Wandering Thru Woodbine. BETTY MILLER. GR. 4-5697.

Woodbine took on an air of Election coming up on February 18 is worth your attention of the extreme cold and pling and snow drifts and no way out unless they had to be. Every one I called had no immediate news in the office and most were completely "contented" to stay by the old woodbine and hug the fireplace.

With a slight let-up this week there seems to be a wee bit of news.

Open house was held on January 14 at Middle School, Farmington, by the P.T.A. After a short meeting, the parents traveled to the various rooms to meet with the teachers and talk over little and big problems. Charlotte Van Winkle and her committee busily hummed about the kitchen to prepare lunch and coffee that was served at the conclusion of the visit.

The Founder's Day Dinner will be held on February 4 at Middle School. Charlotte Van Winkle will set up the tables, help co-ordinate the planning and serve at the potluck dinner.

Mr. D. L. McKinney, Doctor of Sociology, at the Wayne County Youth Home will be the guest speaker and his topic a most appropriate one: "What's Ahead for Your Teen-ager."

THE CANCER-PAD Sewing Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Helen Moore on Wednesday in February. There is enough material on hand at the present time to keep the girls busy. Anyone having white shirts and sheets ready to discard may drop them off at the home of Mary Chellman and they will be greatly appreciated.

Bob and Marilyn Arnold attended the presentation of the musical "Carnegie" last Sunday evening with friends from Detroit. Both thoroughly enjoyed the magnificent production and were enthralled with the voice of Kathryn Grayson.

Last night the West Side Poodle Group consisting of 12 ladies from Woodbine met at the home of Connie Kopko for a rousing game of pinochle, dessert and coffee.

Nadia Bowles, chairman for the forthcoming Annual Woodbine Association Card Party met with Barb Reeder, past chairman, last Monday evening to go over some of the details of last year's successful card party. A meeting of her committee will take place next week. Tentative plans call for the card party to take place at the end of April.

to the executive board; Jan Walters, state board of control, and Anne Horacek, membership chairman. Absent from the picture is Margaret McCaul, executive board. Oakland County Y. R. group meets the third Tuesday of each month at 744 S. Adams Rd., Birmingham, and welcomes all persons between the ages of 18 and 37 to join them. The group plans to concentrate on promoting the proposed convention and to establish a membership drive within the county.

A "Silent Auction" will be held at the home of Louise's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nech of Farmington. The first few days were spent with Christmas festivities, and they found they had to keep looking at the tree as that 32 degree temperature, but will not be revealed until the close of the evening.

The Queen of Angels Circle of which Mrs. Kenneth Benish is chairman, is sponsoring the event. The public is invited.

Now let's go swingin' down the lanes with the Friday Nighters. Tied for first place are the Muskies and Salfish. With a 241 and a 602 series Tony Pastenza rates high score. Ed Weber, sub a 214. Jeop Jylko, sub a 206. With a 183 Mary Stevens takes honors for ladies. The over average jack-pot was won by Gretchen Verlin. Ann Brown had a nice series of 491. For the 500's are Art McClean 510, Jim Brown 508, Ed Weber 509, Jerry Bryan 508, and Jack Virgity 522.

And bowling they were those Thursday Toppins.

BOB CHAPMAN, sub, topped his list with his 618 series. Chet Simmons, with a 127 Betty Hoffman, topped the 500's. Bob Chapman 234, Chet Johns 235 and 215. Joe Kilmer 218 and June Kilmer 200. Team No. 2 leads with 8 and 4. There are 5 teams tied for 2nd place. The Fr. No. 3 got 132-9-10, Judy Sharp the 5-10. And Mr. Jack Potts went to Bob Kraft, Virginia Skonos, Joe Kilmer and George Stencil.

On the 23rd, a Birthday coffee was held to honor Kay Huber. At the residence of Ann Johnson the Lorikos were joined by Edna Suwak, Grace Barton, Ruth Davenport, Barbara Bowman, Mrs. Loretta Stizman, Jane, Kathryn and Tommie Jay, Fran Devine, Mary Jean and Ward Kelman, and Joyce McCort. Coffee and caramel-pecan rolls were served the 10 a.m. party.

At the McCort residence on Wednesday evening Maureen celebrated her 9th Birthday with supper and overnight guest. The guests for supper were Pam Blanchard.

Brownie Scout Troop No. 423 under the Leadership of Mrs. Renee Kelly took advantage of the winter weather and skating party on Saturday. From 1 to 5 p.m., 17 Brownies went to Kensington Park. Co-Leader Mrs. Jerry Berner was joined by Mrs. Jerry Berner and Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell, and Mr. and Mrs. Cloutier. Janet McCulloch was given Birthday honors at the skating party.

Sixth grade students at the Kenbrook School in the Girl Scout Troop 1041, held their flag ceremony on Monday the 21st. Under the leadership of Mrs. Nancy McDavid and co-leader Mrs. Wilma Siefel, the 18 girls were awarded their merit badges.

THE TROOP WORKED together to earn the language badge. Shortly before Christmas they attended the International Institute and was able to listen to and speak with people from other countries. Some requirements for this badge was to speak "girl scout" in 10 languages. The motto is 5, learn to speak in 2. To listen and become familiar with other languages. Following the ceremony coffee and cookies made by the Scouts were served to a very good attendance of Mothers.

Carl Weinstein will be wearing a leg cast up to the thigh for some 2 to 3 months after a fall over the ice. That is a real tough break Carl (some pun) and here's hoping recovery will come as quickly as possible.
