LET'S START 1963 WITH A NEW YOU

Whether you think of the skin as an organ—which some schools of thought maintain it is—or merely a casing to contain the body's cause, the fact remains that it is one of the hardest working parts of the human body.

The skin is called upon to produce oils, their perspiration and nails, along with regulating body temperature. It has many ailments of its own and is usually affected in one way or another by most illnesses attacking other parts of the body. Thus, the skin suffers in beauty and attraction when one's health in general is something less than par.

Our shop's motto for 1963 is to offer today's busy woman more individual attention and personal service than she will ever encounter elsewhere. We carefully train our staff in make-up techniques and teach them to help their clients become beauty-wise and buy beauty-wise.

We enjoy helping each client invest her cosmetic dollars wisely. Each on our staff is your beauty consultant because they love the fun of helping women achieve their best features to the fullest advantage.

Beauty has a thirst for moisture! The research chemists of the cosmetics we sell have perfected a truly extraordinary moisturizing process to quench that thirst scientifically.

Scientists have known for years that one of the finest beauty treatments for your complexion is pure water! But water evaporates from the skin's surface moments after application. The problem was keeping moisture to the skin and keep it there—beauty treating you a complexion. Vita-Moisturizing does just that! It actually creates moisture on your skin and helps keep it there while gently but persistently going into precious beautifying action.

Alice Louise Abfalter Speaks Wedding Vows

Miss Alice Louise Abfalter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. W. Abfalter of 3209 Chiles Avenue in Farmington, was united in holy matrimony with Mr. Robert Joseph O'Brien, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben O'Brien of 314 Haskell Street in Kalamazoo, Michigan, in a double ring ceremony held in the Our Lady of Sorrows Church at 11 a.m. on Saturday, December 29.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas Beahan officiated at the church wedding. The couple spoke their wedding vows amidst an altar decorated with red poinsettias.

FOR HER WEDDING the bride wore a gown of imported lace and silk-mist tulle. The gown featured a full-length train and a full bouffant chapel train with a bustle in the back.

A pearl feathered head piece secured her show-length veil. The bridal bouquet was composed of crescent shaped white amaranth lilies and ivy.

The maid of honor was Miss Joyce Marie Abfalter, sister of the bride. She wore a floor length, bell shaped, red tulle dress with cap sleeves and a bustle in the back. Her bouquet was made up around a white fur muff with red carnations and holly.

MISS SAINT MORITZ of Battle Creek, Mrs. Dennis Toux of Detroit and Miss Diane Abfalter, the bride's cousin, from Decatur, Illinois, were the bridesmaids. They wore dresses matching that worn by the maid of honor only emerald green instead of red in color. Their headpieces consisted of white fur headbands matching the white fur muffs centered in their flowers of red carnations and holly.

Mr. John Fleckstein of Kalamazoo acted as best man. The groom's best man, Mr. Kermit O'Brien, brother of the bridegroom, from Grand Haven, Michigan. Mr. William O'Brien, brother of the bridegroom, from Kalamazoo, and Mr. Thomas Abfalter, brother of the bride, from Farmington.

Organ selections were offered for the couple by Mr. Roul, one of which was "Ave Marie". The bride's mother chose a royal blue brocade silk dress suit with matching royal blue accessories and a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids. THE BRIDEGROOM'S mother wore a champagne brocade sheath dress with matching accessories with a yellow cymbidium orchid corsage.

A reception followed the church ceremony at the Redford Inn where a wedding breakfast was served to the many guests.

The newlyweds departed on a two-week honeymoon to Washington, D.C. following the reception. The bride chose a beige wool sheath dress with long sleeves for traveling. They plan to make their home at 703 East Chicago Avenue in Coldwater, Michigan, where Mr. O'Brien is employed at the Edison Elementary School. He is a 1961 graduate of Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo.

The bride has been employed at the Northville State Hospital. She is a 1959 graduate of Our Lady of Sorrows High School and the Borgess School of Nursing, 1962.

Village Woman's Club Plans Lecture Series

Once again the Village Woman's Club will sponsor a "History in the Making" series for women in this area to be held in consecutive Thursday mornings in January and February, and to begin on January 10.

MSU-O is drawing upon outstanding area specialists from their own and other Michigan universities to help staff the series. There are to be two lectures on each area of study.

ROGER HACKETT, specialist in Asian Studies, will come from the famous Japanese Institute of the University of Michigan.

Harm de Blij of the new Africa Center at Michigan State University returns by popular request to continue his series on Africa where he spent the summer. Mr. de Blij, a Dutch-born geographer, is the author of a newly published book, "Africa South."

Wesley Fishel, well-known specialist in Asian affairs and former head of the Michigan State University project in Vietnam, will bring a fresh viewpoint garnered from his recent study in Asia on a Guggenheim Fellowship.

EDWARD HAUBEL, professor of comparative government at MSU-O, will conduct the last of the series. A Fulbright lecturer at the University of Buenos Aires, he intends to include Mexico, Argentina, Uruguay and Guatemala in his survey of the Latin American situation.

The purpose of these eight lectures is to give the women of this community vivid illumination into the history, economic factors, and social factors of the continent.

Chairman of the series is Mrs. Arthur Otis with Mrs. Roland Berndt as Co-Chairman.

which are in conflict behind the news.

On January 24, the Northwest Detroit Branch of Women's National Farm and Garden Association, Inc., will start the new year off with a desert-meeting, at 12:30 p.m., in the Mayflower Congregational Church.

The president, Mrs. F. D. Cooper, urges members to participate in Division projects during the coming year.

Mrs. Raymond Powell, Conservation chairman, will present "Water Wonderland" with Mr. Walter Van Dine, speaker. Hostesses will be Mrs. Arnold Olson and Mrs. Frank Pullen.

Arthritis quackery costs Michigan victims 12 million dollars every year, notes the Michigan Chapter of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation.

Installation of New Officers Planned by Blue Star Mothers

The annual Blue Star Mothers of Ohio, Michigan is well represented among the officers: Grace Shipley, Recording Secretary, from St. Johns; and Iva Stringer from Highland Park, Treasurer.

Reports from all committees have been brought up to date and the chapter enters the New Year with renewed vigor and a readiness to continually increase the good work for veterans.

For Christmas work the chapter went to Maybury San in Northville and gave goodies to 95 of the veterans. Each one also received a crisp new dollar bill. This work has been done under the able and willing chairmanship of Fern Ramm who has been an Associate member of the group for several years and a very good worker.

Chapter 49 offers sincere sympathy for one of its mothers, Etta Vandenberg, whose Christmas was greatly saddened by the death of her sister, Stable Dice of Detroit, whom many knew.

Artists Plan Tour Of Van Gogh Exhibit

The regular meeting of the Palette and Brush Club will be held at the Westlawn Methodist Church, Ohio and Grand River, January 22 at twelve noon for luncheon.

After the meeting the members will drive to the Detroit Institute of Arts, for a tour through the exhibition of Van Gogh paintings.

Plan to Make 'Touch' For Blind Children

Delta Gamma Alumnae, Farmington association, will make "touch" and feel" nursery rhyme books for blind children attending Adams school, Livonia, Monday evening, Jan. 14, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Thomas Mooney, 2832 Bayberry, Farmington.
