TOPS Chapter Crowns Queen

Eunice Young of Farmington was crowned Queen of the TOPS Scale Watchers Chapter last week at ceremonies conducted in their weekly meeting place, the Community Room of the Bel-Aire Lanes Bowling Alley. Miss Eunice Young of Farmington is shown above with a trophy that was presented to her along with the TOPS crown in recognition of her successful reducing campaign, the best effort by a member of the chapter in 1962.

The very attractive Queen was awarded a trophy plus an expense paid trip to the TOPS National Convention in Long Beach, California for losing more weight in 1962 than any other member of the Chapter. From April 2, 1962, until December 31, 1962, Miss Young lost a total of 76 pounds and less than 40 pounds to lose to reach her desired weight.

MISS YOUNG, together with Chapter division winners, Marilyn Pruitt and Grace Weynsky, give TOPS credit for providing the help and inspiration necessary for a successful diet program. Further information regarding TOPS may be obtained by calling GR 4-6419 or GR 4-1788.

NFHS to Host Area Debaters

Farmington area debaters will participate in District Prep Tournament at North Farmington High School on Tuesday night at 7 p.m. They will debate with teams from Waterford High School and Waterford Kettering High School on the current National High School debate topic of a Common Market of the Western Hemisphere Nations.

The tournament will serve to prepare participating debaters for the coming State-wide District Elimination tournament. HOSTING THE tournament will be the North Farmington debate squad under the direction of Miss Judy Rohm. Debating on the affirmative side of the question for North Farmington will be Chris Meyers and Forrest Hayford. Debating on the negative will be Mark Gaylord and Drew Hodge.

Farmington High School debaters under the direction of Lloyd Smith will be represented by Harlan Boise and Rosemarie Norman on the affirmative, and James Clifford and Betty Konicki on the negative. Junior varsity debaters will also participate from the four schools. Critiques and wins will be given by speech professors from Wayne State University. Refreshments will be served after the debates.

Both Miss Rohm and Mr. Smith feel that this tournament will give all participating debaters an excellent opportunity to develop their speech skills, and better it than for further work in the field of debate. The public is cordially invited to attend.

On Symposium At Northwestern

Irene Hyland of 33730 Britany Dr., Farmington, is participating in Northwestern University's symposium as co-chairman of arrangements committee. The symposium is an annual activity entirely student directed and financed to organize three nights of panel discussions with reputed scholars and educators.

Founders' Day PTA Dinner At Middlebelt

The Annual Founders' Day Dinner of the Middlebelt P.T.A. will be held February 4, at 6:30, at a pot-luck dinner. It will be served to the members and guests which include members of the School Board, the Board of Education of Farmington, and the past Presidents of the P.T.A. at Middlebelt.

The speaker for the evening will be Dr. D. C. McKinney from the Wayne County Board of Health. He has had much experience with young people. The topic of his speech will be "What's Ahead for Teen-agers" and should be most informative.

There will be a short business meeting and plans for the special event for the year will be reviewed. A Pancké Supper will be held to supply money which will be used this year for a scholarship. This event will be held early in March.

YWCA Benefit Planned Feb. 4

The general public is invited to participate in a benefit card party to be held at Northwest YWCA, 2940 Grand River Avenue, on Monday, February 4, at 12:30 p.m. It will be a dessert party and will be sponsored by the Teen Committee of the Branch of which Mrs. D. H. Moore, 8119 Beaverland, is chairman.

The proceeds of the event will help support the YWCA Teen program in the Northwest area and will also help defray expenses of teenagers who attend YW Conferences.

Tickets may be secured at the Branch or from committee women Mrs. J. C. Ford, 33742 Lynwood, Farmington; Mrs. Dwight Gordon, 27450 Spring Valley, Farmington.

Michael Reese Brunette, infant son of Patricia and John Brunette, of Birchwood, was baptized last Sunday at Our Lady of Sorrows Church. His Godparents were James and Barbara Reese.

Michael and Scott Clouse, son and daughter of Roland and Pat Clouse, of Laurelwood, had nine little friends over to help blow out three bright candles on his January 30 birthday.

MICHAEL'S EXCITED guests were Anna Marie and Billy Lombardi, Paula Raymond, Jeffrey Dorah, Cindy, Robbie and Eddie Bessie, Terry Inch and Maureen Stock.

Happy Birthday to Mel Rhodes. He reached the magic number and now he can vote. Last week was "Come to the meeting" for most of our residents. The Farmington Meadows Association held their annual election of district representatives last Sunday night. Among those elected were John Lieber, District 4, George Boese, No. 5, Ray Weaver, No. 6, Carl Jacobs, No. 7, Bill Welch, No. 8, Harold Madison, No. 10, Bob Walker, No. 11, Ray Sherrill, No. 12, and Bud Herd, No. 13. Several of the district had no voters there so will be choosing their representatives at a later date. The elections were preceded by an interesting and informative meeting, and the evening closed with coffee and donuts. The Association wishes to be 100 per cent strong this year, to run don't walk, to your representative and join this worthwhile group.

Wednesday night, the brand new P.T.A. of Flinders School, got "down to business". THE NEWLY WRITTEN constitution was read and approved by members present. The following officers were elected: President, John Brinelle; Father Vice, President, George Boese; Mother Vice, President, Mrs. Nan Held; Teacher Vice, President, Mrs. Rose De Long; Secretary, Mrs. Lee Justice, and Treasurer, John Washburn. Mrs. Yvonne Leakey was appointed Chairman of the Flinders Committee. Refreshments donated by the Flinders Home Room Mothers were enjoyed by the group.

The mothers of Girl Scout Troop 589 met at the home of Doris Burd last Thursday evening. They discussed plans for swimming lessons and future camping trips for the girls. The interesting meeting was followed by a film showing the Girl Scouts in some of their activities. The mothers enjoyed refreshments during the meeting and needless to say, some of the mothers who attended all three meetings last week are going on a diet.

LOU LOMBARDI of Laurelwood was hostess to Pinocchio Club No. 3 for their January meeting. Members playing were Betty Raymond, Paula Clouse, Betty Dorah, Joan Stahl, Carol Knowlton, Donna Welbaum, and Bobby Skaugen. First prize winner was Paula Clouse, Bobby Skaugen won 2nd and Joan Stahl won baby prize.

Julie and Susan-Poimer were guests of the Seamen girls in Bea and Don Holmes of Robinswood were happy hosts to Bea's brother, Major Ray Shower, U.S.A.F., and his wife, Pat, and their two youngsters who visited the Holmes family before departing for a tour of duty in England.

Ellis and Pills Dept. Stew art Stahl, two year old son of Craig and Joan Stahl, parted with a very young set of ton- his last week. Brave little guy, hope the rest of the year is healthy one for you. Cheryl Murray is back to school after a bout with a nasty germ. We have heard reports that measles have been in the acres - call in your spots!

Susan Snyder's home on Bonnet Hill was the scene of a surprise amaze party in honor of Kathleen Mc Cort who celebrated her birthday on January 24. Co-hostesses for the occasion were Nancy Coon and Pam Blanchard. There was a birthday cake, ice cream and gifts to round out the party. All of these girls are in the 9th grade at the O. E. Dunkel Jr. High School.

Honoring the 9th Birthday of their daughter, Darlene, Mr. and Mrs. Balsanen, entertained at their home on Bretton Ave. Saturday afternoon, the 19th. A large group of young folks were in attendance and enjoyed the usual games and stunts. Appalling refreshments were served and many pretty gifts were presented. Miss Darlene, Honoring the Birthday of her daughter, Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Schult, held "Open House" at their home on Laurel Ave., Friday evening, the 25th. Birthday cake and ice cream were served to all and the young lady was well remembered with cards and gifts.

MRS. AUSTIN AULT Brentwood Ave., was hostess to her card club Tuesday afternoon. Eight ladies were present. Before the games, the group enjoyed a pleasing lunch.

A Political Plum For George Giffin
George Searle Giffin, son of Mrs. Mary E. Giffin, 31577 Northwest St., Farmington, has been elected vice president of the Young Republican Movement at Berea College. Giffin is a graduate of Farmington Senior High School where he was yearbook editor, a member of the National Honor Society, Michigan Junior Achievement president, and a semifinalist in the national Junior Achievement president contest. He is a member of the Freshman Club at Berea.

It was a cold Tuesday, but members were present from Farmington as well as the immediate neighborhood at the regular session of the Hobby Club held at the Reddy home, on Shady Side Ave. A dessert luncheon, consisting of an angel-food ice cream and strawberry concoction was served by the hostess.

SUNSHINE SISTERS held their regular meeting at the home of the Misses Lora and Freda Ault, Norfolk Ave., Wednesday afternoon. In spite of inclement weather, a fair-sized group was in attendance. There was the customary devotion service reports regarding the sick, and prayer for the suffering. The discussion was regarding certain features of our present-day public school system. Cake and tea were served as usual.

The next Sunshine meeting is planned to be held in Neighborhood Church at 2 p.m., Wednesday, February 6.
