten friends.

EFFIE AND BILL DOROUGH had a big party Dec. 30. A champagne and buffet supper was served to 48 guests. Friends and relatives not only from this area but also Grand Rapids and as far away as San Francisco, Calif. Effie's home was decorated in green and blue with accents of red in the family room. After supper they were entertained with music.

Larry Wales played the guitar and was accompanied in singing folk songs by Bob Stewart, formerly with the Metropolitan Opera Co.

GRACE AND VERNON Fisher had a buffet supper last Sunday night for members of the Farmington School board with husband-wife and the Administrative Staff and wives. There were 25 present.

For Christmas they had all their immediate family: Uncle Frank Bleich from Detroit, their three girls, two sons-in-law, and 4 grandchildren, which included the two 1962 grandsons and completed the group of a dozen gathered together - and the boys outnumbered the girls by one.

New Year's Eve the Fishers had friends from Livonia, Detroit, and a few Wood Creekers in to see the New Year in with them.

Ed and Marie Keller saw their son, Douglas, called Kip, in Jan. 4 for Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas where he will start his service duty.

That same day Marie resigned from her job to be an at home wife. She has many plans for music and art work, but we hope to see her at Wood Creek gatherings.

It was a very exciting holiday season at the Methodist Eastbrook Court, for on Christmas Day their daughter, Mrs. Wilford Schaldenbrand, gave birth to a baby girl at Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital. Bonnie Maria weighed in at 7 lbs. 7 ozs. and has a mass of long dark hair. Rose Ann stayed with grandma and grandpa Mershak while her baby sister and mama were in the hospital. All are back home now, mother and baby doing fine.

Bonnie Maria will be baptized on Jan. 13 at St. Colman's Church by Rev. Fr. Edward Konopka. The god parents will be Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schaldenbrand, Jr. of Garden City.

ETHEL AND ROY Nelson spent Christmas in Washington, D.C. Their nephew, David Healy, came on from his college in Hanover, Ind. in time to drive down with them on Sunday, Dec. 22, to his home.

Paul and Mrs. Lyle C. Healy. After Christmas they went to Tryon, N.C. and stayed several days at the Pinecroft Inn. Of course they saw the Weavers.

Peg and Lloyd Nelson had two of their daughters and families with them for Christmas. Marilyn and husband Ken Kaestner; with their two little girls, the youngest born, Mrs. Marilyn and husband Chuck Kaestner completed the happy group.

THREE couples attended the Christmas dance at the Oak Hills Country Club. They had a very fine dinner, good music, lots of fun. I am told it is the best Christmas party ever.

FIRST NOTICE. The spring election will be March 14. A president and two councilmen are to be elected.

The general meeting of the WSCS of the Franklin Community Church will be held Tuesday, Jan. 22, at 12 noon in the Social Hall. The Sarah Circle will be hostesses for the day.

Dr. Joseph J. Koperski will speak on "Youths Special Needs".

The Esther and Sarah Circle will combine for their Jan. 17 meeting to be held at 8:00 p.m. in the home of Mrs. T. D. Denery, 3000 Oak Hills.

Dr. Mrs. H. E. Ingall and Mrs. John McLean will co-hostess the meeting which will feature Dr. Robert Freese as the evening's speaker.

Mrs. Ed Green will welcome members of the Ruth Circle on Jan. 14. Her home on Woodlure will be open at 10 a.m. with Mrs. D. Cohn as co-hostess.

The Rebecca and Mary-Maria Circles met this past Tuesday, the latter at the home of Ginny Swift and I was her co-hostess.

News From Briar Hill

FRANCES MANN

MA. 6-5946

The holidays were saddened for Ruth Steiner and her brother, Harry Fox, both of Beac-ton, when their mother, Mrs. Virginia Fox of Detroit, passed away. She was laid to rest on December 26.

Ray Norton, home from college and highly hampered in his activities. While skiing he met with an accident and his right arm was pulled out of its socket. It will be almost four weeks before it is completely mended.

HANK AND KITTY Jones of Beacottone did some holiday entertaining the evening of December 22. Friends and neighbors enjoyed cocktails, "punch-derives and a buffet supper the wee hours of the morning.

The Vic Palmer family of Northwick spent the Christmas holidays with relatives in Chicago. Marion and Vic were part of the group enjoying the Governor's Inaugural Ball in Lansing and stated that Mr. and Mrs. Romney were charming.

Harold and Lois Holmes with daughter, Kathy, left the Thurs- day before Christmas for Bloomington, Indiana, Danville and Chicago, Illinois to spend Christmas with friends and relatives. They returned to Briar Hill on Thursday, December 27.

Christmas 1962 will long be remembered by the Walter Neumann family of Beacottone. They left on Friday, December 21, for Niagara Falls, all in from a glorious trip.

From there they went to Pease Air Force Base in New Hampshire to spend the Christmas holidays with Wally's brother, Major Clarence Neumann and family. Their five-day stay included side trips to Maine, Boston and the quaint, old-fashioned town of Portsmouth near the Air Base. Their tour of Boston included Paul Revere's house, North Church and a very interesting trip through "Old Ironsides".

MAJOR NEUMANN is head of a weather squadron and so Wally, Florence and the children saw many sights right on the spot.

Next on the agenda was a visit to their cousins in Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania but before arriving they became hopelessly lost in a blinding snowstorm. It did take much convincing for them to spend several days in Bryn Mawr so this was where they celebrated New Year's Eve. New Year's Day found them traveling on to Washington, D. C. where they spent several days and among their hosts was the White House, the F.B.I. building, luncheon in the Senators' Dining Room and a visit to the Smithsonian Institute which they recommended highly.

Friday evening, January 4, found them back in Michigan with the children frantic because they were afraid it would be too late to pick up their dog at the kennel and it was the dog's birthday. They didn't forget their Father though as it was his birthday too. They were all happy to be home and it was like Christmas all over again when Wally went to the post office to get the gifts that had been sent on ahead.

Surviving besides Mr. Werden are a daughter, Miss Doris Werden of Farmington, and two sons, Albert H. Werden, Jr. of Royal Oak and Eugene H. Werden of Pontiac. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Mae Johns of Milwaukee, Wisconsin and Mrs. Emma Byers of Grand Rapids; and one brother, Clyde Hendrick of Muskegon. Four grandchildren also survive.

Mrs. Ed Green will welcome members of the Ruth Circle on Jan. 14. Her home on Woodlure will be open at 10 a.m. with Mrs. D. Cohn as co-hostess.

The Rebecca and Mary-Maria Circles met this past Tuesday, the latter at the home of Ginny Swift and I was her co-hostess.
