Briar Hill Book Club Donates to Library

The donation of books to Farmington District Librarian Mrs. Billings Drogos (R) from the Briar Hill Book Club, which has since placed the gift books on the shelf at the District Library on Farmington Road south of Grand River.

Girl Scout News

Day camp Counsellors, past and potential, are invited to a tea, February 13 from 1 to 3 p.m., in the Peradale Community Center, Slides will be shown and information given. An active interest has been shown in a possible District Day Camp for the five neighborhoods adjacent to Farmington. An area such as Proud Lake Recreation may be selected. This would reduce the transportation time for about thirty minutes. Many from this area have found the ride to Indianwood too time consuming.

Discussion of these projects, plus continuing plans for the 51st Anniversary of the founding of Girl Scouts on March 8, will be the subject of the Area Girl Scout Leaders' Neighborhood meeting, Wednesday, January 16, at Farmington Methodist Church.

INTERMEDIATE TROOP 80 had as guest speaker, Mrs. Fred Lange, international traveler, who showed color slides of Germany, Italy, Sweden and Norway. They are receiving their International Friendship badge. Second class rank was conferred on the troop January 10, by their leader and co-leader, Betty Wilson and Rose Marie Rose.

An investiture ceremony will confer tenderloin, rank on Ellen Reda, Janet Sharpe, Catherine Jacobson and Susan Schneider of Intermediate 410 on January 20. The new Girl Scouts plus Margaret King and Mary Elizabeth Girard will put on a puppet show, The Blue Tootle, Flag ceremony, recitation of the Girl Scout Laws and Promise, and songs will complete the program. Tea and cookies will be served to the mothers and guests as a requirement of the Hospitality badge.

TWO NEW MEMBERS were recently received into the troop by Madge Kirby and Ellen Schaffer. They are second class Susan Le Blanc and Betty Brauer.

In a joint project with Troop 410, Troop 532, led by Lillian King and Mary Ellen Janssen, will spend a weekend at Kensington Park, May 10-12. They will be housed in Orchard Lodge and Arrowhead Lodge. Scouts of this troop are working toward a projected Washington trip in 1954. Each Girl Scout must earn $40 as the cost of the trip.

Troop 532 will have the cooking display for the Juliet Low party, March 8. They are also making plans for a trip to Cranbrook and a skating party. Lorraine Mesinger, who broke her leg the day the troop went camping at Whitehall-Covalescent Home, before Christmas, will miss the skating party.

Area Women Welcome At Membership Tea

On Thursday, February 7, members of St. Paul's Auxiliary of the Little Sisters of the Poor will observe their fifth birthday anniversary with a general meeting and membership tea at the Bertha Fisher Home, Southfield at Outer Drive, Detroit.

Mrs. Frank Petersmark, auxiliary president, will conduct the 12:45 general meeting. The tea is scheduled from 2 to 6 p.m.

Area members and women interested in joining this organization which assist the Little Sisters in their works of charity are cordially invited to attend.

A blown fuse is worthless, yet was worth its weight in gold. The overload on the home electrical circuit which caused the fuse to blow and shut off the current may otherwise have resulted in a costly fire. Replace blown fuses with a 15 ampere capacity only, unless advised differently by a competent electrician.

R. C. Schingek Is Dead at 69

Mr. Renold C. Schingek of 22200 Gill Road, Farmington Township, passed away on Sunday evening, January 20, in Pontiac General Hospital following an extended illness.

Mr. Schingek was born March 31, 1883, in Berlin, Ontario, Canada the son of Charles and Janet Carruth Schingek. He attended school in Canada and on June 21, 1917, was united in marriage to Irene Schubert. Mr. Schingek had lived in Farmington for the past 35 years, he was last employed with the Franklin Products Co.

FUNERAL SERVICES took place on Wednesday at 2 p.m. from the Thayer Funeral Home with Rev. Frank B. Smith of Farmington Bethel Baptist Church officiating. Interment took place at Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens.

Surviving besides Mrs. Schingek are two daughters, Mrs. Doris Carmack of Farmington and Mrs. Jewel Morrow of Clare, Michigan and one son, Charles Schingek of Novi. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Albert Beard of Keok, Harbor, and two brothers, Carl of Auburn Heights and Archie of Adrian, Mich.

Also surviving are eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

When the home heating plant strains to keep house temperatures at comfortable level, defects or mechanical failures may show up quickly. Frequent checks may help to correct a fault before a fire occurs.
